(3) Where a merger or an anti-competitive agreement would fall within the purview of the Commission in circumstances where any of the companies involved is a service provider, the Regulated Industries Commission shall not make any decision before it consults with the Commission.

PART II

THE FAIR TRADING COMMISSION

Establishment, powers and functions of the Commission

4. There is hereby established for the purpose of performing such duties and functions as are conferred upon it by this Act and by any other written law, a body corporate constituted in accordance with Part IV and hereafter called “the Commission”.

Commission
established and incorporated

5. (1) The functions of the Commission are to—

Functions of Commission

(a) carry out subject to section 9, on its own initiative or at the request of any interested person such—

(i) investigations in relation to the conduct of business, as will enable it to determine whether any enterprise is engaging in business practices in contravention of this Act and the extent of such practices; and

(ii) other investigations as may be requested by any interested person or as it may consider necessary or desirable in connection with matters falling within the provisions of this Act;

(b) advise the Minister on such matters relating to the operation of this Act, as it thinks fit or as may be requested by the Minister;

(c) investigate on its own initiative or at the request of any person adversely affected and take such action as it considers necessary with respect to the abuse of a monopoly power by any enterprise; and

(d) carry out such other duties as may be prescribed by or pursuant to the Act.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Commission—

(a) to make available—

(i) to persons engaged in business, general information with respect to their rights and obligations under this Act; and

(ii) for the guidance of consumers, general information with respect to their rights and obligations under this Act or affecting the interests of consumers;

(b) to undertake studies and publish reports and information regarding matters affecting the interests of consumers; and

(c) to co-operate with and assist any association or body of persons in developing and promoting the observance of standards of conduct for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Act.

General powers

6. For the purpose of discharging its functions under section 5, the Commission may make an application to the Court for the determination of a contravention of this Act.

Investigation of complaints

7. (1) In pursuance of its functions under section 5(1)(a) the Commission may investigate the affairs of a business enterprise—

(a) if after consideration of a complaint from any person, that the business enterprise is acting in contravention of this Act, the Commission is of the opinion that it is necessary that the affairs of such an enterprise should be investigated;

- (b) on its own initiative having regard to facts available to it, it is of the opinion that the business enterprise is acting in contravention of this Act; or
- (c) in accordance with regulations made by the Minister under section 53(2).

(2) The Commission shall serve on all relevant parties written notice of its intention to initiate an investigation under this Act in the form prescribed in the Schedule.

Schedule

(3) At the end of each investigation, the Commission shall prepare a report and furnish a copy of the report to the relevant parties to enable them to make their submissions within such period as the Commission may specify.

(4) The Commission shall prepare a final report of each investigation which shall include the submissions, if any, made by the relevant parties and the comments of the Commission on those submissions.

8. (1) For the purpose of conducting any investigation with regard to the discharge of any of its functions under this Act, the Commission shall subject to subsection (2) have the power to—

Powers of the Commission with regard to investigation

- (a) require the production of documents for examination;
- (b) require any document to be submitted to the Commission to be verified by affidavit; and
- (c) summon and examine witnesses on oath.

(2) The Commission may, for the purpose of enforcing the attendance of any witness, apply to the Court for issue of a summons for attendance of the witness, and for the production of any document, book and related matter”.

(3) Before making any decision consequent upon any investigation, the Commission shall hear any person who is likely to be affected by its decision.

(4) The Commission shall unless the circumstances warrant a hearing in camera, conduct all hearings in public.

(5) At any stage of an investigation under this Act, the Commission may discontinue the investigation if it is of the opinion that the matter does not justify further investigation.

(6) Where the Commission discontinues an investigation under subsection (6), the parties who were involved in the investigation shall be so informed and the Commission shall give reasons for the discontinuation of the investigation.

Power of search

9. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining whether any person has engaged or is engaging in conduct constituting or likely to constitute a contravention of this Act, the Commission shall apply to the Court for a warrant to require an authorized officer to—

(a) enter and search any premises; or

(b) inspect and remove for the purpose of making copies, any documents or take extracts thereof.

(2) The authorized officer shall not enter any premises for the purpose of this Act, except with the warrant issued by the Court.

(3) The commission or the authorized officer shall, within fourteen days of the date of removal of any document under this section, return the document to the person from whom they were taken.

(4) Any person who obstructs or impedes an authorized officer in the performance of his duties under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

10. A person who—

Offences against the Commission

Destruction of records

12. A person who in any manner impedes, prevents or obstructs any investigation by the Commission under this Act, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Obstruction of investigation

PART III

MERGERS, ANTI-COMPETITIVE AGREEMENTS OR PRACTICES AND MONOPOLIESMergers

Definitions of merger and anti-competitive merger

13. (1) Merger means the cessation of two or more enterprises from being distinct whether by purchase or lease of shares or assets, amalgamation, combination, joint venture or any other means through which influence over the policy of another enterprise is acquired.

(2) An anti-competitive merger is a merger which restricts or distorts competition in a market.

Mergers and qualifying mergers

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section from the commencement of this Act—

(a) all anti-competitive mergers are prohibited;
and

(b) enterprises shall not enter into a merger unless they obtain permission from the Commission where—

(i) their assets exceed fifty million dollars; and

(ii) at least one of the enterprises carries on or intends to carry on business in Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) Within one month of receipt of an application under paragraph (1)(b), or within such period as the Minister may by Order prescribe, the Commission shall make its determination whether to grant permission or not and inform the applicant enterprise of its determination.

(3) Before granting permission for a merger, the Commission shall—

- (a) satisfy itself that the proposed merger would not affect competition or would not be detrimental to the consumer or the economy; and
- (b) consult with the Securities Exchange Commission to ensure that the procedure required under the Securities Industry Act, 1995 for mergers has been followed.

(4) The Minister may by Order vary the asset limit specified in subsection (1)(b)(i).

(5) Where the variation of the asset limit exceeds fifty per cent, the relevant Order shall be subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament.

15. Where a director serves on the Board of Directors of two or more companies that are competitors and the director is likely to weld together the policies of those companies in a way that would reduce or eliminate competition between them, the companies in which he serves as director shall, subject to section 14(1)(b) apply to the Commission for permission to merge. Interlocking directorship

16. (1) Where the Commission has reason to believe that two or more enterprises have merged and the enterprises have not obtained permission for the merger, the commission shall initiate an investigation into the matter. Order for divestment

(2) Where after investigation of the matter, the Commission is of the opinion that enterprises have structured themselves in such a way that they have merged within the meaning of this Part without the permission of the Commission as required under section 14, the Commission may apply to the Court for an Order for divestment of assets under section 44(1).

(3) At any time before the Commission makes an application for an Order under section 44(1), the Commission and the enterprise may agree that the enterprise would divest within an agreed period, part of their combined business or operations, if the Commission is satisfied that such divestment would make the merger less likely to lessen competition in Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) An enterprise which fails to keep the undertaking given under subsection (3), is liable upon summary conviction to a fine of twenty-five thousand dollars and to a further fine of one thousand dollars for each day the offence continues after conviction.

Anti-competitive Agreements or Practices

Definition of Anti-competitive
Agreement

17. (1) An Agreement which—

- (a) fixes prices directly or indirectly other than in circumstances where the agreement is reasonably necessary to protect the interests of the parties concerned and not detrimental to the interests of the public;
- (b) limits or controls markets, technical development or investment;
- (c) shares markets or sources of supply;
- (d) applies dissimilar conditions to equivalent transactions and thus places some trading partners at a disadvantage to others; and
- (e) makes contracts subject to extraneous conditions, is an anti-competitive agreement and is prohibited under this Act.

(2) Any decision or concerted practice of an association of enterprises, the object of which is the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition, is anti-competitive and prohibited under this Act.

(3) Where the Commission is of the opinion that an agreement, practice or decision is anti-competitive the Commission shall apply to the Court for an Order under section 44(1) to determine if the Agreement, decision or practice is anti-competitive.

(4) An individual or company who has suffered loss as a result of an anti-competitive agreement may apply to the Court for damages.

18. (1) It is an offence for groups of two or more businesses to enter into or give effect to a horizontal agreement which— Horizontal and vertical agreements

- (a) restricts, distorts or prevents competition;
- (b) has the object or effect of monopolizing the market in Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (c) fixes prices of commodities and services unreasonably high.

(2) For the purpose of this section “horizontal agreement” means an agreement between two or more businesses whose relationship is that of actual or potential competitors.

(3) It is an offence for two or more businesses to enter into or give effect to vertical agreements which have the effect of fixing prices.

(4) For the purpose of this section “vertical agreement” means an agreement between two or more businesses whose relationship is that of actual or potential customers, dealers or suppliers.

19. (1) Where an enterprise is party to or engaged in an anti-competitive agreement or practice on the coming into force of this Act— Transitional amnesty

- (a) the enterprise shall notify the Commission within one month thereafter of the details of the anti-competitive agreement or practice;

(b) the commission may apply to the court for an order to determine the agreement or practice.

(2) At any time before the Commission applies for an Order under section 44(1), the Commission and the enterprise may enter into an agreement as to the manner and timetable, for the phasing out or the termination of the anti-competitive agreement or practice.

(3) An enterprise which fails to terminate the anti-competitive agreement or practice within the time agreed to with the Commission, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars.

Monopolies

Monopoly power

20. For the purposes of this Act—

- (a) an enterprise has monopoly power in a market, if by itself or together with an interconnected body corporate, it occupies such a position of economic strength as will enable it to operate in the market without effective constraints from its competitors or potential competitors; and
- (b) any two bodies corporate are to be treated as interconnected if one of them is a subsidiary of the other, or if both of them are subsidiaries of the same body corporate.

Abuse of monopoly power

21. (1) An enterprise which has monopoly power, abuses that power if it impedes the maintenance or development of effective competition in a particular market.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, an enterprise abuses monopoly power if it—

- (a) restricts the entry of any person into that or any other market;

- (b) prevents or deters any person from engaging in competitive conduct in that or any other market;
- (c) eliminates or removes any person from that or any other market;
- (d) directly or indirectly imposes unfair purchase or selling prices;
- (e) limits production of goods or services to the prejudice of consumers;
- (f) makes the conclusion of agreements subject to acceptance by other parties of supplementary obligations which by their nature, or according to commercial usage, have no connection with the subject of such agreements;
- (g) engages in exclusive dealing;
- (h) engages in market restriction; or
- (i) engages in tied selling.

(3) An enterprise shall not be treated as abusing monopoly power—

- (a) if it is shown that—
 - (i) its behaviour was exclusively directed to improving the production or distribution of goods or to promoting technical or economic progress; and
 - (ii) consumers were allowed a fair share of the resulting benefits; and
- (b) by reason only that the enterprise enforces or seeks to enforce any right under or existing by virtue of any copyright, patent, registered design or trade mark.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

“exclusive dealing” means—

(a) any practice whereby a supplier of goods, as a condition of supplying the goods to a customer requires that customer to—

(i) deal only or primarily in goods supplied by or designated by the supplier or his nominee; or

(ii) refrain from dealing in a specified class or kind of goods except as supplied by the supplier or his nominee; and

(b) any practice whereby a supplier of goods induces a customer to meet a condition referred to in paragraph (a), by offering to supply the goods to the customer on more favourable terms or conditions if the customer agrees to meet that condition;

“market restriction” means any practice whereby a supplier of goods, as a condition of supplying the goods to a customer, requires that customer to supply any goods only in a defined market, or exacts a penalty of any kind from the customer if he supplies any goods outside a defined market;

“tied selling” means—

- (a) any practice whereby a supplier of an article, as a condition of supplying the article (hereinafter referred to as “the article”) to a customer, requires the customer to—
 - (i) acquire any other article from the supplier or his nominee; or
 - (ii) refrain from using or distributing, in conjunction with the tied article, another article that is not of a brand or manufacturer designated by the supplier or the nominee; and
- (b) any practice whereby a supplier of an article induces a customer to meet a condition set out in paragraph (a), by offering to supply the tied article to the customer on more favourable terms or conditions if the customer agrees to meet that condition.

22. (1) Where the Commission has reason to believe ^{Investigations re:} that an enterprise has monopoly power in a market and ^{abuses of monopoly} has abused or is abusing that power, the Commission shall initiate an investigation into the matter after issue ^{power} of the notice in the form prescribed in the Schedule.

(2) The Commission shall not investigate an enterprise under this section, unless it is satisfied that the enterprise controls forty per cent of the market or more or such percentage as the Minister may by Order prescribe.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an enterprise controls more than forty per cent of a market if—

(a) where the market relates to the supply of goods or services of any description—

(i) forty per cent (or the percentage prescribed) of all the goods or services of that description which are supplied in Trinidad and Tobago are supplied by or to that enterprise; or

(ii) forty per cent (or the percentage prescribed) of all the goods or services of that description which are supplied in Trinidad and Tobago are supplied by or to a group of interconnected bodies corporate and the enterprise is part of that group;

(b) where the market relates to the export of goods of any description from Trinidad and Tobago—

(i) forty per cent (or the percentage prescribed) of all the goods of that description which are produced in Trinidad and Tobago are produced by that enterprise; or

(ii) forty per cent (or the percentage prescribed) of all the goods of that description which are produced in Trinidad and Tobago are produced by a group of interconnected bodies corporate and the enterprise is part of that group, and in those cases monopoly power shall be taken to exist both in relation to exports of goods of that description from Trinidad and

Tobago generally and in relation to exports of goods of that description from Trinidad and Tobago to each country taken separately.

23. At the end of each investigation the Commission shall prepare a report indicating the practices that constitute the abuse of monopoly power if any and submit same to the enterprise concerned with a request for the enterprise to cease the abusive practice within six months.

24. Where within thirty days of receipt of the request, the enterprise concerned submits to the Commission the measures it would take and the timetable for giving effect to measures to remove the monopoly power it has on the market, and the Commission is satisfied of that undertaking, it shall so inform the enterprise in writing.

25. Where the enterprise does not comply with the request under section 23 or does not fulfil the undertaking given under section 24, the Commission may apply to the High Court for an Order under section 44(1).

PART IV

CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMISSION

26. (1) The Commission shall consist of not less than three nor more than five Commissioners appointed by the President from among persons appearing to him to be qualified by reason of their knowledge and experience in the fields of law, economics, accountancy, business, management or other relevant professions.
