

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

Act No. 10 of 1962

AN ACT to provide for the continuity of service of officers transferred from one municipality to another or from a municipality to Government and vice versa.

[Assented to 30th August, 1962]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, ^{Enactment} by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Trinidad and Tobago, and by the authority of the same as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Transferred Officers' ^{Short title} Continuity of Service Act, 1962.

Interpretation

2. In this Act—

“municipality” means the municipality of Port-of-Spain, the Borough of San Fernando, or the Borough of Arima;

“officer” with reference to—

(a) the Government, means a person substantively appointed to an office in the public service;

(b) a municipality, means a person substantively employed by and holding permanent office in a municipality;

“public service” means service in a civil capacity under the Government of the Territory and any other service as the Governor may determine to be public service for the purposes of this Act;

“service” with reference to—

(a) the Government means public service;

(b) a municipality means substantive employment by and permanent office in the service of a municipality;

“Territory” means Trinidad and Tobago.

Governor may approve transfer of officers

3. Whenever the Governor deems it expedient he may approve of the transfer on appointment of an officer either from—

(a) the service of one municipality to another;

(b) the service of a municipality to the service of the Government; or

(c) the service of the Government to the service of a municipality.

Transferred service to count for pensions

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary where an officer is transferred under section 3, the period of service in the office to which he is transferred shall be deemed to be pensionable service in the office from which he was transferred unless the Governor otherwise decides.

Past service may count for pensions

5. Where before the commencement of this Act—

(a) an officer in the public service was transferred on appointment to an office in a municipality,

(b) an officer in the service of a municipality was transferred on appointment to an office in the public service,

- (c) an officer in the service of one municipality was transferred to the service of another municipality, the pensionable service of that officer may, subject to the approval of the Governor, include his term of service as an officer either in the municipality or the public service whichever is appropriate.
