

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 13.—1919.

I ASSENT,

[L.S.]

W. M. GORDON,
Acting Governor.

2nd June, 1919.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the establishment of labour exchanges.

[2nd June, 1919.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Labour Exchanges Short Title. Ordinance, 1919.

2. In this Ordinance “labour exchange” means any office or place used for the purpose of collecting and furnishing information, either by the keeping of registers or otherwise, respecting employers who desire to engage workmen and workmen who seek engagement or employment. Interpretation.

3. The Governor may establish and maintain labour exchanges in such places as he thinks fit, and may appoint managers thereof and such other officers as he may think fit, at such salaries as he with the consent of the Legislative Council may from time to time fix. Establishment of Labour Exchanges.

Regulations.

4. The Governor may make regulations with respect to the management of labour exchanges established under this Ordinance, and such regulations may authorise advances to be made by way of loan towards meeting the expenses of workmen travelling to places where employment has been found for them through a labour exchange.

Such regulations shall be laid before and be subject to the approval of the Legislative Council, and shall when so approved be published in the Royal Gazette.

Penalty for making false statements, etc.

5. If any person knowingly makes any false statement or false representation to any officer of a labour exchange established under this Ordinance, or to any person acting for or for the purposes of any such labour exchange, for the purpose of obtaining employment or procuring workmen, or for the purpose of preventing any employer from obtaining workmen, or any workman from obtaining employment, that person shall be liable in respect of each offence on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £10.

Passed in Council this Sixteenth day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

J. M. FARFAN,
Acting Clerk of the Council.
