GOVERNMENT SAVINGS BONDS ACT

8 of 1962. An Act to authorise the Issue of Savings Bonds and to declare the terms and conditions applicable thereto and to provide for the rights and securities of the holders thereof.

Commencement.
87/1962. [27TH AUGUST 1962]

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Government Savings Bonds Act.

Interpretation.
[11 of 1988
14 of 1995]. 2. In this Act—

Ch. 79:02. “bonds” means the Savings Bonds authorised to be issued under this Act, and includes tax free housing bonds so issued;

Ch. 79:09. “Central Bank” means the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago established under the Central Bank Act;

Ch. 79:09. “financial institution” means a financial institution licensed under the Financial Institutions Act;

Ch. 79:09. “Fiscal Agent” means—
(a) the Central Bank;

(b) a financial institution designated by the Minister;

“value” means in relation to a bond the value of the bond when it is first issued.

Tax free housing bonds.
[11 of 1988]. 2A. The proceeds of sale of tax free housing bonds issued under this Act shall be applied solely for the provision of mortgages to individuals for the purchase of houses where the cost of construction together with the cost of the land does not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Power of Minister to issue or exchange Saving Bonds.
[50/1982
103/1983]. 3. (1) The Minister may issue non-transferable bonds not exceeding—

(a) a total value of three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) in such denominations as may be prescribed and in such further sums as may be required to defray the expenses of the issue of the bonds; or

(b) such other sums as may from time to time be specified by resolution passed by both Houses of Parliament.

(2) The Minister may exchange or replace a bond of equal value for any bond which is mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost upon such terms and conditions as he may consider fit.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, but subject to the prescribed limitation on the value in bonds that may be purchased or held by a person, where in the administration of the estate of a deceased holder thereof, the property in bonds is transferred by the personal representative of such deceased holder to the person entitled thereto, the Investment Division of the Treasury may, on receipt of proper authority to do so, alter the register of bonds accordingly, and thereafter payment of the encashment value of the bonds may be made to the person entitled thereto.

Transferability of bonds on death.
[5 of 1965].

5. The principal moneys and interest represented by the said bond are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund.

Payment of principal and interest.

6. (1) A bond shall bear interest at the rate and computed in the manner to be prescribed.

Rate of interest.
[14 of 1995].

(2) No bond shall bear any further interest on the principal moneys after a period of twelve years from the date of issue.

Time limit for the bearing of interest.

(2A) A bond shall be deemed to be duly encashed and the interest thereon to be duly paid where the relevant sum is credited to the account of the holder at the financial institution specified by him.

(3) A bond may be encashed at any time by presenting the same at the office of the Comptroller of Accounts or at such other places as the Minister may from time to time prescribe.

Encashment of Bonds.

6A. (1) A Fiscal Agent—

Fiscal Agent.
[14 of 1995].

(a) may sell bonds; and

(b) shall keep a Register of holders of bonds.

(2) A Fiscal Agent thereunto authorised shall promptly pay —

- (a) the interest on a bond when due;
- (b) the principal sum at maturity.

(3) A bond shall be deemed to be duly encashed and the interest thereon to be duly paid where the relevant sum is credited to the account of the holder at the financial institution specified by him.

Receipts exempt from stamp duty.
[5 of 1965].
Ch. 76:01.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Stamp Duty Act, any receipt which may be required on the encashment of a bond shall be exempt from stamp duty.

Regulations.

8. The Minister may make Regulations for the carrying out of the purposes of the Act including —

- (a) denominations of bonds;
- (b) rates of interest;
- (c) methods of encashment;
- (d) forms, issue, and recording of such bonds;
- (e) method of holding the bonds.

Ch. 71:01 and
Ch. 71:02 not to apply to Bonds.

9. The General Loan and Stock Act and the General Local Loan Act shall not apply in relation to the bonds.
