PART III

CONFIDENTIALITY AND RELATED MATTERS

Confidentiality.

10. For the purposes of this Part “Confidential information” means any information expressly intended by the source not to be disclosed, or which is otherwise obtained under circumstances that would create a reasonable expectation on behalf of the source, that the information shall not be disclosed and includes—

- (a) oral or written, communications, made in the mediation process, including any memoranda, notes or work-product of the mediator, mediation party or non-party participants;
- (b) an oral or written statement made or which occurs during mediation or for purposes of considering, conducting, participating, initiating, continuing or reconvening mediation or retaining a mediator; and
- (c) any other information expressly intended by the source not to be disclosed, or obtained under circumstances that would create a reasonable expectation on behalf of the source that the information shall not be disclosed.

Non-disclosure of confidential
information.

11. (1) A certified mediator or any person who in the course of his employment or training, comes into possession of any confidential information obtained in a mediation session shall not disclose any such confidential information obtained in that session.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where—
 - (a) the disclosure is required by or under an Act of Parliament;
 - (b) the disclosure is made with the consent of the mediation parties;

- (c) the disclosure is made with the consent of the person who gave the confidential information; or
 - (d) the person referred to in subsection (1), believes on reasonable grounds that—
 - (i) a person's life or health is under serious and imminent threat and the disclosure is necessary to avert, or mitigate the consequences of its realisation;
 - (ii) the disclosure is necessary to report to the appropriate authority the commission of an offence or prevent the likely commission of an offence; or
 - (iii) the disclosure becomes necessary for the purpose of disciplinary proceedings by the Panel.
- (3) In this section "offence" means an offence involving—
- (a) violence, or the threat of violence, to a person; or
 - (b) intentional damage to property or the threat of such damage.

12. (1) No legal proceeding may be commenced against a certified mediator or any person or official involved in the mediation process for any act done or omitted to be done in the course of the performance of his functions, in reference to such mediation process.

Immunity from suit.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if a person suffers loss or damage as a result of the wrongful disclosure of confidential information by a certified mediator or by any person who in the course of his employment or training gained access to such confidential information, that person shall be entitled to bring suit for damages.

(3) Subject to subsection 11(2), the certified mediator or any other person involved in the mediation process is not compellable as a witness, to give evidence of any matter which occurred during the mediation session or any confidential information which came to his knowledge during the mediation process.

Admissibility of evidence.

13. (1) Evidence of—

- (a) a communication made in a mediation session; or
- (b) a document, whether delivered or not, prepared—
 - (i) for the purposes of;
 - (ii) in the course of; or
 - (iii) pursuant to a decision taken or undertaking given in a mediation session, is not admissible in any proceedings.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), documents or communications shall be admissible where—

- (a) the mediation parties consent to the evidence being adduced in the proceedings concerned;
- (b) any of the mediation parties has tendered the communication or document in evidence in proceedings in a foreign Court and all the other mediation parties so consent;
- (c) the substance of the evidence has been disclosed with the express or implied consent of all the mediation parties;
- (d) the substance of the evidence has been partly disclosed with the express or implied consent of the mediation parties, and full disclosure of the evidence is reasonably necessary to enable a proper understanding of the other evidence that has already been adduced;
- (e) the document or communication includes a statement to the effect that it was not to be treated as confidential;
- (f) the evidence tends to contradict or to qualify evidence that has already been admitted, about the course of an attempt to settle the dispute;
- (g) the proceeding in which it is sought to adduce the evidence is a proceeding to enforce an agreement between the mediation parties to settle

- the dispute, or a proceeding in which the making of such an agreement is in issue; or
- (h) evidence that has been adduced in the proceeding, or an inference from evidence that has been adduced in the proceeding, is likely to mislead the Court, unless evidence of the communication or document is adduced to contradict or to qualify that evidence.

PART IV

COURT-ANNEXED MEDIATION

14. (1) Where in any matter other than a criminal matter the Court considers it appropriate to refer parties to mediation, the Court may refer them to a certified mediator who is—

Court may refer matter to mediation.

- (a) a public officer; or
- (b) in the employment of the Judiciary; or
- (c) on the Judiciary's roster of mediators.

(2) The parties to any matter before the Court, may with the approval of the Court, agree to retain the services of a mediator who is not included under subsection (1).

(3) Any expenses incurred under subsection (2) shall be borne by the parties or either of them as the Court may direct or as the parties may agree.

15. The Rules Committee established under the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, may make Rules for Court-annexed mediation under this Act.

Rules.
Ch. 4:01.

PART V

COMMUNITY MEDIATION

16. The Minister may make Regulations governing Community mediation including—

Regulations.

- (a) the delineation of communities for the purposes of the Act;

L.R.O.

- (b) the procedure for community mediation as a result of self referral or voluntary access;
- (c) the use of certified mediators and mediation centres.

PART VI

MEDIATION BOARD REGULATIONS

Mediation
Board
Regulations.

17. The Mediation Board may with the approval of the Attorney General and subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament, make regulations to—

- (a) govern its own procedures;
- (b) prescribe requirements to be complied with by an approved mediation agency;
- (c) provide for complaints and disciplinary procedures for certified mediators and certified mediation trainers;
- (d) provide for a complaints procedure for approved mediation agencies save and except for the institutions deemed to be approved mediation agencies under section 9;
- (e) provide for procedures for complaints concerning accredited training programmes;
- (f) provide for the process, procedure and standards for accreditation of mediation training programmes;
- (g) provide for the process, procedure and standards for the certification of mediators;
- (h) approve mediation agencies;
- (i) provide for the certification of mediators who are the holders of mediation certificates from training programmes not accredited under section 7;
- (j) provide for the deregistration of certified mediators, certified trainers or accredited mediation training programmes;
- (k) set out procedures for the deregistration of approved Mediation Agencies save and except

- the institutions deemed to be approved mediation agencies under section 9;
- (l) provide for the periodic renewal of registration of certified mediators, certified trainers, accredited mediation training agencies and approved mediation agencies save and except the institutions deemed to be approved Mediation Agencies under section 9;
 - (m) prescribe a code of ethics for mediators; and
 - (n) to provide for all processes, procedures, standards and requirements as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

18. The “Code of Ethics”, “Disciplinary Regulations”, ^{Schedules.} “Training Certification and Accreditation Regulations”, and the “Criteria for the Approval of a Mediation Agency” set out in the First, Second, Third and Fourth Schedules respectively shall be effective as regulations to be used by the Board, from the commencement of this Act, until the Board makes its own regulations under section 17, and thereafter the effectiveness of the said Schedules shall expire.

[Section
5(2)(a)].

FIRST SCHEDULE

CODE OF ETHICS

Application. 1. This Code of Ethics shall apply to certified mediators and is intended to assist and guide certified mediators in their conduct and to provide a framework within which mediation is conducted and regulated.

Interpretation. 2. In this Code—
 “Conflict of interests” means direct or indirect financial personal interests in the outcome of the dispute or an existing or past financial, business, professional, family or social relationship which is likely to affect the impartiality or reasonably create an appearance of partiality or bias;
 “impartiality” means freedom from favouritism and bias either by words, action or by appearance and implies a commitment to serve all mediation parties as opposed to a single mediation party in moving towards or reaching agreement.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

General
responsibilities of certified mediators.

3. Certified mediators shall—
- (a) conduct themselves in a manner which will instill confidence in the mediation process, confidence in their integrity and confidence that disputes entrusted to them are handled in accordance with the highest ethical standards;
 - (b) be responsible to the parties, to the profession, to the public and to themselves, and accordingly shall be honest and unbiased, act in good faith, be diligent, and not seek to advance their own interest, but rather the needs and interests of the mediation parties;
 - (c) act fairly in dealing with the mediation parties, have no personal interests in the terms of the settlement, show no bias towards individuals or parties involved in the disputes and be certain that the mediation parties are informed of the process in which they are involved.

ETHICAL STANDARDS

Self-determination.

4. (1) The primary role of the mediator is to facilitate the voluntary resolution of a dispute.

(2) The primary responsibility for the resolution of the dispute and the shaping of a settlement rests with the mediation parties.

(3) A mediator shall recognise that mediation is based on the principle of self-determination by the mediation parties and upon the ability of the mediation parties to reach a voluntary uncoerced agreement.

(4) A mediator shall request and encourage self-determination by the mediation parties in their decision whether, and on what terms, to resolve their dispute, and, subject to paragraph 13, shall refrain from being directive or judgmental regarding the issues in dispute and options for settlement.

(5) A mediator shall encourage mutual respect between the mediation parties, and shall take reasonable steps, subject to the principle of self-determination, to limit abuses of the mediation process.

(6) A mediator shall make the mediation parties aware, where appropriate, of the option and importance of consulting other professionals to assist the mediation parties in the making of informed decisions.

(7) When a mediator believes a mediation party does not understand or appreciate how an agreement may adversely affect legal rights or obligations, the mediator shall advise the mediation parties to seek independent professional advice.

(8) While a mediator may point out possible outcomes of a case, the mediator shall not offer a personal or professional opinion as to how the Court in which the case has been filed will resolve the dispute.

(9) A mediator shall not use during the mediation process any title or honorific to which he may be entitled.

5. (1) A mediator shall mediate only when the mediator has the necessary qualifications, training and experience to enable him to satisfy the reasonable expectation of the mediation parties. Competence.

(2) A mediator shall acquire and maintain professional competence in mediation, and shall at all times strive to improve his professional skills and abilities by participating in relevant continuing education programmes.

(3) A mediator shall have information regarding his relevant training, education and experience available to the mediation parties.

6. (1) A mediator shall provide mediation services only for those disputes in which he can be impartial with respect to all the mediation parties and the subject matter of the dispute. Impartiality.

(2) A mediator shall in words and action, maintain impartiality towards the mediation parties and where his impartiality is in question, shall decline to serve or shall withdraw from serving as a mediator.

(3) Where at any time prior to, or during the mediation process the mediator is unable to conduct the mediation process in an impartial manner, the mediator shall so inform the mediation parties and shall withdraw from providing services, even if the mediation parties express no objection to the continuation of the mediator's services.

Confidentiality.

7. (1) A mediator shall discuss issues of confidentiality with the mediation parties before beginning the mediation process including, limitations on the scope of confidentiality and the extent of confidentiality provided in any private session that the mediator holds with a mediation party.

(2) All proceedings shall be confidential and the mediator shall not voluntarily disclose to anyone who is not a mediation party to the mediation process, any information obtained through the mediation process except, with the written consent of the mediation parties, or when the information discloses an actual or potential threat to human life or safety.

(3) In the cases referred to in subparagraph (2), the mediator shall advise the mediation parties, when appropriate to the mediation process, that the confidentiality of the mediation proceedings cannot necessarily be guaranteed.

Informed consent.

8. (1) A mediator shall structure the mediation process so that the mediation parties make decisions based on sufficient information and knowledge.

(2) The mediator has an obligation to ensure that all mediation parties understand the nature of the process, the procedures, the particular role of the mediator and the mediation parties' relationship to the mediator.

(3) Where at any time the mediator believes that any mediation party is unable to understand the mediation process or participate fully in it, whether because of mental impairment, emotional disturbance, intoxication, language barriers or other reasons, the mediator shall limit the scope of the mediation process in a manner consistent with the mediation party's ability to participate, and/or recommend that the mediation party obtain appropriate assistance in order to continue with the mediation process or shall terminate the mediation process.

Conflict of interests.

9. (1) A mediator shall disclose all actual and potential conflict of interests known to him and thereafter shall withdraw from the mediation, if any mediation party objects to him continuing as mediator.

(2) Where the mediator determines that the conflict is so significant as to cast doubt on the integrity of the mediation process, the mediator shall withdraw from the process even if the mediation parties express no objection to the continuation of the mediator's services.

(3) Save with the consent of the mediation parties, and for a reasonable time under the particular circumstances, a mediator who also practises in another profession shall not establish a professional relationship in that other profession with one of the mediation parties, or any person or entity, in a substantially factually related matter.

(4) Subject to paragraph 13, a mediator shall limit himself solely to the role of mediator, and shall refrain from giving legal or therapeutic information or advice and otherwise engaging during mediation in counselling or advocacy.

(5) The duty to disclose conflict of interests shall be a continuing obligation throughout the mediation process.

10. In family mediation, the mediator has a responsibility to promote the mediation parties' consideration of the interest of children in relation to the issues being mediated. The mediator also has a duty to assist the mediation parties to examine, apart from their own desires, the separate and individual needs of such children.

Responsibility to children in family mediation.

11. (1) A mediator shall at the outset of the mediation process, fully disclose and explain the basis of compensation, fees and charges, if any, to the mediation parties.

Fees.

(2) A mediator shall not enter into a fee agreement which is contingent upon the results of the mediation or the amount of the settlement but may, however, specify in advance a minimum charge for a mediation session without violating this provision.

12. (1) A mediator shall not make untruthful or exaggerated claims about the mediation process, its costs and benefits, its outcome or the mediator's qualifications and abilities.

Advertising.

(2) All advertising shall honestly represent the services to be rendered and no claims of specific results or promises which apply to one party over another party should be made for the purpose of obtaining business.

(3) No commission, rebates, or other similar forms of remuneration shall be given or received by a mediator for the referral of clients.

13. Unless the parties have agreed in writing before the commencement of the mediation session that they wish the mediator to evaluate or adjudicate upon the merits of their respective positions, as for example in procedures typically known as "early neutral evaluation" and "med-arbs", a certified mediator may not do so.

Evaluative proceeding.

[Section
5(2)(b)].

SECOND SCHEDULE

DISCIPLINARY REGULATIONS

- Application. 1. (1) These disciplinary proceedings apply to complaints against any individual placed on the Register of Certified Mediators pursuant to section 7 of this Act.
- (2) Where a person is registered as a certified mediator such registration may be revoked for cause in accordance with these provisions.
- Disciplinary Panel. 2. (1) The Mediation Board shall appoint a Disciplinary Panel consisting of three members which shall be a standing committee, to hear and determine complaints against mediators.
- (2) The Disciplinary Panel shall consist of an Attorney-at-law of at least seven years standing and two certified mediators who shall not be members of the Mediation Board.
- Procedure. 3. (1) A complaint against a mediator hereafter called the mediator/respondent shall be in writing, signed by the complainant, and shall include the complainant's name, address and telephone number.
- (2) The complaint referred to in subparagraph (1), shall be mailed or delivered to the Mediation Board at its address and shall—
- (a) identify the mediator/respondent; and
 - (b) make a short and plain statement of the conduct forming the basis of the complaint.
- (3) Subject to subparagraph 4, the complaint shall be made within thirty days of the conclusion of the mediation.
- (4) The Mediation Board in its discretion, for good cause, may extend the time limit within which the complaint may be made.
- (5) The Disciplinary Panel shall review the complaint to determine whether the allegations, if true, constitute a violation of the Code of Ethics.
- (6) If the allegations made in the complaint, would not constitute a violation of the Code of Ethics, the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant and the mediator/respondent shall be notified in writing.
- (7) Where the Disciplinary Panel concludes that the allegations of the complaint if true, constitute a violation of the Code of Ethics, the Disciplinary Panel shall hear and determine the complaint and in all such cases, the Disciplinary Panel shall serve on the mediator/respondent, by personal service or by registered mail, a copy of the complaint, a request for a written response to the allegations and to any specific questions posed by the Disciplinary Panel.

(8) It shall not be considered a violation of section 12 of the Act or paragraph 5 of this Code of Ethics, for the mediator/respondent to disclose information acquired in mediation session if that information falls within section 12 (2) of the Mediation Act and except for good cause shown, if the mediator/respondent fails to respond to the complaint in writing within thirty days, the allegations shall be deemed admitted.

4. (1) The Disciplinary Panel may, in its discretion, refer the complainant and the mediator/respondent to mediation conducted by a volunteer mediator to resolve the issues raised by the complainant.

Referral of complaint to volunteer mediator.

(2) If the complaint is resolved through mediation, the Disciplinary Panel shall dismiss the complaint, unless the resolution includes sanctions to be imposed by the Disciplinary Panel in which case the Disciplinary Panel shall impose such sanctions.

(3) Where no agreement is reached in mediation, the Disciplinary Panel shall hear and determine the complaint.

5. (1) At the hearing the parties may be represented by attorneys but the rules of evidence shall not be strictly applied.

Hearing.

(2) The Disciplinary Panel at its own initiative, or by request of the parties, may request the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and other evidentiary matter.

6. (1) A party may appeal the Disciplinary Panel's decision to an Appellate Panel consisting of not less than three members of the Mediation Board.

Appeals.

(2) An appeal must be filed within forty-five days from the date of decision.

7. (1) Where it comes to the attention of the Mediation Board that a certified mediator has been convicted of a criminal offence, the Mediation Board may call upon such certified mediator to show cause why he should not be deregistered.

Effect of criminal conviction.

(2) A certificate of conviction issued by the Court shall be sufficient evidence of the mediator's conviction for an offence.

8. The Disciplinary Panel or the Appellate Panel may impose sanctions, including but not limited to—

Sanctions.

- (a) the issue of a private reprimand;
- (b) the designation of corrective action necessary for the mediator/respondent to remain on the register;
- (c) notifying any approved mediation agency with which the mediator is affiliated of the complaint and the result of its disposition;

- (d) the removal of the mediator/respondent from the register of certified mediators, with conditions for reinstatement if any.

Confidentiality.

9. (1) All files, records, and proceedings of the Disciplinary Panel and the Appellate Panel that relate to or arise out of any complaint shall be confidential, except—

- (a) as between the Mediation Board, members of the Disciplinary Panel, the Appellate Panel and staff;
 (b) as otherwise required or permitted by rule or statute; and
 (c) to the extent that the complainant and the mediator/respondent waive confidentiality.

(2) Where sanctions are imposed against the mediator/respondent pursuant to paragraphs (b) to (d) of paragraph 8 such sanctions shall be of public record, and the files of the Disciplinary Panel and the Appellate Panel shall remain confidential.

(Section 7).

PART IIIACCREDITATION OF MEDIATION TRAINING PROGRAMMES REGULATIONS*GENERAL

Requirements.

1. An individual or organisation who or which wishes to have his or its mediation training programme accredited shall satisfy the requirements of this Part.

Standard
Training
Programme
Co-ordination.

2. (1) An individual shall be designated to be responsible for each mediation training programme and held accountable on behalf of the programme for—

- (a) providing the Mediation Board with résumés of all trainers and subject matter specialists who will be used during the programme;

- (b) ensuring proper facilities are secured and that appropriate equipment is provided;
- (c) ensuring that the training agenda is followed and that all content is covered;
- (d) ensuring that evaluation forms are completed and maintained;
- (e) ensuring that a certified trainer is in attendance at all times; and
- (f) ensuring that no certificate is issued to a participant who fails to complete the requirements of attendance and participation.

(2) Mediation training programmes shall be presented for a minimum duration of forty contact hours.

3. (1) When applying for accreditation, an individual or organisation shall provide the Mediation Board with all training material which will be used in the training programme. Submission of training materials.

(2) The material shall include, but is not limited to—

- (a) the training manual that is to be given to the participants including the required reading; and
- (b) all exercises and handouts; and a copy of all role-plays and videos or other electronically displayed material.

(3) Revisions, deletions and additions to the training materials shall be reported to the Mediation Board prior to any course offering.

4. (1) An individual or organisation shall seek approval from the Mediation Board at least twenty-eight days in advance of a mediation training programme by submitting a detailed programme agenda which shall be reviewed by the Mediation Board for compliance with the training standards. Agenda approval.

(2) The agenda shall be submitted in a format which easily identifies—

- (a) the presentation topic;
- (b) the time allotted to each topic;
- (c) the learning objectives covered under each topic; and
- (d) any required activities, e.g., writing agreement exercises, showing of video simulations, role-plays, etc., covered under the presentation topic.

(3) Any deficiencies in the programme agenda shall be corrected prior to the commencement of the training programme and failure to correct deficiencies shall be a violation of the training standards and may result in the programme not being accredited.

5. (1) All training programmes shall provide the participants with the required reading listed below but time spent reading required material shall not count towards the required number of hours of training and shall be completed by participants at times when the training programme is not being conducted. Readings.

(2) Trainers shall incorporate some methods of ensuring that the required readings are completed and shall ensure that the current legislation and rules governing mediation are provided to the participants.

Training methodology.

6. The training methodology shall be as follows:

- (1) Pedagogy—Training programmes shall include, but are not limited to the following: lectures, group discussions, written exercises, mediation simulations and role-plays.
- (2) In addition, readings shall be provided by the trainer to supplement the training.
- (3) Written Exercises—written exercises shall include the reducing of a mediation agreement to writing.
- (4) Role-play Requirements—the objective of a role-play is for a participant to develop confidence and experience. Each participant must have an opportunity to mediate in role-play under the observation of a certified trainer or coach as follows:
 - (a) Role-plays—every participant must take part in at least two continuous role-plays, acting as the sole mediator and two continuous role-plays acting as a disputant.
 - (b) Mediation Demonstration—all training programmes shall present a role-play mediation simulation (either live or by video).
 - (c) Class Size—class size shall be limited to thirty participants.

Participant attendance.

7. A training programme shall require participants to complete their training requirements by attending one entire training programme in which the certified trainer is responsible for ensuring that the integrity of each portion of the programme is not compromised and any portion of training missed shall be made up as directed by the trainer. If a participant misses portions of the training programme which compromise the integrity of the programme, the training programme shall require the participant to repeat an entire programme.

Completion of training.

8. In order for a participant to be certified after the completion of a training programme, the trainer shall provide to the Mediation Board at the conclusion of the training, written documentation that the participant has successfully completed the programme and showing—

- (a) the attendance by the participant at the complete training programme;
- (b) completion of all requirements of the training programme; and
- (c) the effective demonstration of the skills necessary to become a mediator.

9. In order to be accredited, each standard mediation training programme shall include the following topics:

Content of standard
mediation
training
programme.

- (a) Conflict Resolution Concepts—
 - (i) that define and understand the difference between non-litigation methods of dispute settlement, including negotiation, mediation and arbitration;
 - (ii) that identify criteria by which parties select a method of dispute settlement for resolving particular disputes and evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of any dispute settlement method;
 - (iii) that assist the participant to understand and demonstrate effective use of basic principles of negotiation and how mediation is an extension of negotiation; and
 - (iv) that contrast mediation with litigation and demonstrate an understanding of the difference in roles of Judges, lawyers, experts, mediators, arbitrators.
- (b) Court Process—
 - (i) explain the consequences of a mediated agreement as well as a failure to reach agreement;

THE COMMUNITY MEDIATION REGULATIONS

AGREEMENT TO PARTICIPATE IN MEDIATION FORM

This Agreement is made between the Community Mediation Services Division and Participant 1.

Participant 2.

We agree to participate in the Mediation process and we have read or had read to us the following terms which we understand and acknowledge and to which we agree.

The Mediator

Mediators are neutrals, who have no interest in the affairs of the participants to the dispute. The role of mediators is to help the participants come to a voluntary resolution of the issues presented for mediation.

The Participants

The parties to the dispute must agree to participate voluntarily in the mediation process and agree to make a sincere effort to reach an agreement and conduct themselves showing mutual respect and consideration for the views, interests and values of each other.

Independent Legal Advice

- (a) The mediators are unable to and will not give the participants any legal advice.
- (b) The participants are encouraged to obtain their own independent legal advice if they so desire, prior to, during or after mediation.

Centre:

Date:/...../.....

Confidentiality

- (a) All communication and information, whether written or oral, arising from or during the mediation, shall be treated by the participants and by the mediator as confidential.

- (b) The participants agree that they will not require the mediator—
 - (i) to testify in Court; or
 - (ii) to submit any report for use in legal proceedings or otherwise disclose any written or oral communication that took place during any mediation session.
- (c) The participants also agree that they will not sue any mediator involved in their mediation, the community mediation centre or the Ministry.
- (d) The mediator shall disclose confidential information when required to do so by Court Order or other judicial authority as provided for in the Act or where the information reveals a potential threat to any person's health or safety.

Conclusion of Mediation

- (a) Each participant may withdraw from the mediation process at any time before the conclusion of the mediation.
- (b) The participants acknowledge that the mediator may end the mediation if the mediator believes that continuation of the mediation would result in harm or prejudice or would not be in the best interest of the participants.
- (c) After the mediation has ended, the participants are free to deal with the dispute in any other way, within the Laws of Trinidad and Tobago, provided that confidentiality as outlined above is maintained.

The participants have read and understood this Agreement or had this Agreement read to them and agree to proceed with the mediation under the terms of this Agreement.
