eggs and any farm produce or any foodstuffs found in the sea or cultivated above or beneath the soil;

“Corporation” means the National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation established under section 3;

“livestock” means any animals that are commonly reared for the purpose of food for human consumption and includes cattle, sheep, goats, pigs or poultry;

“Minister” means the Minister to whom responsibility for agriculture and food production is assigned;

“poultry” includes any fowl, chicken, turkey, duck, goose or other bird commonly reared for the purpose of food for human consumption;

“repealed Act” means the Central Marketing Agency Act
(Ch. 68:01) repealed by this Act;

“retail market” means a market whether established in pursuance of any written law or otherwise in which agricultural produce is offered for sale by retail.

PART I

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CORPORATION

Establishment and incorporation of the Corporation.

3. There is hereby established, as a body corporate, a corporation to be known as the National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation.

Constitution of the Corporation.

4. (1) The Corporation shall consist of nine members selected as follows:

(a) six members appointed by the President and having special qualifications or experience as follows:

- (i) one in business management;
- (ii) one in finance or management accounting;
- (iii) one in produce marketing and trade;
- (iv) one in food technology or agro-industry;
- (v) one in information technology; and
- (vi) one in agricultural production with special reference to small farming;

(b) a representative of—

- (i) the Ministry responsible for agriculture; and
- (ii) the Tobago House of Assembly; and

(c) the Chief Executive Officer who shall be an ex officio member of the Corporation.

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1), vacancies in the membership of the Corporation shall not affect its legal existence, unless its membership is reduced to less than five.

(2) The President shall from among the members of the Corporation appoint a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman.

(3) A member appointed under subsection (1)(a) or (b) shall, subject to subsection (4), hold office for such period not exceeding two years as the President shall specify at the time of appointment, but shall be eligible for reappointment.

(4) Any member may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Chairman, who shall forthwith cause it to be forwarded to the Minister.

(5) The appointment of any person as a member of the Corporation and the termination of office of any such member whether by death, resignation, revocation, effluxion of time or otherwise, shall be notified in the Gazette.

(6) Each member shall make and subscribe an oath before a Justice of the Peace that he will faithfully, and to the best of his ability, discharge the trust and perform the duties devolving upon him as such member.

5. (1) The seal of the Corporation shall be kept in the custody of the Chairman, or the Deputy Chairman, or the Corporate Manager and may be affixed to instruments pursuant to a resolution of the Corporation and in the presence of the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman, and of one other member, and the Corporate Manager.

Seal of the Corporation and service of documents.

(2) The seal of the Corporation shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman, or the Deputy Chairman, and the Corporate Manager.

(3) All documents, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and all decisions of, the Corporation shall be signified under the hand of the Chairman, or the Deputy Chairman, or the Corporate Manager.

(4) Service upon the Corporation of any notice, order or other document shall be effected by delivering the same or by sending it by registered post addressed to the Corporate Manager at the registered office of the Corporation.

6. (1) The Corporation shall meet at least once per quarter and at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business, and at such places and times and on such days as the Corporation may determine.

Procedure and meetings of the Corporation.

(2) The Chairman may at any time call a special meeting of the Corporation and shall, within seven days of the receipt of a requisition in writing addressed to him by three or more members summon a special meeting to consider the matters contained in the requisition.

LAWS OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation

8

Chap. 63:05

(3) Minutes in proper form shall be kept by the Corporate Manager and shall be confirmed as soon as practicable thereafter at a subsequent meeting and certified copies of the minutes when so confirmed shall be forwarded to the Minister within the prescribed period.

(4) The Corporation may co-opt any one or more persons to attend any particular meeting for the purpose of assisting or advising the Corporation, but no such co-opted person shall have any right to vote.

(5) Subject to this section, the Corporation has power to regulate its own proceedings.

Committees of the Corporation.

7. (1) The Corporation may appoint a committee (hereinafter called a “committee of the Corporation”) to examine and report to it on any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected with any of its powers and duties under this Act.

(2) A committee of the Corporation shall consist of at least one member of the Corporation together with such other persons, whether members of the Corporation or not, whose assistance and advice the Corporation may desire.

(3) Where persons, not being members of the Corporation, are members of a committee of the Corporation, or where any person is co-opted under section 6(4), the Corporation may with the approval of the Minister by resolution declare the remuneration and allowances of such persons, and such sums shall properly be payable out of the funds and resources of the Corporation.

(4) The Corporation may by resolution reject the report of any such committee or adopt it either wholly or with such modifications, additions or adaptations as the Corporation may think fit.

Power of Corporation to delegate.

8. (1) Subject to this Act, the Corporation may delegate to any member or committee of the Corporation the power and authority to carry out on its behalf such duties as the Corporation may determine.

(2) In the discharge of its functions, the Corporation may arrange for the duties to be carried out either by the Corporation directly through its own officers, servants and employees, or indirectly through persons with whom the Corporation has entered into contract.

9. (1) The functions of the Corporation are to create, facilitate and maintain an environment conducive to the efficient marketing of agricultural produce and food products through the provision of marketing services and the stimulation of business investment in the agro-industrial sector of Trinidad and Tobago.

Functions of the Corporation.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) the Corporation may —

- (a) facilitate and promote the effective and efficient marketing of agricultural produce and food products and advise on the importation of and the mechanisms available to enlarge the local and international market for such produce and products;
- (b) develop and provide information in respect of domestic and export markets in order to assist in the efficient organisation of production, storage and distribution of agricultural produce and food products in a manner that promotes entrepreneurial development;
- (c) establish and administer wholesale markets for agricultural produce and food products;
- (d) advise on policy formulation for the development and management of the retail marketing of agricultural produce and food products;
- (e) facilitate the promotion of agro-industrial development;
- (f) develop, administer and monitor a system of grades and standards aimed at improving the marketing of agricultural produce and food products;

LAWS OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation

Chap. 63:05

- (g) take over relevant activities or functions previously discharged by the Agency;
- (h) lease any lands, buildings, facilities or equipment;
- (i) advise on price support measures and implement such price support measures as the Minister may approve; and
- (j) do all things necessary or incidental to the foregoing and generally carry out the provisions of this Act.

Declaration of interest.

10. (1) A member of the Corporation who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or a proposed contract with the Corporation, that is the subject of consideration by the Corporation shall declare the nature of his interest at the first meeting of the Corporation at which it is practicable for him to do so.

(2) A member of the Corporation shall not vote or participate in discussion on any question in respect of any contract or proposed contract, with the Corporation, in which he is in any way interested whether directly or indirectly.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars.

Remuneration of members of Corporation.

11. There shall be paid to each member of the Corporation in respect of his office such remuneration as the President may from time to time determine and to the holders of the offices of Chairman and Deputy Chairman such remuneration in addition to any remuneration which they may receive in respect of their offices as members of the Corporation as may be so determined.

Corporation to comply with directions of Minister.

12. In the exercise of the powers and duties conferred and imposed on it by this Act, the Corporation shall comply with any special or general directions which may from time to time be given to it by the Minister.

PART II

STAFF

13. (1) Subject to section 14, the Corporation may with the approval of the Minister appoint—

Appointment of officers and other employees.

- (a) a Chief Executive Officer, who shall be responsible for carrying out the decisions of the Corporation; and
- (b) a Deputy Chief Executive Officer, on such terms and conditions of service as the Minister shall approve.

(2) Subject to section 14, the Corporation may, on such terms and conditions of service as it thinks fit, appoint a Corporate Manager and such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the efficient administration, management and performance of its functions.

14. (1) Subject to subsection (2), on the coming into force of the Act, all officers and members of staff of the Agency shall become officers and members of the Corporation on terms and conditions enjoyed by them while in the employment of the Agency.

Conditions of employment of staff of the Agency by the Corporation.

(2) Where a post on the establishment of the Corporation is abolished in such a manner that subsection (3) is not applicable to the incumbent, he shall be granted a temporary pension in accordance with section 15(4) of the Pensions Act.

Ch. 23:52.

(3) The persons to whom subsection (1) refers shall within twenty-four months after this Act comes into force, exercise any of the following options:

- (a) to remain on the staff of the Corporation on terms and conditions that are no less favourable than the terms and conditions enjoyed while in the service of the Agency;
- (b) to transfer to the public service or the service of any statutory board or statutory authority with the approval of the appropriate Service Commission;

Development Corporation*

Chap. 63:05

Ch. 23:03.

(c) to retire voluntarily on pension in accordance with the Pensions Act, if applicable, or on such terms and conditions as prescribed in the Second Schedule to the Voluntary Termination of Employment Act, if applicable, or on such terms and conditions as are agreed upon between the person exercising this option or his recognised bargaining body and the Chief Personnel Officer.

(4) Where a person does not exercise any of the options listed in subsection (3)(a) to (c), he shall be deemed to have retired voluntarily in accordance with subsection (3)(c).

Pension rights.

15. (1) The pension rights which would have accrued to the officers and staff of the Agency as at the date of the coming into force of this Act, shall be preserved to them and shall continue to accrue until the establishment of a pension scheme under subsection (2).

(2) The Corporation shall, within two years of its coming into being, establish a pension scheme by rules confirmed by the Minister, which shall be no less favourable than the scheme established for the benefit of officers and staff of the Agency.

(3) Where an employee of the Corporation dies or retires on or after the date of the coming into force of this Act and before the establishment of the pension scheme, the Corporation shall be responsible for payment of superannuation or death benefits accruing to that employee.

(4) The basis for the accrual and payment of superannuation or death benefits shall be the same as that which was applicable to the employee while he was in the employment of the Agency.

Transfer of staff.

16. (1) The Corporation may, with the consent of the officer concerned and the appropriate Service Commission or the relevant body, authorise the transfer of an officer from the service of the Corporation to the service of the Government, the University of the West Indies or such other body as the Corporation may think fit, or vice versa, on such terms and conditions of service, including remuneration and pension rights, as may be agreed upon by the officer concerned and the body to which he is to be transferred.

(2) A transfer under subsection (1) may be permanent or on secondment not exceeding five years.

(3) An officer shall, upon transfer under subsection (1), have preserved to him his superannuation or pension rights accruing at the time of the transfer.

PART III

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES AND FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

17. (1) On the commencement of this Act, all lands, buildings, installations, equipment and all other forms of property, whether real or personal, and all interest therein of whatsoever nature belonging to and used exclusively by the Agency shall become vested in the Corporation.

Vesting of certain property rights.

(2) If any question arises under subsection (1) whether any land, building, installation or equipment was used exclusively for the purposes of the Agency, a certificate under the hand of the Minister shall be conclusive.

18. (1) In any legal proceedings to which immediately before the commencement of this Act the Agency was a party and which proceedings have reference to the powers and duties transferred by this Act, the Corporation shall be substituted for the Agency, and such proceedings shall not abate by reason of the substitution.

Pending legal proceedings, debts and liabilities, etc.

(2) All debts and liabilities standing in the books of the Agency shall be assumed by the Corporation on the commencement of this Act.

(3) All work, capital as well as otherwise, negotiations of any kind and anything whatsoever commenced by the Agency and incomplete at the date of the commencement of this Act shall be continued and completed by the Corporation just as if there had been no transfer from one body to another.

LAWS OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

Chap. 63:05

Funds of the Corporation.

19. The funds of the Corporation shall consist of—

- (a) such sums as at the commencement of this Act stand to the credit of the Agency;
- (b) such sums as may be advanced by the Treasury in pursuance of the provisions of section 35 of the Exchequer and Audit Act;
- (c) moneys earned or arising from any property, investments, mortgages or debentures acquired by or vested in the Corporation;
- (d) sums borrowed by the Corporation for the purpose of meeting any of its obligations or discharging its functions;
- (e) all fees derived from services or facilities owned by the Corporation; and
- (f) all other sums or property which may in any manner become payable to or vested in the Corporation in respect of any matter incidental to their powers and duties.

Ch. 69:01.

Power to borrow or raise capital.

20. (1) The Corporation may, from time to time, with the approval of the President, borrow, secure or raise money by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, or other security, for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) the fulfilling of the functions of the Corporation under this Act;
- (b) the provision of capital for the expansion of and additions to its fixed assets;
- (c) the redemption of any debenture or debenture stock or other security that the Corporation is required or entitled to redeem; and
- (d) any other expenditures properly chargeable to capital account.

(2) The Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister, borrow by way of overdraft or otherwise for periods not exceeding one year, such sums as the Corporation may require for meeting its obligations and discharging its functions under this Act.

21. (1) The Corporation may borrow by way of advances from the Government such sums as may be necessary for carrying out its functions under this Act, but the Minister shall cause a statement of such advances to be laid in the House of Representatives.

Power of the Corporation to borrow from Government.

(2) For the purpose of making approved advances to the Corporation under this section, the Minister may authorise advances out of the proceeds of any loan raised for the purpose or out of the reserve funds, revenues or surplus balances of Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) Pending the raising of a loan referred to in subsection (2), the Minister by warrant under his hand may authorise the Comptroller of Accounts to make advances out of the Consolidated Fund to the Corporation in such sums and on such terms and conditions as the Minister may think fit for the purposes authorised by this Act.

(4) The repayment of advances under this section and the payment of interest thereon shall be made by the Corporation in like manner and on like conditions as other borrowings by the Corporation, subject to any special terms and conditions which may be imposed by the Minister.

(5) In this section and in sections 22 and 23, “Minister” means the Minister to whom responsibility for finance is assigned.

22. (1) The revenue of the Corporation for any financial year shall be applied in defraying the following charges:

Application of revenue.

- (a) remuneration, fees and allowances of the members of the Corporation or of any committee thereof;
- (b) salaries, fees, remuneration and gratuities, including payments for the maintenance of the Pension Fund authorised by this Act, of the officers, agents and employees, and technical and other advisers, of the Corporation;
- (c) working and establishment expenses, and expenditure on, or provision for, the maintenance of the property and of any of the works of the Corporation and the insurance of the same and the discharge of the functions of the Corporation properly chargeable to revenue account;

- (d) interest on any debenture and debenture stock or other security issued, and on any loan raised by the Corporation;
- (e) sums required to be transferred to a sinking fund or otherwise set aside for the purpose of making provisions for the redemption of debentures or debenture stock or other security or the repayment of other borrowed money;
- (f) such sums as may be appropriate to set aside in respect of depreciation on the property of the Corporation having regard to the amount set aside out of the revenue under paragraph (e);
- (g) any other expenditure authorised by the Corporation and properly chargeable to revenue account.

(2) The balance of the revenue of the Corporation shall be applied to the creation of reserve funds to finance future modernisation and expansion and for such other purposes as the Minister may approve.

Authorised investments.

23. Funds of the Corporation not immediately required to be expended in the meeting of any obligations or the discharge of any functions of the Corporation may be invested from time to time in securities approved by the Minister.

Accounting of Corporation.

24. (1) All decisions, orders, rules and regulations relating to the financial operations of the Corporation and authorised by this Act shall be made by resolutions of the Corporation at a meeting thereof and shall be recorded in the minutes of the Corporation.

(2) The Corporation shall keep proper accounts and other records in respect of its operations, and shall cause to be prepared a statement in respect of each financial year.

(3) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited by the Auditor General or by such person publicly carrying on the profession of accountant as the Auditor General may appoint.

(4) The Corporation shall, before the commencement of each financial year, submit to the Minister for his approval a copy of its budget relating to capital expenditure and the financing thereof, and a copy of its income and expenditure budget, in relation to such year and the Minister shall cause copies of such budgets to be laid on the Table of each House of Parliament.

(5) After the end of each financial year of the Corporation, the Corporation shall, as soon as the accounts of the Corporation have been audited, cause a copy of the statement of accounts to be transmitted to the Minister together with a copy of any report made by the auditors on that statement or on the accounts of the Corporation and the Minister shall cause a copy of every statement and report to be laid on the Table of each House of Parliament.

25. (1) All moneys of the Corporation accruing from its operations under this Act shall be paid into a bank appointed by resolution of the Corporation, and such moneys shall as far as practicable be paid into the bank from day to day, except such sum as the Corporate Manager may be authorised by Rules made under section 26 to retain in his hands to meet petty disbursements for immediate payments. Cash deposits and payments.

(2) All payments out of the funds of the Corporation, except petty disbursements not exceeding a sum to be fixed by Rules made under section 26, shall be made by the Corporate Manager or on his behalf by any other officer appointed by the Corporation in accordance with any such Rules.

(3) Cheques against any banking account required to be kept or withdrawals from any savings bank account shall be signed by the Corporate Manager and countersigned by the Chairman or any member appointed by resolution of the Corporation for the purpose, and a copy of any such resolution shall be certified by the Chairman and forwarded to the bank concerned.

26. The Corporation shall by resolution make rules in respect of the following matters: Rules.

- (a) the manner in which, and the officers by whom, payments are to be approved;

LAWS OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation

Chap. 63:05

- (b) the bank into which the moneys of the Corporation are to be paid, the title of any account with any such bank, and the transfer of one fund from one account to another;
- (c) the appointment of a member or an officer of the Corporation to countersign cheques on behalf of the Chairman or in the absence of the Chairman;
- (d) the sum to be retained by the Corporate Manager to meet petty disbursements and immediate payments and the maximum sum that may be so disbursed for any one payment;
- (e) the method to be adopted in making payments out of the funds of the Corporation; and
- (f) generally as to all matters necessary for the proper keeping and control of the accounts and books and the control of the finance of the Corporation.

Annual report.

27. (1) The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, make and transmit to the Minister a report dealing generally with the activities of the Corporation during the preceding financial year and containing such information relating to the operations and policy of the Corporation as the Minister may from time to time direct.

(2) The Minister shall cause a copy of every such report to be laid on the Table of each House of Parliament.

Three-year business plan.

28. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, submit a three-year business plan to the Minister for his approval.

Non-application of Ch. 69:01.

29. Notwithstanding section 32 of the Exchequer and Audit Act, sections 37 and 38 of that Act do not apply to the Corporation.

Exemption from Customs duty
and income tax.

30. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other written law, all plant, machinery, appliances, apparatus, equipment and materials of every kind whatsoever imported by the Corporation for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act shall be free of all Customs duty whatsoever.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Income Tax Act, the income of the Corporation shall be wholly exempt from payment of income tax. Ch. 75:01.

PART IV

GENERAL AND REGULATIONS

31. (1) The Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister, make Regulations for the carrying out of the purposes of the Act, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing may make Regulations— Regulations.

- (a) establishing marketing schemes for agricultural produce and food products;
- (b) prohibiting the sale of agricultural produce by retail within a specified distance of a Central Wholesale Market;
- (c) establishing Central Wholesale Markets and prescribing the articles of agricultural produce to be sold therein;
- (d) fixing in respect of each category of agricultural produce wholesale and retail units;
- (e) determining the basis on which commissions are to be payable to the Corporation;
- (f) providing for the licensing and registration of producers and wholesale buyers of agricultural produce;
- (g) prescribing the standard to which items of agricultural produce must conform in order to be deemed to be marketable;
- (h) requiring registered producers to keep records and, where required, to furnish returns of the quantity and price of all agricultural produce sold by them.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide for the imposition of a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars for the contravention of any provision thereof.

THE POULTRY INDUSTRY CONTROL COMMITTEE

Establishment of Committee.
[61/1988].

3. (1) A Committee is hereby established for the purposes of these Regulations.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3) the Committee shall consist of eight members who shall be appointed by the Minister as follows:

- (a) a representative of the University of the West Indies (Livestock Division);
- (b) a representative of the Ministry responsible for food production (Agricultural Planning Division);
- (c) a representative of the Central Marketing Agency;
- (d) two representatives of the poultry industry;
- (e) a representative of the private sector (excluding poultry);
- (f) a representative of the Ministry responsible for industry; and
- (g) a representative of the Agricultural Development Bank;

(3) The Minister shall appoint the Chairman of the Committee from among the members of the Committee.

(4) The appointment of a member of the Committee shall, subject to the provisions of subregulation (5), be for such period, being not more than three years, as the Minister shall specify at the time of the appointment.

(5) A member of the Committee may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Chairman who shall forthwith cause it to be forwarded to the Minister.

4. (1) It is the duty of the Committee to carry out the policy of the Agency in relation to the regulation of the poultry industry and subject to these Regulations the Committee shall have and exercise such functions including the fixing of production quotas as are conferred upon it by these Regulations and by any other written law.

General
Committee.

(2) Where the Committee fixes production quotas it shall determine what portion thereof shall be fulfilled by each producer and shall impose purchase restrictions on each such producer who shall be able to purchase supplies in such amount only as would enable him to fulfil his production quota and no more.

5. In the exercise and performance of its functions under this or any other written law the Committee shall act in accordance with any special or general directions of the Minister.

Policy
directions.
[61/1988].

REGISTRATION AND LICENSING OF PRODUCERS

6. (1) Every producer shall, within six months after the commencement of these Regulations, register with and be licensed by the Agency in accordance with regulations 7 and 8.

Compulsory registration of producer.

(2) Producers who, in compliance with the Circular Notice of the Ministry of Agriculture, Lands and Fisheries (hereinafter called "the Ministry") dated November 1968, registered on or before 15th November 1968, and whose capacity has been checked and found correct, shall be deemed to be registered under these Regulations.

(2) A producer's licence shall be in the form set out as Form 3 in the First Schedule.

9. The fee for a producer's licence is such as is respectively specified in the Second Column of the Second Schedule.

RECORDS AND RETURNS

10. (1) Every producer shall keep proper production records at his place of business or residence in Trinidad and Tobago or at such other place as may be approved by the Committee, and in such form as required by the Committee and containing such information as will enable the Committee to supervise and control the poultry industry, and shall make such returns as the Committee may from time to time require.

(2) Where a producer has failed to keep adequate records or to make such returns for the purposes of these Regulations, the Committee may require him to keep such records as it may specify and that producer shall thereafter keep records as so required.

(3) Every producer who fails to keep such production records or to make such returns as may be required by this regulation is guilty of an offence.

11. (1) Production quotas shall be granted to producers only in such amount as the Committee may determine and, subject to the total amount of the quotas fixed for production of a product, in any given period in accordance with this regulation.

(2) Producers deemed to be registered under these Regulations in accordance with regulation 6(2) shall be granted quotas commensurate with so much of the declared capacity as was checked by officials of the Ministry and found to subsist. Capacity in excess of that declared shall be eligible for additional quotas, in the discretion of the Committee, after quotas referred to in subregulations (3), (4) and (5) have been granted.

(3) In the case of producers who were carrying on business before 15th November 1969, but who failed to register as mentioned in regulation 6(2) quotas shall be granted (in the discretion of the Committee) in respect of declared capacity checked by officials of the Ministry or by inspectors of the Agency Committee and found to subsist at the time of registration after quotas referred to in subregulation (2) have been granted. Capacity in excess of that declared shall be eligible for additional quotas, in the discretion of the Committee after quotas referred to in subregulations (4) and (5) have been granted.

(4) The provisions of subregulation (3) shall apply to producers who were not carrying on business before 15th November 1969 but who registered after that date in accordance with the Circular Notice of the Ministry referred to in regulation 6(2) or under these Regulations, but only after the quotas referred to at subregulations (2) and (3) have been granted.

(5) In this regulation “Ministry” means the Ministry of Agriculture.

IMPORTATION QUOTAS

12. (1) Subject to any other written law, the provisions of this regulation shall have effect in relation to the importation of products for use in the poultry industry.

Importation
Quotas.

(2) Importers shall obtain all import licences from the Ministry of Industry and Commerce in accordance with any other law for the time being in force.

(3) All applications for import licences shall be accompanied by a statement of the production quotas assigned to the importer by producers in accordance with subregulation (4) and shall be supported by such evidence of the assignment and production quotas as may be required.

(4) For the purpose of securing the importation of any product for use in the poultry industry a producer may assign any part of his production quota to an importer on terms inter alia that the importer shall on importation of the product the subject of the production quotas, sell to the producer and that the producer shall on his part buy from the importer the full amount of the production quota so assigned.

Power of entry for certain purposes.

13. (1) An inspector or a Committee member may, at all reasonable times, enter into the premises of any poultry producer, and may examine production records and observe the conduct of operations therein.

(2) If any person who in compliance with the provisions of this regulation is admitted into a producer's premises discloses to any person any information obtained by him in the producer's premises with regard to any process or trade secret, he is, unless the disclosure was made in the performance of his duty, guilty of an offence.

(3) Every person who hinders or molests or interferes with any person doing anything that he is authorised to do, or prevents or attempts to prevent any person from doing any such thing, and any person who, unless he is unable to do so, fails or refuses to do anything that he is required by or pursuant to this regulation to do, is guilty of an offence.

Offences and penalties.

14. (1) A producer who fails to register as required by regulation 6 or who contravenes, or is guilty of an offence against, any other provision of these Regulations is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine of two hundred dollars for each day that the offence continues after conviction.

(2) In addition to any fine imposed upon conviction for an offence under these Regulations a producer may have his Producer's Licence cancelled by the Agency.
