FORESTS ACT

An Act relating to Forests and Forest Produce.

1950 Ed.
Ch. 24 No. 1.
42 of 1915.

[15TH MAY 1916]

Commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Forests Act.

Short title.

2. (1) In this Act—

Interpretation.
[23 of 1999].

“authorised officer” in relation to any of the purposes of this Act, means a public officer designated in writing for the purpose by the Minister;

“cattle” includes horses, mules, asses, goats and swine;

“classification mark” means a mark placed on timber that already bears a property mark to denote its origin or the agency by which it has been handled;

“forest offence” means any offence punishable under this Act or under any rule made thereunder;

“Forest Officer” includes any person appointed to discharge any function of a Forest Officer under this Act or any rule made thereunder;

“forest produce” includes the following when found in or brought from State land:

(a) trees and all parts or produce of such trees;

(b) plants not being trees, and all parts of produce of such plants;

“Forest Reserve” means and includes a forest and every part of a forest declared to be a Forest Reserve under the Land Regulations for the time being in force;

“private land” means land other than State land;

“prohibited area” means a specified area, being part of a Forest Reserve or State lands declared by the Minister by Order to be a prohibited area;

“property mark” means a mark placed on timber to denote that after all purchase money or royalties due to the Government have been paid, the owner has or will have a right of property in the timber;

“State land” includes—

- (a) the waste or vacant land of the State within Trinidad and Tobago; and
- (b) all lands vested in the State, whether by forfeiture, escheat, purchase or exchange, and not dedicated to the public;

“timber” includes—

Second
Schedule.

- (a) all species of trees listed in the Second Schedule whether standing, fallen, living or dead;
- (b) lumber, bucked or peeled;
- (c) logs; and
- (d) all wood whether cut up or fashioned for a purpose or not;

“tree” includes—

Second
Schedule.

- (a) all species of trees listed in the Second Schedule; and
- (b) bamboo, palms and brushwood found growing on State lands.

(2) In this Act, and in any other written law, a reference to the terms “Conservator” or “Conservator of Forests” shall be read and construed as a reference to the term “Director” or “Director of Forestry”.

Appointment of Forest Officers.
[23 of 1999].

3. (1) The Minister shall appoint such number of public officers to be Forest Officers as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, and may by Notification confer upon any such officer power or authority either generally or in a specific case, to do any act or grant any permission for which power or authority is required under this Act.

(2) The Minister may, in consultation with the Minister with responsibility for National Security, designate the required number of officers of the Coast Guard as Forest Officers, and may by Notification published in the Gazette, authorise them to grant any permission required under this Act, in relation to the removal of forest produce along the coast of Trinidad or Tobago.

BALATA GUM

4. (1) No person shall extract gum from, or cut for the purpose of extracting gum, any Balata trees growing on State lands.

Balata gum
from State lands.

(2) No person shall extract gum from, or cut for the purpose of extracting gum, any Balata tree growing on private land, without the licence in writing of the authorised officer of the district in which such land is situated. Such licence shall be in such form and subject to such conditions as the Minister may from time to time determine.

Balata gum
from private lands.

(3) Any person who contravenes this section or any condition contained in or endorsed on any licence issued to him is liable to a fine of two thousand dollars.

5. (1) No person shall transport or remove Balata gum except under a written permit from the authorised officer of the district. Every such permit shall be in the form set out in the First Schedule and shall only be granted on the authorised officer being satisfied that the Balata gum in respect of which the permit is applied for has been obtained from trees growing on private land with the consent of the owner of such land, and such licence shall be valid only for the period therein mentioned.

Permit for removal of gum.

First Schedule.

(2) Any person who contravenes this section is liable to a fine of two thousand dollars.

Removing gum without permit.

6. (1) No person shall export from Trinidad and Tobago any Balata gum unless, in the case of local produce, the shipping bill presented to the Comptroller of Customs and Excise is accompanied by an authorised officer's permit under section 5 or, in the case of imported gum, by a certificate of its landing signed by an officer of Customs.

Export of Balata gum.

Unlawfully exporting Batata gum.

(2) Any person who exports or attempts to export from Trinidad and Tobago any Balata gum in contravention of the provisions of this section is liable to a fine of two thousand dollars.

REMOVAL OF TIMBER

Prohibition of the felling of trees.
[23 of 1999].
Second
Schedule.

7. (1) A person who fells any—
- (a) tree listed in the Second Schedule; or
 - (b) tree on a slope of over thirty degrees, within a minimum of one hectare of land, without a Felling Permit granted in accordance with subsection (2), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars.

Second
Schedule.

(2) An owner or occupier of such land or a person authorised by the owner or occupier of land who desires to fell any tree listed in the Second Schedule shall apply to the authorised officer of the district for a permit to do so, and subject to section 7D, the authorised officer may grant such permit on such terms and conditions as may be necessary in all the circumstances.

Second
Schedule.

(3) The Minister may by Order amend the Second Schedule.

Removal Permit.
[23 of 1999].

7A. (1) No person shall remove any timber from any land by any means whatever, without a Removal Permit granted in accordance with this section.

(2) An application for a permit shall be made by the owner or occupier of such lands.

(3) Where an application is being made to remove timber from private land and the applicant is the owner of such land, he shall make a declaration of ownership in the prescribed form.

(4) An applicant who is not himself the owner, shall make a declaration to the effect that the timber for which the permit is required is bona fide private property which has come from private land, with the consent of the owner of such land.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars.

7B. Where an application is made under section 7A(3) or (4) and the applicant makes a false declaration, he is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars and imprisonment for two years. Fine for false declaration. [23 of 1999].

7C. (1) A permit to remove timber from private land shall be valid for a period of thirty days. Validity of Permit. [23 of 1999].

(2) Where a permit has been granted under this Act the holder of the permit may apply to the Director for an extension, prior to the expiry of such permit.

(3) The Director shall grant an extension of the permit for a period not exceeding two weeks and the fee payable shall be ten dollars per week.

7D. The grounds for the refusal of a permit shall be— Grounds for refusal of permit. [23 of 1999].

- (a) prior revocation of any permit granted under this Act;
- (b) conviction for a forest offence; or
- (c) any other ground prescribed by the Minister from time to time by way of Order.

7E. (1) A non-refundable/non-transferable fee of thirty dollars, shall be charged for any permit issued under this Act, but the fee for the Bulk Timber Removal Permit shall be fifty dollars. Fees for permit. [23 of 1999].

(2) The Minister may by Order prescribe such fees for the grant of the Bulk Timber Removal Permit in relation to the quantity of timber to be removed as he may think fit.

7F. (1) Subject to this section, a maximum of fifteen cubic metres (416 hoppers cubic feet) of timber shall be released on each Removal Permit and a separate permit shall be required for every additional ten cubic metres of timber or any part thereof. Maximum allowance for Removal Permit. [23 of 1999].

(2) A special Bulk Timber Removal Permit shall be required only in respect of removal of State owned timber of a single species.

(3) All timber to be removed under the Removal Permit and the Bulk Timber Removal Permit shall be stamped by the Conservator with the prescribed registered property and removal mark prior to the grant of such permit.

(4) A person who contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars.

Load limits.
[23 of 1999].

7G. Notwithstanding section 7F, a limit on the quantity of logs that may be carried at any time, to be referred to as a load limit, may be established by—

- (a) the Conservator of Forests in the case of access roads through a Forest Reserve and other State lands;
- (b) an officer designated by the Minister with responsibility for agriculture, in the case of agricultural access roads; or
- (c) the relevant Regional Corporation in the case of secondary roads.

Appeal to the Minister.
[23 of 1999].

7H. (1) Where an application for any permit is refused by the Authorised Officer, the aggrieved applicant may appeal to the Minister for a review of the decision, not later than one month after the refusal of the application stating the grounds for the appeal.

(2) The Minister shall consider an application for review of the refusal, within a reasonable time after the receipt of the application.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting the right of an aggrieved person to apply to the High Court for redress in accordance with section 14 of the Constitution.

Ch. 1:01.

OFFENCES AND PROCEDURE

8. Any person who—

- (a) pastures cattle or permits cattle to trespass;
- (b) fells, cuts, girdles, marks, lops, taps or bleeds any tree or injures by fire or otherwise any tree or timber;
- (c) causes any damage by negligence in felling any tree or cutting or dragging any timber;
- (d) kindles, keeps or carries any fire except at such seasons and in such manner as the Minister may from time to time notify;
- (e) subjects to any manufacturing process or transports or removes any forest produce; or
- (f) enters a prohibited area,

Forests
offences.
[23 of 1999].

is liable to a fine of twenty thousand dollars if the act was committed in a Forest Reserve or State lands. Nothing contained in this section shall subject any person to any penalty for any act done in accordance with the rules made by the Minister or with permission in writing given by a Forest Officer empowered or authorised to grant such permission.

9. Any Forest Officer, or any person authorised by him and any rural constable or police officer, may seize any cattle found trespassing on a Forest Reserve and deal with the same under the Pounds Act.

Cattle
trespassing.

Ch. 67:03.

10. Any person who—

- (a) knowingly counterfeits upon any tree or timber, or has in his possession any implement for counterfeiting, a mark used by Forest Officers to indicate that such tree or timber is the property of the Government, or of some person, or that it may lawfully be felled or removed by some person;
- (b) unlawfully or fraudulently affixes to any tree or timber a mark used by Forest Officers; or

Offences with intent to cause damage or wrongful gain.
[23 of 1999].

L.R.O. 1/2006

(c) alters, defaces or obliterates any such mark placed on any tree or timber by or under the authority of a Forest Officer, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years.

Power to demand production of permit for Balata gum or timber.

11. (1) Any Forest Officer, or any person authorised by him, any rural constable, or police officer, may in any highway or place stop any person transporting or removing, or whom he may have cause to suspect is transporting or removing, Balata gum or timber, the produce of Trinidad and Tobago, and may demand the production of the permit for such removal or transporting, and if such person is transporting or removing such Balata gum or timber and fails to produce such permit or to account satisfactorily for its absence, the Forest Officer, or person authorised by him, any rural constable or police officer may arrest such person and take him and such gum or timber before a Magistrate or Justice or the police officer in charge of the nearest Police Station to be dealt with according to law. In the case of timber, the powers conferred by this section shall only be exercised in respect of timber as defined in section 7 and within a declared district as also therein defined.

Second Schedule.

(2) In this section, the expression “timber” means timber cut from trees mentioned in the Second Schedule.

Power of arrest.

12. (1) Any Forest Officer, rural constable or police officer may, without a warrant, arrest any person reasonably suspected of having been concerned in any forest offence if such person refuses to give his name or residence, or gives a name or residence which there is reason to believe to be false, or if there is reason to believe that he will abscond.

(2) Every person making an arrest under this section shall, without unnecessary delay, take or send the person arrested before a Magistrate or Justice or the police officer in charge of the nearest Police Station to be dealt with according to law.

Power to seize produce, carts, etc., and condemn.

13. (1) When there is reason to believe that a forest offence has been committed in respect of any forest produce, such produce, together with all tools, ropes, chains, boats, crafts, carriages, carts and cattle used in the commission of the offence, may be seized by any Forest Officer, or person authorised by him, or by any rural constable or police officer.

(2) Every person seizing any property under this section shall, as soon as may be, make a report of such seizure to a Magistrate. When the forest produce with respect to which such offence is believed to have been committed is the property of the State and the offender is unknown, it shall be sufficient if the officer makes, as soon as may be, a report of the circumstances to his official superior.

(3) All such property shall be forfeited to the State, and shall be taken to be condemned, and may be sold by the Forest Officer of the district in which the seizure took place, unless the person from whom the same had been seized or the owner thereof or some person authorised by him, within fourteen days of such seizure, claims the same, and, within the said term of fourteen days, or such further term as a Magistrate may allow, proves to the satisfaction of such Magistrate that such forest produce was not obtained from State land, or that such person had some sufficient licence or authority in that behalf.

(4) In lieu of the forfeiture of any of the things other than forest produce mentioned in this section, the Magistrate may order the owner thereof to pay such penalty, not exceeding seven hundred and fifty dollars, as the Magistrate thinks fit, and on payment of such penalty such things shall be returned to the owner.

(5) Whoever seizes any forest produce or any property under this section shall place on such forest produce or property, or the receptacle, if any, in which it is contained, a mark indicating that the same has been seized.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, a Forest Officer may direct at any time the immediate release of any property seized under this section which is not the property of the State, and the withdrawal of any charge made in respect of such property.

Compensation in addition to penalty.
[23 of 1999].

14. (1) When any person is convicted of, cutting, girding, marking, lopping, tapping or bleeding trees or timber, or of injuring them by fire or otherwise, in contravention of this Act, the convicting Magistrate may, in addition to any other punishment which he may award, order that person to pay to the State such compensation, not exceeding five hundred dollars for each tree or log of timber with respect to which the offence was committed, as he considers just.

(2) If the person convicted of the offence committed is the agent or servant of another person, the convicting Magistrate may, unless, after hearing that other person, he is satisfied that the commission of the offence was not a consequence of such other person's instigation or of any neglect or default on his part, order him, instead of the person who committed the offence, to pay the compensation referred to in this section.

Produce, carts, etc., liable to forfeiture.

15. (1) When any person is convicted of a forest offence, all forest produce in respect of which such offence has been committed, and all tools, ropes, chains, boats, crafts, carts, carriages and cattle used in the commission of such offence, are liable by order of the convicting Magistrate to be forfeited to the State or to be otherwise dealt with as the Magistrate, in the particular circumstances of the case, thinks just. Such forfeiture may be in addition to any other penalty or compensation prescribed for such offence.

Disposal of produce after trial.

(2) Any thing or any cattle mentioned in this section shall, if forfeited to the State, be taken possession of by a Forest Officer empowered in this behalf, and in any other case may be disposed of in such manner as the Magistrate may order.

Sale of perishable goods.

16. The Magistrate may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, direct the sale of any property seized under this Act and subject to speedy or natural decay, and may deal with the proceeds as he might have dealt with such property, if it had not been sold.

Recovery of penalties.

17. (1) Any offence under this Act may be prosecuted and any penalty incurred may be imposed or recovered, in the manner provided by the Summary Courts Act, on the complaint of a Forest Officer or police officer. Ch. 4:20.

(2) All such complaints may be made at any time within two years from the time when such matter of complaint arose.

(3) Where any Forest Officer makes a complaint against any person, any other Forest Officer may appear before the Magistrate who is trying or enquiring into the matter of the said complaint, and shall have the same privileges as to addressing the said Magistrate and as to examining the witnesses adduced in the said matter as the Forest Officer who made the complaint would have had. Right of Forest Officer to conduct case.

18. (1) Every Forest Officer, rural constable and police officer is hereby authorised to prevent the commission of any forest offence. Prevention of offences. [23 of 1999].

(2) Any person who assaults, obstructs or resists any Forest Officer, or any person authorised by him, in the execution of his duty, or aids or incites any other person so to assault, obstruct or resist any Forest Officer, or any person authorised by him, or any person aiding or assisting such Forest Officer, or any person authorised by him, in the execution of his duty, is liable to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for five years. Penalty for assaulting or obstructing Forest Officer.

19. In any action brought against any person for anything done or bona fide intended to be done in the exercise or supposed exercise of the powers given by this Act or by any rules made thereunder, it shall be expressly alleged that the defendant acted maliciously and without reasonable and probable cause, and if at the trial the plaintiff fails to prove such allegation, judgment shall be given for the defendant. Protection of persons acting under Act.

20. When, in any proceedings taken under this Act, or in consequence of anything done under this Act, a question arises as to whether any forest produce is the property of the State, such produce shall be presumed to be the property of the State until the contrary is proved. Presumption as to ownership of produce.

Compounding of forest offences.
[23 of 1999].

21. (1) The Minister may, by writing under his hand, empower the Director of Forestry—

- (a) to accept from any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed any forest offence, other than an offence specified in section 10, a sum of money not less than five hundred dollars but not more than twenty-five thousand dollars by way of compensation for the offence which such person is suspected to have committed; and
- (b) when any property has been seized as liable to confiscation, to release the same on payment of the value thereof as estimated by such officer.

(2) On payment of such sum of money or such value, or both, as the case may be, to such officer, the suspected person, if in custody, shall be discharged, the property seized, if any, shall be released, and no further proceedings shall be taken against such person or property in respect of such suspected offence.

(3) All moneys received under this section shall be paid into public funds.

Rewards.

22. The Minister may order such rewards as he thinks fit to be paid in respect of any seizure made under this Act to the person making such seizure or through whose information or means such seizure was made.

Rules.

23. The Minister may, subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament, make Rules—

- (a) prescribing the form of permits and providing for their issue, production and return;
- (b) regulating the issue of property marks and classification marks for timber and the registration of such marks, and declaring the circumstances in which the registration of any property mark or classification mark may be refused or cancelled; prescribing the time for

- which such registration shall hold good; limiting the number of such marks that may be registered by any one person, and providing for the levy of fees for such registration;
- (c) providing for the preservation of trees remarkable for size, rarity or beauty, whether generally or in individual cases, and for obtaining permission to lop or fell the same.

APPLICATION FOR FELLING PERMIT

GUIDELINES

1. An application must state clearly the number of trees to be felled, the size of the trees (girth at breast height (4'3" or 1.3 m above the ground) and the species.
2. The application must be submitted with a sketch map of the relevant area and proof of ownership of the land. This should include a Deed for unregistered land and a Certificate of Title for registered land. Where applicable, a letter of consent from the owner shall also be required.
3. An authorised Forest Officer from the Range must make an inspection of the property and tree(s) before a permit is granted.
4. The officer is expected to issue the Felling Permit immediately after the inspection is done, unless there are grounds for refusal. An authorised officer may request any other information as he thinks appropriate to enable him to make a decision on the matter.
5. The Director of Forestry or his agent may suspend or refuse to grant a Felling Permit if in the act of felling the trees, adjoining property, roads, reserve lines, waterways, transmission lines, drains or public infrastructure is likely to be adversely affected.
6. In the removal of trees, large gaps must not be created so as to allow the adverse effects of soil erosion, landslides or rapid water run-off to escalate. The Director of Forestry may refuse to grant a permit if the felling of a tree(s) may induce site degradation, e.g., soil erosion, landslides, rapid water run-off or removal of valuable topsoil, or if a tree is of historical, cultural or environmental significance.
7. Under private plantations where trees are to be removed, there must be adequate tree cover and undergrowth remaining so as to prevent any adverse effect mentioned in (6) above. Clearfelling of plantations will be allowed only if there are no adverse effects to site conditions.
8. Persons desirous of practising commercial forest production on slopes of over (30) thirty degrees are required to submit a Forest Management Plan to the Forestry Division for approval prior to such action.
9. This application may be refused on the grounds that the applicant has breached any of the Conditions of a previously issued Felling Permit.
10. Where land is to be converted to another use the applicant must show evidence of obtaining all relevant approval(s) from the respective institutions and government agencies.
