(2) Six Directors shall constitute a quorum, but only if included among the six Directors is either the appointee of the Central Bank, or of the Minister, or of the National Insurance Board.

(3) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board.

(4) In the event of his inability to attend any meeting of the Board, the Chairman may nominate another director to preside in his stead, or in the event that such nominated director is himself unable to attend, or that no such nomination has been made, then any other director present at the meeting and elected from among those present shall preside.

(5) All questions to be determined by the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes of the directors present and voting, and in the event of equality of votes the Chairman or in his absence the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

PART III

ESTABLISHMENT OF UNIT SCHEMES

13. (1) The Board shall establish a unit scheme (hereinafter referred to as “the First Unit Scheme”) and may establish other unit schemes under this Act generally for the purpose of providing facilities for participation by members of the public in the income, profits, and gains that may be derived from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of securities or any other property whatever, and may in particular carry on and transact any of the following kinds of business:

Establishment of unit schemes and selling and purchasing of units, etc. [9 of 1997].

- (a) investing in, acquiring, holding, or disposing of securities, and exercising and enforcing all powers and rights incidental thereto;

- (b) selling, purchasing and repurchasing of units;
- (c) keeping money on deposit with commercial banks or with such other institution as the Board may determine;
- (d) formulating in relation to any unit scheme plan or plans under which a person may acquire an interest in units;
- (e) generally doing all such things as may promote the acquisition, holding and sale of securities or units, or as may be incidental to or consequential upon the discharge of its functions under this Act.

(1A) Subject to subsection (1B), the Board may carry on and transact any of the following kinds of business:

- (a) merchant banking business;
- (b) business of a trust company;
- (c) credit card business;
- (d) the business of providing financial services in respect of future and contingent liabilities relating to foreign exchange and commodities;
- (e) any or all of the above businesses in any country including Trinidad and Tobago, by the establishment of branches, agencies, subsidiary companies or by investing in associated or other companies as the Board may consider appropriate;
- (f) generally doing all such things as may be incidental to or consequential upon the discharge of its functions under this subsection.

(1B) In the exercise of its powers under subsection (1A), the Board shall not utilise any funds held for the purpose of a unit trust scheme.

(1C) In carrying out any business referred to in subsection (1A), the Board may charge such sums as it considers appropriate.

(2) The Trust may purchase, acquire or lease real property where the Board considers it necessary or expedient for the provision or future provision of business premises for the Trust, its branches or agencies, and may dispose of such property when the same is no longer required for such purpose, but the Trust shall not trade in real property.

(3) In investing in securities the Board shall not invest more than ten per cent of the funds of any one unit scheme in the purchase of securities in any one company or other corporation, nor shall the investments of all unit schemes established by the Board include at any time more than ten per cent of the securities issued by any company or other corporation.

(4) Where in the pursuit of any of the objectives set out in subsection (1), the Trust enters into an agreement with any other organisation or company, such agreement may provide for the appointment by the Board of one of its directors to the governing body of such organisation or company.

(5) Any director appointed in accordance with subsection (4) shall hold that appointment during the pleasure of the Board, and so long as he remains a Director of the Board.

13A. All funds held by the Unit Trust Corporation on behalf of unitholders under any unit trust scheme shall be construed as being held on trust for the unitholders of the scheme and shall be kept in an account separate and apart from all other funds of the Unit Trust Corporation, which account shall be audited in accordance with the provisions of section 30.

Trusts to be construed.
[9 of 1997].

14. (1) In respect of any unit scheme the Board may, with the approval of the Central Bank, make Regulations for—

Regulations for unit scheme.

- (a) the issue of units and the face value of each unit, the initial face value of each unit not to be less than ten dollars and not more than one hundred dollars;
- (b) the form and manner in which an application may be made for the purchase of a unit from the Trust and the manner in which payment may be made therefor;

- (c) the maximum number of units that may be purchased by any one person;
- (d) the issue of unit certificates and the form and manner in which such certificates may be issued;
- (e) the issue of a duplicate of any unit certificate in the event of loss or destruction of the original and the fee payable on such issue;
- (f) the procedure for determining the value at which the units may be sold or purchased from time to time by the Trust;
- (g) the recognition of persons as unitholders;
- (h) the application for and the holding of or dealing with units by any parent or guardian on behalf of a minor;
- (i) the persons to whom, the time at which, and the manner in which any payments in respect of a unit shall be made by the Trust;
- (j) the preparation and maintenance of a register of unitholders;
- (k) the conditions subject to which a unitholder may transfer the unit;
- (l) any other matter which the Board may consider to be necessary or proper for the effective implementation of the particular unit scheme.

(2) Subject to section 6(2) the Board may from time to time add to or otherwise amend the terms and conditions of any unit scheme as it sees fit.

(3) The particulars of every unit scheme established, varied or otherwise amended shall be published in the Gazette.

(4) Where a unitholder desires to dispose of his units by sale, he shall sell such units only to the Trust and the Trust shall purchase the units in accordance with Regulations which provide for the determination of the value of units.

Borrowing
by Trust.

15. (1) Subject to section 6(2) and to this section the Trust may borrow money from any authority, organisation or person against such security and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Board and such authority, organisation or person as may be necessary for the sole purpose of redeeming its units.

(2) The Trust may borrow money from the Central Bank on the following conditions:

- (a) such sums of money shall be repayable on demand or on the expiry of a fixed period not exceeding ninety days from the date of borrowing and shall be secured against stocks, funds and securities vested in the Trust; or
- (b) such sums of money shall be repayable on demand or within eighteen months from the date of borrowing against the security of bonds which the Trust may issue; or
- (c) in the case of a unit scheme other than the first unit scheme on such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Central Bank.

(3) Bonds issued under subsection (2)(b) shall be guaranteed by the Government as to the repayment of principal and the payment of interest at such rate as may be agreed upon by the Government at the time of issue.

(4) The Board may borrow from the Government on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Board and the Government.

16. Where the payment of any sum of money becomes due on or in respect of any unit held on behalf of a minor, such payment shall, subject to the terms and conditions of the unit scheme, be made to the parent or guardian as the case may be who holds the said unit.

Units held on behalf of minors.

PART IV

CAPITAL AND INCOME OF UNIT TRUST

17. (1) The initial Capital of the Trust shall be five million dollars divided into such sums as may be prescribed under section 45(1)(b) as the face values of contribution certificates.

Initial capital of Unit Trust.

L.R.O.

(2) Such capital shall be contributed by—

- (a) the Central Bank;
- (b) the life insurance companies;
- (c) the National Insurance Board; and
- (d) commercial banks and financial institutions, in such proportions as may be agreed upon in writing between the Trust and the respective institutions named above.

(3) If the aggregate of the contributions made by the institutions referred to in subsection (2)(d) exceeds one million dollars, the Trust shall refund the excess amount to such institutions, so, however, that the amount to be refunded to each such institution bears, as far as possible, the same proportion to the contribution made by it as the excess amount bears to the aggregate of the contributions and where the aggregate of the contributions is less than one million dollars the Central Bank shall contribute the deficiency.

(4) If at any time the Board is of the opinion that the amount of the initial capital is in excess of the requirements of the Trust, it may refund the whole or any part of such capital to the contributing institutions, and in making any such refund, the Board shall ensure that the amount refunded to each contributing institution bears, as far as possible, the same proportion to the contribution made by it as the excess amount bears to the aggregate of the contributions.

Maintenance of register of contributing institutions.

18. The Board shall maintain a register containing the names of the contributing institutions, the amount contributed or deemed to have been contributed by each such institution and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

Issue of contribution certificates, and refund of contributions.

19. (1) As soon as may be after a contribution has been made by any contributing institution, the Board shall issue to such institution a contribution certificate or certificates in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the whole or any part of a contribution has been refunded to a contributing institution, that institution shall, as soon as may be after the refund has been made, forward the contribution certificate or certificates to the Board for cancellation or amendment as the case may be and the Board shall cancel or amend the certificate or certificates accordingly, and shall cause the particulars of such cancellation or amendment to be entered in the register.

20. (1) A contributing institution referred to in section 17(2)(b) or (d) may transfer a contribution certificate to another institution referred to in the respective paragraph, and thereupon such other institution shall be deemed to be a contributing institution for the purposes of this Act.

Transfer of contribution certificates.

(2) Where a transfer of a contribution certificate has been effected under this section, the Board shall recall the certificate and amend it accordingly, and shall cause the particulars of such transfer to be entered in the register of contributing institutions.

(3) Save as provided in subsection (1) a contribution certificate shall not be transferable.

21. (1) The capital of the Trust in relation to the first unit scheme shall consist of—

Capital of the Trust.

- (a) the initial capital;
- (b) the unit capital of the said scheme;
- (c) any reserves created in respect of that scheme;
- (d) any amount borrowed for the purposes of that scheme;
- (e) any amounts received for the purposes of that scheme by way of gifts, grants, donations or other benefactions from whatever source and treated by the Board as capital of that scheme;
- (f) any other capital allocated to that scheme by the Board.

(2) The capital of the Trust in relation to any subsequent unit scheme shall consist of—

- (a) the unit capital of that scheme;
- (b) any reserves created in respect of that scheme;

L.R.O.

- (c) any amount borrowed for the purposes of that scheme;
- (d) any amount received for the purposes of that scheme by way of gifts, grants, donations or other benefactions from whatever source and treated by the Board as capital allocated to that scheme by the Board.

(3) The capital in respect of each unit scheme shall be held separately, and all capital so held shall be applied solely for the purposes of the unit scheme in respect of which it is held.

Income of the Trust.

22. (1) In relation to the first unit scheme the income of the Trust shall consist of—

- (a) the income arising out of the capital referred to in section 21(1);
- (b) any gifts, grants, donations or other benefactions treated by the Board as income of that scheme; and
- (c) any other income allocated to that scheme by the Board.

(2) In relation to any subsequent unit scheme the income of that unit scheme shall consist of—

- (a) the income arising out of the capital referred to in section 21(2);
- (b) any gifts, grants, donations or other benefactions treated by the Board as income of that scheme;
- (c) any other income allocated to that scheme by the Board.

Allocation of income in respect of first unit scheme.

23. The income of the Trust in any year arising out of the first unit scheme shall be allocated to the initial capital and the unit capital thereof in the same proportion as the former bears to the latter based on the monthly average of the respective capitals of that year.

Allocation of interest and other expenses.

24. (1) The interest payable for any year in respect of any borrowings by the Board and the total amount of other expenses incurred by the Board for that year for the purposes of the first unit scheme shall be allocated and charged to the initial capital and the unit capital thereof in the same proportion as is referred in section 23.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1) the Trust shall determine the proportion of expenses to be charged to unit capital. Any amount exceeding that proportion shall be charged to initial capital.

(3) The interest payable for any year in respect of any borrowing by the Trust and the total amount of other expenses incurred by the Trust in that year for the purposes of any subsequent unit scheme shall be charged to the unit capital of such scheme in such manner and to such extent as the Board may determine.

(4) Where expenses are incurred in common by the Board in relation to more than one unit scheme, such expenses may be allocated to the different schemes to such extent and in such manner as the Board may determine.

25. (1) The income allocated to the initial capital in any year reduced by the interest and the amount of other expenses charged for that year to the initial capital may be distributed among the contributing institutions in each case in proportion to their respective contributions. Distribution of income.

(2) The income allocated in any year to the unit capital relating to the first unit scheme reduced by the interest and the amount of other expenses charged for that year to such unit capital may, but not less than ninety per cent of such income so reduced, shall be distributed in respect of that year to the unitholders under that unit scheme.

(3) The income allocated in any year to the unit capital relating to each of the subsequent unit schemes reduced by the interest and the amount of other expenses charged for that year to such unit capital may, having regard to the purposes of that scheme and other relevant factors—

- (a) be distributed in respect of that year to the unitholders under that scheme in such manner and at such percentage of the income so reduced as the Board may determine; or

(b) be carried forward and re-invested or otherwise utilised for the benefit of the unitholders in accordance with the provisions of that scheme.

Reserve funds. 26. (1) The Board may establish one or more reserve funds by transferring such sums as it may consider out of the amount of the income of the Trust not distributed to the contributing institutions or to unitholders.

(2) The amount in any reserve fund created specifically for the purposes of any unit scheme shall be applied or utilised only for the benefit of the unitholders under that unit scheme and for such purposes and in such manner as the Board may determine.

Special contribution by Central Bank. 27. The Central Bank may from time to time pay to the Trust from out of the amount payable to the Central Bank under the income allocated to initial capital in any year, any sum to be utilised by the Trust solely for meeting the losses arising out of the sale or repurchase of units.

Grants, donations, etc., to Trust. 28. The Trust may accept gifts, grants, donations or other benefactions from any source.

Preparation of Balance Sheet, etc., of Trust. 29. (1) The balance sheet and accounts of the Trust shall be prepared and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The Trust shall cause its books and accounts to be balanced and closed each year on the 31st December.

Audit. 30. (1) The accounts of the Trust shall be audited by the Auditor General or by a duly qualified auditor nominated by the Auditor General in that behalf.

(2) The Auditor General or his nominee shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance sheet of the Trust and it shall be his duty to examine it together with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and he shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Trust and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts, vouchers and other documents of the Trust.

(3) The Auditor General or his nominee may, in relation to such accounts, examine a director or any other officer or employee of the Trust, and shall be entitled to require from the Executive Director or other officers or employees of the Trust such information and explanation as he may think necessary to assist him in the performance of his duties.

(4) The Auditor General or his nominee shall make a report to the Board upon the annual balance sheet and accounts examined by him, and in every such report he shall state whether in his opinion the balance sheet is a full and fair balance sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Trust, and where he has called for any information from the Board or any officer or other employee of the Trust, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory.

(5) Upon being requested by the Board, the Auditor General or his nominee shall attend the Annual General Meeting called in pursuance of section 31(2), and shall provide the Board with all explanations in connection with matters arising out of his report as may be required by the Board.

(6) Upon the completion of the audit, and as soon thereafter as possible, the Board shall forward to the Minister a copy of the balance sheet and accounts together with the report of the Auditor General.

(7) The Minister shall thereupon cause a copy of the balance sheet and accounts and the report of the Auditor General to be laid before Parliament.

31. (1) The Board shall furnish to each of the contributing institutions and the unitholders a copy of the balance sheet and accounts together with a copy of the Auditor General's report and shall publish the same in the Gazette within four months from the date upon which its financial year ends.

Publication of annual accounts and Annual General Meeting.

(2) Not later than six months after the date upon which the financial year of the Trust ends, the Board shall convene an

L.R.O.

Annual General Meeting which all directors shall attend and to which all unitholders shall be invited; and at such meeting the Board shall receive the audited balance sheet and accounts and the report of the Auditor General, and shall deal with such other business as it thinks fit and of which notice has been given.

(3) The notice required to be given under subsection (2) shall be given at least one month before the date fixed for the meeting.

Provision of information.
Ch. 79:02.

32. The Board shall provide such information as may be required by the Central Bank under the Central Bank Act, or under any other Act of Parliament for the time being in force.

Power of Central Bank
to give instructions.

33. In the discharge of its functions under this Act the Board shall be guided by such board directions in matters of monetary and financial policy, involving the public interest as the Central Bank may give to it in writing from time to time.

Staff of Trust.

34. (1) The Board may appoint and employ such number of officers and other employees as it considers necessary or desirable for the efficient performance of its functions and shall determine the terms and conditions of their appointment and service.

(2) The Trust may utilise the services of such staff of the Central Bank on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Board and the Central Bank.

PART V

INCOME TAX AND OTHER TAXES

Exemption of Trust from income and other taxes.
[4 of 1984].

35. Notwithstanding any other law for the time being in force—

- (a) the Trust shall not be liable to pay income tax or any other tax including unemployment levy in respect of any income, profits or gains derived by it from any source whatever;
- (b) where the Unit Trust Corporation receives a distribution within the meaning of section 56(4) of the Income Tax Act the provisions of that Act relating to the dividend income allowance shall apply to the Unit Trust Corporation. Ch. 75:01.

36. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Income Tax Act—

Exemption of certain unitholders and contributing institutions. [5 of 1995 8 of 1996]. Ch. 75:01.

- (a) (Repealed by Act No. 8 of 1996);
- (b) no deduction of income tax or any other tax including unemployment levy shall be made by the Trust from any income or dividend distributed to a unitholder who is a resident of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (c) where the chargeable income or profits of any of the institutions mentioned in section 17 is being ascertained for purposes of tax or unemployment levy, any profit, interest or gain received by any such institution in respect of its contribution to the initial capital of the Trust shall not be included in such income.

(2) With effect from 1st January 1995, the provisions of subsection (1) shall only apply to the first unit scheme.

37. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Estate and Succession Duties Act, in the aggregation of the principal value of the estate of a deceased unitholder for the purposes of levying estate duty under that Act, there shall not be included in that estate the value of units held by the unitholder.

Exemption from estate duty. *Ch. 76:02.

PART VI

WINDING UP OF TRUST

38. (1) Upon a special resolution being passed by the Board at a meeting summoned for that purpose after consultation with the Central Bank, the Board may with the approval of the Minister appoint a liquidator for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Trust.

Appointment of liquidator.

*This Act was repealed by Act No. 39 of 2000.

(2) No member of the Board nor any other officer or employee of the Trust shall be eligible for appointment as a liquidator.

(3) The Board shall cause the particulars of an appointment made in accordance with subsection (1) to be published in the Gazette.

Powers of liquidator.

39. (1) A liquidator appointed under section 38 shall have the power to—

- (a) take immediate possession of all the assets of the Trust and of all books, records and other documents relating to the business thereof, and to carry on the business of the Trust as far as may be necessary for winding it up beneficially;
- (b) take such steps as may be necessary for the realisation of the assets of the Trust;
- (c) appoint a day by notice published in the Gazette and in a daily newspaper for three consecutive days before which creditors whose claims are not already recorded in the books of the Trust shall state their claims for admission, or be excluded from any distribution made;
- (d) decide any question of priority which arises between creditors;
- (e) compromise any claim by or against the Trust provided the sanction of the Central Bank has first been obtained;
- (f) sell the property of the Trust;
- (g) arrange for the distribution of the assets of the Trust in a convenient manner when a scheme of distribution has been approved by the Central Bank.

(2) Upon the realisation of the assets of the Trust, and subject to a scheme of distribution having been approved by the Central Bank, the order of priority of distribution of the assets of the Trust shall be as follows:

- (a) claims by creditors of the Trust accepted by the liquidator;

- (b) the value of units to unitholders;
- (c) the outstanding contributions made by contributing institutions.

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS

40. (1) Every Director, officer or other employee of the Trust, or any employee of the Central Bank whose services are utilised by the Trust shall before entering upon his duties, take and subscribe to the declaration of secrecy in the form set out in the Schedule.

Declaration of secrecy.

Schedule.

(2) Any person mentioned in subsection (1) who communicates or condones the communication to any person not legally entitled thereto of any information relating to the affairs of any person having any dealings with the Trust, or relating to the affairs of the Trust is liable upon summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

41. (1) No Director shall incur any obligation or liability by reason only of his being a director or for anything done or omitted to be done by him in good faith in the discharge of his duties as a director.

Exemption from liability and indemnity of directors.

(2) Every Director shall be indemnified by the Trust against all losses and expenses incurred by him in or in relation to the discharge of his duties except such as are caused by his own unlawful act or default.

(3) A Director shall not be liable for any loss or expense resulting to the Trust from the insufficiency or deficiency of the value of title to any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Trust by any other director, or any officer or other employee of the Trust, or by the insolvency or wrongful act of any debtor or any person under obligation to the Trust.

42. Subject to section 8 the Board may delegate to any of its officers such of its powers and duties under this Act as it may consider necessary, subject to such conditions and limitation as the Board may specify.

Delegation of powers.

Nomination by unitholders.

43. (1) Where a unitholder has nominated any person to receive any monies in respect of units held by him, such monies shall, upon the death of the unitholder, and subject to any right, title, or other interest of any other person, and to any charge, encumbrance, tax or duty of any nature, payable in respect of the said units, be payable to the nominee.

(2) A payment by the Trust under subsection (1) shall be a full discharge of the Trust, from all liability in respect of the units.

Repayment
of contribution in case of winding up of contributing institution.

44. (1) In the event of a contributing institution mentioned in section 17(2)(b) or (d) or any institution to which a contribution certificate has been transferred under section 20(1) being wound up, the Trust shall on demand in that behalf made by the authority in charge of the winding up proceedings pay to such authority an amount equivalent to the value of the contribution to the initial capital made by that institution.

(2) The value of the contribution shall be determined by the Trust.

Regulations.

45. (1) The Board may, in consultation with the Central Bank and subject to the approval of the Minister, make Regulations generally for giving effect to the provisions and purposes of this Act, and in particular to provide for—

- (a) the form and manner of maintenance of the register of contributing institutions and the particulars to be contained therein;
- (b) the face value of a contribution certificate, its form and the particulars to be contained therein;
- (c) the manner of transfer of a contribution certificate;
- (d) the times and places of the meetings of the Board or of any committee constituted under this Act and the procedure to be followed at such meetings;
- (e) the institution or institutions with which money may be kept on deposit;

- (f) the manner of distribution of income to the contributing institutions;
- (g) the form and manner in which the balance sheet and the accounts of the Trust shall be prepared and maintained;
- (h) the duties and conduct, salaries and allowances and other conditions of service of officers and other employees of the Trust;
- (i) the establishment and maintenance of pension, provident or other benefit funds for officers and other employees of the Trust;
- (j) the form to be used for a nomination under section 43;
- (k) any other matter which is required by this Act to be prescribed.

(2) Regulations made under this section shall be laid before Parliament, and shall be subject to a negative resolution of Parliament.

167/2007
230/2007
145/2008
97/2009].

made under section 14(1)

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Unit Trust First Unit Scheme Regulations. Citation.

2. In these Regulations—

Interpretation.
[167/2007].

“Acceptance Date” means the date after the launch period on which an offer for purchase of units or an application for repurchase of units is accepted by the Trust or its duly authorised agent;

“bid price” means the repurchase price of a unit as calculated in accordance with regulation 15;

“launch period” means the initial period of two weeks after the commencement of the First Unit Scheme;

“number of units deemed to be in issue” means—

- (i) the number of units held by the public; and
- (ii) the number of units held by the Trust;

“offer price” means the sale price of a unit as calculated in accordance with regulation 14;

“trading” has the same meaning as in the Securities Industry Act; Ch. 83:02.

“Stock Exchange” means the Stock Exchange established under the Securities Industry Act;

3. The initial offer price during the launch period is ten dollars. Unit price.

4. (1) Applications for units may be made by—

Application for units.
[97/2009].

- (a) a person who is not a minor; and
- (b) a body corporate.

(2) An application shall not be made jointly by a minor and another person.

(3) Applications shall be made in the form set out as Form 1 in the Schedule and the total number of applicants in each case shall not exceed four. Form 1.
Schedule.

(4) The payment for the units applied for by an applicant shall be made by him along with the application in such manner as the Trust may determine.

(5) Unit Certificates are to be sent by post to the address given by the applicant and where two or more persons apply for units the address of the person whose name first appears shall be the address to which the certificate is to be sent.

Agents.

5. (1) Any person may make arrangements with a duly authorised agent of the Trust to purchase units from the Trust from time to time.

(2) Agents shall receive commissions at a rate of 1.5 per cent of the purchase.

Sale of units.
[169/1987
145/2008
97/2009].

6. (1) On the sale of units the Trust or its duly authorised agent shall issue a receipt to the purchaser.

(2) Upon the initial purchase of units the Trust shall issue to the purchaser a unit certificate representing the units sold to him as soon as possible after the purchase.

(3) The Board may from time to time establish the maximum number of units that a person may purchase but this maximum may be exceeded by a person who uses the proceeds of his investment with the Trust, to purchase additional units.

(4) Upon the initial purchase of units by joint holders, the joint holders must opt to have either—

(a) all joint holders; or

(b) one or any number of them on behalf of all,

sign to authorise any repurchase or transfer of units from the joint account. Where this option is exercised all the joint holders must sign a declaration stating that they agree to the authorisation given. Any change in authorisation requires the signatures of all the joint holders and a declaration stating that they agree to the change in authorisation.

7. (1) The Trust may at any time during the operation of this scheme repurchase units from unitholders and where a unitholder makes an application for repurchase the Trust shall repurchase the units. Repurchase of units. [145/2008].

(2) To effect a repurchase the unitholder must present the unit certificate duly endorsed on the reverse side or a form of renunciation duly signified.

(3) In the case of joint holders, the joint holders duly authorised pursuant to subregulation (4) may repurchase units from the Trust.

(4) Where accounts are held by joint holders prior to the date of this notice all the joint holders have the option to vary the authorisation for the repurchase of units to have either—

(a) all joint holders; or

(b) one or any number of them on behalf of all,

sign to authorise the repurchase of units from the Trust. Where this option is exercised all the joint holders must sign a declaration stating that they agree to the authorisation given. Any change in authorisation requires the signatures of all the joint holders and a declaration stating that they agree to the change in authorisation.

8. Where a repurchase is with respect to only some of the units comprised in the certificate/statement, the Trust shall evidence the reduction in holdings in the subsequent biannual statement. Part sale. [145/2008].

9. The Trust shall repurchase units at any time on any day during the operation of this scheme. Days for repurchase. [97/2009].

10. (1) The Trust or its duly appointed agent shall acknowledge an application for repurchase of units. Acknowledgement and payment.

(2) Payment for the units repurchased by the Trust shall be made in such manner as the Trust may determine.

Price of units.

11. (1) The offer and bid prices after the launch period, shall be as at the respective prices prevailing on the Acceptance Date.

(2) Price prevailing on any day means the price declared at the end of the previous trading day.

Considerations
in computation
of offer price.
[167/2007].

12. The Net Asset Value of the unit scheme on the Acceptance Date shall be computed as follows:

(a) by adding—

- (i) the sum of quoted investments of the unit scheme valued on the basis of the closing dealing prices as at the close of trading on that day;
- (ii) the sum of investments of the unit scheme, if any, which were not, on that day, traded in or quoted on any securities exchange, including the Stock Exchange, the value of such investments being the amortised acquisition cost of the investments or alternatively such value as the Trust may consider in the circumstances to be a fair value consistent with international accounting standards;
- (iii) the sum of investments of the unit scheme, if any, which do not have a quotation on any securities exchange, including the Stock Exchange, the value of such investments being the amortised acquisition cost of the investments or alternatively such value as the Trust may consider in the circumstances to be a fair value consistent with international accounting standards;
- (iv) cash and cash equivalent allocated to the unit scheme:
 - (v) in case of deposits, interest accrued;
 - (vi) in the case of equity, dividends declared but not received;
 - (vii) in the case of debt securities, interest accrued;

- (viii) any other accruals by the unit scheme;
- (b) and subtracting from this sum—
 - (i) accruals of the operating expenses of the unit scheme;
 - (ii) any other amounts payable by the unit scheme.

13. The Net Asset Value per unit on the Acceptance Date shall be determined by dividing the Net Asset Value of the unit scheme by the total number of units in issue on the Acceptance Date.

Computation of offer price. [167/2007].

14. The offer price at which a unit shall be sold on the Acceptance Date is found by taking the Net Asset Value per unit as at the close of trading on the immediately preceding working day and dividing such value per unit by one hundred per cent (100%) less the percentage of the initial charge as provided in regulation 18(1) hereunder.

Considerations in computation of bid price. [167/2007].

15. The bid price on the Acceptance Date Value shall be the Net Asset Value per unit as at the close of trading on the immediately preceding working day.

Computation of bid price. [167/2007].

16. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in regulations 12 and 14, where the Trust is satisfied that in the interest of the Trust and of the unitholders, it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may vary the offer price or the bid price to such extent as it deems fit.

Varying the offer and bid prices.

17. The Trust shall, as early as possible after the close of trading on each day, publish in such manner as it considers fit, the offer price and bid price of units.

Publication of prices.

18. (1) The Trust shall impose an initial charge of five per cent on all units issued to the public and a regular half-yearly charge of up to one per cent of the market value of the investments held by the Trust for each six-monthly distribution period.

Initial and annual charge. [110/1999 230/2007].

(2) The Board may vary the half-yearly charge where it is satisfied that the performance of the Trust during a distribution period warrants a variation.

(3) The Board may vary the initial charge on all units issued to the public where it is satisfied that the sale of units by the Trust warrants a variation.

Custody of securities.

19. All securities acquired by the Trust shall be deposited for custody with the Central Bank.

Unit certificates. Form 2. Schedule.

20. A unit certificate shall be in the form set out as Form 2 in the Schedule.

Delivery of certificate. [97/2009].

21. (1) A unit certificate shall be delivered only against payment for the units represented by the unit certificate in such form as the Trust may determine.

(2) If payment is made by cheque, draft, wire transfer, electronic payment or money order, the unit certificate will only be delivered when the cheque, draft, wire transfer, electronic payment or money order is actually honoured.

(3) In the case of a transfer of a unit certificate, the unit certificate shall only be delivered against payment of the prescribed transfer fees.

Exchange of unit certificates.

22. (1) Subject to the approval of the Trust a unitholder is entitled to exchange any or all of his unit certificates for one or more unit certificates as he may require representing the same aggregate number of units.

(2) Before a unit certificate is exchanged the unitholder shall surrender to the Trust the unit certificate to be exchanged.

Replacement of mutilated certificate.

23. Where a unit certificate becomes mutilated or defaced the Trust may issue to the unitholder in exchange for and upon surrender to the Trust of the mutilated or defaced unit certificate, a new certificate representing the same aggregate number of units.

Lost certificate.

24. Where a unit certificate becomes lost, stolen or destroyed the Trust may issue to the unitholder a new unit certificate in replacement thereof but the applicant shall furnish to the Trust satisfactory evidence of the loss, theft or destruction of the original unit certificate and such letter of indemnity as the Trust may require.

25. The register of unitholders shall be kept under the control and supervision of the Trust and shall state—

Register of unitholders.

- (a) the name, address, date of birth and account number of a unitholder;
- (b) the number and purchase price of units held by a unitholder;
- (c) the name and address of any nominee or beneficiary;
- (d) the agent's reference number;
- (e) the serial numbers of unit certificates;
- (f) the date on which the unitholder was entered on the register;
- (g) sufficient reference to identify whether the units were acquired by purchase from the Trust or by transfer or otherwise; and
- (h) the documentation of power of attorney, grant of probate, letters of administration, other legal notices and bank mandate instructions.

26. Any change of name or address on the part of any unitholder shall forthwith be notified in writing to the Trust which shall alter the register and in the case of a change of name shall issue a new unit certificate to the unitholder after recalling the original certificate.

Change of name or address.

27. (1) A person vested with the legal interest in the units represented by a unit certificate in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the unitholder may apply to the Trust to repurchase the units or to register the transfer of the units to another person.

Death or bankruptcy.

(2) A person vested with the legal interest in the units represented by a unit certificate in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a unit holder is not entitled to receive notices of or to attend an Annual General Meeting until he is registered as a unitholder.

Issue of single certificate on death or bankruptcy.

28. The Trust may issue a single unit certificate in respect of units to which any persons may on the death or bankruptcy of a unitholder become jointly entitled but such persons must not exceed four in number.

Personal Representative.

29. Where a unitholder dies the Personal Representatives of the deceased unitholder are the only persons recognised by the Trust as having any right to deal with the unit.

Transfer of unit. Form 3. Schedule. [145/2008 97/2009].

30. (1) The form for the transfer of a unit certificate is as set out in Form 3 of the Schedule and the Trust may vary the form as it deems necessary.

(2) Every application for transfer of units by a unit holder shall be made in a manner specified by the Trust and the transferor is deemed to remain the unitholder until the name of the transferee is entered on the register.

(3) In the case of joint holders, the joint holders duly authorised pursuant to regulation 6(4) or regulation 7(4) may apply to transfer a unit certificate.

Distribution of income.

31. The Trust shall pay an income distribution at least once a year; however, two distributions may be made in any given year.

Form of payment.

32. (1) Any payment to a unitholder may be paid by cheque posted to the address of the unitholder.

(2) A cheque which is not redeemed after a period of twelve years from the date of tender shall be removed from the distribution account and returned to the account of the Trust but nothing contained in this paragraph affects the rights of a unitholder or any person entitled to recover the amount of the payment from the Trust.

Death and joint holders.

33. (1) In the case of death of any one of the joint holders of a unit certificate, the survivors or survivor shall be the only person recognised by the Trust as having any right to deal with the units represented by the certificate.

(2) Any person becoming entitled to a unit in consequence of the death of the survivors or survivor of joint unitholders upon producing such evidence as to his title as the Trust shall consider sufficient, may be registered as the holder of the unit upon giving to the Trust notice in writing of his desire to this effect.

(3) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Regulations relating to transfers are applicable to any transfer on the death or bankruptcy of the unitholder as if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred and the transfer was a transfer executed by the unitholder.

34. The Trust shall treat the appearance of a person's name on the register as conclusive evidence of ownership of a unit. Evidence of ownership.

35. The following are the fees payable to the Trust: Fees.

- (a) for the exchange of a unit certificate—five dollars;
- (b) for the replacement of a mutilated or displaced unit certificate—five dollars;
- (c) for the replacement of a lost unit certificate—ten dollars;
- (d) for the registration of a change of address— one dollar; and
- (e) for the transfer of a unit certificate—ten dollars.

Unit Trust Second Unit Scheme Regulations

Sale of units.
[146/2008].

5. (1) On the sale of units the Trust or its duly authorised agent shall issue a receipt to the purchaser.

(2) The Trust shall issue to the purchaser a unit certificate representing the units sold to him as soon as possible after the purchase.

(3) A unit certificate will be issued only in respect of the initial purchase by the applicant.

(4) The maximum number of units that can be held by a purchaser at any point in time shall be fifty thousand or such limit as the Board may decide.

(5) Upon the initial purchase of units by joint holders, the joint holders must opt to have either—

(a) all joint holders; or

(b) one or any number of them on behalf of all,

sign to authorise any repurchase or transfer of units from the joint account. Where this option is exercised all the joint holders must sign a declaration stating that they agree to the authorisation given. Any change in authorisation requires the signatures of all joint holders and a declaration stating that they agree to the change in authorisation.

Repurchase of units.
[146/2008].

6. (1) The Trust may at any time during the operation of this scheme repurchase units from unitholders and where a unitholder makes an application for repurchase the Trust shall repurchase the units.

(2) To effect a repurchase the unitholder must present the certificate, and/or quarterly statements issued by the Trust and complete a renunciation form duly signed.

(3) In the case of joint holders, the joint holders duly authorised pursuant to subregulation 5(5) may repurchase units from the Trust.

(4) Where accounts are held by joint holders prior to the date of this notice all the joint holders have the option to vary the authorisation for the repurchase of units to have either—

(a) all joint holders; or

(b) one or any number of them on behalf of all,

sign to authorise the repurchase of units from the Trust. Where this option is exercised all the joint holders must sign a declaration stating that they agree to the authorisation given. Any change in authorisation requires the signatures of all the joint holders and a declaration stating that they agree to the change in authorisation.

7. Where a repurchase is with respect to only some of the units comprised in the certificate/statement, the Trust shall evidence the reduction in holdings in the subsequent quarterly statement. Part sale.

8. The Trust shall repurchase units at anytime on any day during the operation of this scheme. Days for repurchase. [98/2009].

9. (1) The Trust or its duly appointed agents shall acknowledge an application for repurchase of units. Acknowledgement and payment.

(2) Payment for the units repurchased by the Trust shall be made in such manner as the Trust may determine.

10. The price at which units shall be sold and repurchased by the Trust shall be twenty dollars. Price of Units.

11. The Trust shall calculate an estimated yield of the Second Unit Scheme after taking into consideration the expenses of the Scheme and Scheme Reserves established by the Board. Quoted yield.

12. The Trust shall publish the price, yield and any other information which the Trust deems relevant for the trading of units issued within the Second Unit Scheme. Publication.

13. The Trust shall establish such reserve out of income as the Board may determine from time to time. Reserve fund.

14. The Trust shall impose a regular annual charge not exceeding two per cent of the face value of the investments held in the Second Unit Scheme. Annual charge.

15. Securities acquired by the Trust shall be deposited for custody with the Central Bank. Custody of securities.

Unit certificate.
Form 2.
Schedule.

16. A unit certificate shall be in the form set out as Form 2 in the Schedule, and the Trust may vary the structure of the form as it deems necessary.

Delivery of certificate.
[98/2009].

17. (1) A unit certificate shall be delivered only against payment for the units represented by the unit certificate in such form as the Trust may determine.

(2) If payment is made by cheque, draft, wire transfer, electronic payment or money order, the unit certificate will only be delivered when the cheque, draft, wire transfer, electronic payment or money order is actually honoured.

(3) In the case of a transfer of a unit certificate, the unit certificate shall only be delivered against payment of the prescribed transfer fee.

Replacement of mutilated
certificate.

18. Where a unit certificate becomes mutilated or defaced the Trust may issue to the unitholder in exchange for and upon surrender to the Trust of the mutilated or defaced unit certificate, a new certificate representing the same aggregate number of units.

Lost certificate.

19. Where a unit certificate becomes lost, stolen or destroyed the Trust may issue to the unitholder a new certificate in replacement thereof, but the applicant shall furnish to the Trust satisfactory evidence of loss, theft or destruction of the original unit certificate and such letter of indemnity as the Trust may require.

Register of unitholders.

20. The Register of unitholders shall be kept under the control and supervision of the Trust and shall contain—

- (a) the name, address, date of birth and account number of a unitholder;
- (b) the number and purchase price of units held by a unitholder;
- (c) the name and address of any nominee or beneficiary;
- (d) the agents' reference number;
- (e) the serial numbers of unit certificates;

- (f) the date on which the unitholder was entered on the Register;
- (g) sufficient reference to identify whether the units were acquired by purchase from the Trust or by transfer or otherwise; and
- (h) the documentation of power of attorney, grant of Probate, Letters of Administration, other legal notices and bank mandate instructions.

21. Any change of name or address on the part of any unitholder shall forthwith be notified in writing to the Trust which shall alter the Register and in the case of a change of name shall issue a new unit certificate to the unitholder after recalling the original certificate. Change of name or address.

22. (1) A person vested with the legal interest in the units represented by a unit certificate in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the unitholder may apply to the Trust to purchase the units or to register the transfer of the units to another person. Death or bankruptcy.

(2) A person vested with the legal interest in the units represented by a unit certificate in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a unitholder is not entitled to receive notices of or to attend an Annual General Meeting until he is registered as a unitholder.

23. The Trust may issue a single unit certificate in respect of units to which any persons may on the death or bankruptcy of a unitholder become jointly entitled but such persons must not exceed five in number. Issue of single certificate on death or bankruptcy.

24. Where a unitholder dies the personal representatives of the deceased unitholder are the only persons recognised by the Trust as having any right to deal with the unit. Personal representatives.

25. (1) The form for the transfer of a unit certificate is as set out in Form 3 of the Schedule, and the Trust may vary the structure of the form as it deems necessary. Transfer of unit certificate. Form 3. Schedule. [146/2008 98/2009].

(2) Every application for transfer of units by a unitholder shall be made in a manner specified by the Trust and the transferor is deemed to remain the unitholder until the name of the transferee is entered on the register.

(3) In the case of joint holders, the joint holders duly authorised pursuant to regulation 5(5) or regulation 6(4) may apply to transfer a unit certificate.

Distribution of income.

26. The Trust shall declare an income distribution not less than once a year, and not more than four times in any given year.

Distribution of credits.

27. The Trust shall on distribution dates credit the accounts of unitholders with their distribution entitlement, and calculate the number of units to be allocated to the account by dividing the said distribution by the unit price of twenty dollars.

Issue of statements.

28. The Trust shall as soon as possible after the distribution date furnish unitholders with a statement of their unitholdings with appropriate details of the unitholders' earnings in respect of the said distribution and the allocation of units to his account.

Death of joint holder.

29. (1) In the case of death of any one of the joint holders of a unit certificate, the survivors or survivor shall be the only person recognised by the Trust as having any right to deal with the units represented by the certificate.

(2) Any person becoming entitled to a unit in consequence of the death of the survivors or survivor of joint unitholders upon producing such evidence as to his title as the Trust shall consider sufficient, may be registered as the holder of the unit upon giving to the Trust notice in writing of his desire to this effect.

(3) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Regulations relating to transfers are applicable to any transfer on the death or bankruptcy of the unitholder as if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred and the transfer was a transfer executed by the unitholder.

30. The Trust shall treat the appearance of a person's name on the Register as conclusive evidence of ownership of a unit. Evidence of ownership.

31. The following are the fees payable to the Trust: Fees.

- (a) exchange of a unit certificate—ten dollars;
- (b) replacement of a mutilated or defaced unit certificate—ten dollars;
- (c) replacement of a lost unit certificate—ten dollars;
- (d) transfer of a unit certificate—ten dollars.
