FORGERY ACT

An Act relating to Forgery and Kindred Offences.

1950 Ed.
Ch. 4 No. 12.
13 of 1925.
Commencement.

[22ND APRIL 1925]

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Forgery Act.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act—

“bank note” includes any note or bill of exchange of the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago, or of any other person, body corporate, or company carrying on the business of banking in any part of the world, and includes “bank bill”, “bank post bill”, “blank bank note”, “blank bank bill of exchange” and “blank bank post bill”;

“currency note” includes any note issued as currency by or under the authority of the Government of Trinidad and Tobago, or of any Commonwealth country, or of any foreign State, or of any dependency of any foreign State;

“die” includes any plate, type, tool or implement whatsoever, and also any part of any die plate, type, tool or implement, and any stamp or impression thereof or any part of such stamp or impression;

“document of title to goods” includes any bill of lading, India warrant, dock warrant, warehouse keeper’s certificate, warrant or order for the delivery or transfer of any goods or valuable thing, bought or sold note, or any other document used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of goods, or authorising or purporting to authorise, either by endorsement or by delivery, the possessor of such document to transfer or receive any goods thereby represented or mentioned therein or referred to;

“document of title to lands” includes any State grant, certificate of title, Deed, map, roll, register or instrument in writing being or containing evidence of the title or any part of the title to any land or to any interest in or arising out of any land, or any authenticated copy thereof;

“revenue paper” means any paper provided by the proper authority for the purpose of being used for stamps, licences, permits, post office money orders or postal orders, or for any purpose whatever connected with the public revenue;

“seal” includes any stamp or impression of a seal, or any stamp or impression made or apparently intended to resemble the stamp or impression of a seal, as well as the seal itself;

“stamp” includes a stamp impressed by means of a die as well as an adhesive stamp;

“Treasury bill” includes Exchequer bill, Exchequer bond, Exchequer debenture and War bond;

“valuable security” includes any writing entitling or evidencing the title of any person to any share or interest in any public stock, annuity, fund or debt of any Commonwealth country or of any foreign State, or in any stock, annuity, fund or debt of any body corporate, company or society, whether within or without any Commonwealth country, or to any deposit in any bank; and also includes any scrip, debenture, bill, note, warrant, order or other security for the payment of money, or any authority or request for the payment of money or the delivery or transfer of goods or chattels, or any accountable receipt, release or discharge, or any receipt or other instrument evidencing the payment of money or the delivery of any chattel personal.

3. (1) For the purposes of this Act, “forgery” is the making of a false document in order that it may be used as genuine, and, in the case of the seals and dies mentioned in this Act, the counterfeiting of a seal or die; and forgery with intent to defraud or deceive, as the case may be, is punishable as in this Act provided.

Definition of “forgery”.

(2) A document is false within the meaning of this Act if the whole or any material part thereof purports to be made by or on behalf or on account of a person who did not make it nor authorise its making; or if, though made by or on behalf or on account of the person by whom or by whose authority it purports to have been made, the time or place of making, where either is material, or, in the case of a document identified by number or mark, the number or any distinguishing mark identifying the document, is falsely stated therein, and in particular a document is false—

- (a) if any material alteration, whether by addition, insertion, obliteration, erasure, removal or otherwise, has been made therein;
- (b) if the whole or some material part of it purports to be made by or on behalf of a fictitious or deceased person; or
- (c) if, though made in the name of an existing person, it is made by him or by his authority with the intention that it should pass as having been made by some person, real or fictitious, other than the person who made or authorised it.

(3) For the purposes of this Act—

- (a) it is immaterial in what language a document is expressed or in what place within or without any Commonwealth country it is expressed to take effect;
- (b) forgery of a document may be complete even if the document when forged is incomplete, or is not or does not purport to be such a document as would be binding or sufficient in law;
- (c) the crossing on any cheque, draft on a banker, post office money order, postal order, coupon or other document the crossing of which is authorised or recognised by law, shall be a material part of the cheque, draft, order, coupon or document.

 (d) any forged document, seal or die; or
 (e) any machinery, implement, utensil or material used or intended to be used for the forgery of any document, the Magistrate or Justice may grant a warrant to search for the same; and if the same shall be found on search, it shall be lawful to seize it and carry it before the Magistrate of the district to be by him disposed of according to law.

(2) Where any forged document (including any forged bank note, currency note, treasury bill or Government debenture bond), or any machinery, implement, utensil or material used or intended to be used for the forgery of any such document, is lawfully seized under a warrant granted in pursuance of subsection (1) or otherwise, the document, machinery, implement, utensil or material, as the case may be, shall be delivered up to the Commissioner of Police, or to any person authorised by him to receive the same, by order of the Court before which the offender is tried or, if there is no trial, by order of a Magistrate.

Disposal of documents, materials, etc., seized.

(3) Every other document, seal or die lawfully seized under such warrant, or otherwise, shall be defaced and destroyed or otherwise disposed of—

Documents, etc., to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

- (a) by order of the Court before which the offender is tried;
- (b) if there is no trial, by order of a Magistrate; or
- (c) if it affects the public revenue, by the Comptroller of Accounts.

16. (1) In an indictment for an offence against this Act with reference to any document, seal or die, it is sufficient to refer to the document, seal or die by any name or designation by which it is usually known, or by its purport, without setting out any copy or facsimile of the whole or any part of the document, seal or die.

Form of indictment and proof of intent. [45 of 1979].

(2) Where an intent to defraud or an intent to deceive is one of the constituent elements of an offence punishable under this Act, or under any other written law relating to forgery or any kindred offence for the time being in force, it shall not be necessary to allege in the indictment or to prove an intent to defraud or deceive any particular person; and it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant did the act charged with intent to defraud or to deceive, as the case may require.

Partnerships.

(3) If any person who is a member of any co-partnership, or is one of two or more beneficial owners of any property, forges any document, matter or thing with intent to defraud the co-partnership or the other beneficial owners, he is liable to be dealt with, indicted, tried and punished as if he had not been or was not a member of the co-partnership or one of the beneficial owners.

Savings.

17. (1) Where an offence against this Act and also by virtue of some other written law subjects the offender to any forfeiture or disqualification, or to any penalty other than imprisonment or fine, the liability of the offender to punishment under this Act shall be in addition to and not in substitution for his liability under such other written law.

Offences punishable under other Acts.

(2) Where an offence against this Act is by any other Act, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act, made punishable on summary conviction, proceedings may be taken either under such other Act or under this Act.
