

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 1—1929.

I ASSENT,

[L.S.]

H. A. BYATT, Governor.

8th March, 1929.

AN ORDINANCE to further and protect the activities and interests of the Girl Guides Association in this Colony.

[8th March, 1929.]

WHEREAS by the Royal Charter of its incorporation granted on the fourteenth day of December, 1922, the Girl Guides Association is inter alia empowered to develop its activities in the British Overseas Dominions ;

And whereas it is expedient to make statutory provision for the more assured exercise of such power and for the better furtherance and protection of the purposes of the said Association in this Colony ;

Be it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Girl Guides Short title. Association Ordinance, 1929.

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance

“The Association” means the Girl Guides Association incorporated under the Royal Charter granted on the fourteenth day of December, 1922.

“Girl Guide” means a Girl Guide recognised as such under the constitution, bye-laws or rules of the Association, and includes also all officers of the Association.

Restriction on use of uniform, &c.,
of the Girl Guides Association.

3. It shall not be lawful for any person, not being under the bye-laws or rules of the Association duly authorised and entitled so to do, publicly to wear, carry, or bear any uniform, badge, token, or emblem which under the said bye-laws or rules is specifically adopted for use under the authority of the Association, in such style or manner as to convey an impression that such person is under the said bye-laws or rules entitled so to wear, carry, or bear such uniform, badge, token or emblem.

Girl Guide not to exercise authority unlawfully.

4. No Girl Guide shall seek or attempt by virtue of her wearing any uniform, badge, token or emblem of the Association, or uniform, badge, token or emblem purporting or appearing to be such, to enforce or exercise authority otherwise than in accordance with and as authorised by the bye-laws or rules of the Association.

No person falsely to claim connection with Girl Guides Association.

5. It shall not be lawful for any person to form, organize, or work in connection with, or be concerned in forming, organizing, or in work in connection with any corps or body which without due authority granted under the Royal Charter of the Association claims or purports to be Girl Guides or otherwise to be connected with the Association or which hold themselves out as, or pass themselves off as, Girl Guides, or as otherwise connected with the Association.

Penalties.

6. Any person contravening any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence, and on summary conviction thereof before a Magistrate shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.
