CHAPTER 82:85

REGISTRATION OF BUSINESS NAMES ACT

1950 Ed.
Ch.31, No. 3.
7 of 1923.

An Act to provide for the registration of firms and persons carrying on business under business names and for purposes connected therewith.

Commencement.

[1ST OCTOBER 1923]

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Registration of Business Names Act.

Interpretation.

2. (1) In this Act—

“business” includes profession;

“business name” means the name or style under which any business is carried on, whether in partnership or otherwise;

“Court” means the High Court or a Judge thereof;

“firm” means an unincorporate body of two or more individuals, or one or more individuals and one or more corporations, or two or more corporations, who have entered into partnership with one another with a view to carrying on business for profit;

“foreign firm” means any firm, individual, or corporation whose principal place of business is situated outside the Commonwealth;

“individual” means a natural person and does not include a corporation;

“initials” includes any recognised abbreviation of a given name;

“Registrar” means the Registrar General;

“showcards” means cards containing or exhibiting articles dealt with, or samples or representations thereof.

(2) References in this Act to a former given name or surname shall not, in the case of any person, include a former given name or surname where that name or surname has been changed or disused before the person bearing the name had attained the age of eighteen years or has been changed or disused for a period of not less than twenty years; and, in the case of a married woman, shall not include the name or surname by which she was known previous to the marriage.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) every firm having a place of business in Trinidad and Tobago and carrying on business under a business name which does not consist of the true surnames of all partners who are individuals and the corporate names of all partners who are corporations without any addition other than the true given names of individual partners or initials of such given names;
- (b) every individual having a place of business in Trinidad and Tobago and carrying on business under a business name which does not consist of his true surname without any addition other than his true given names or the initials thereof;
- (c) every individual or firm having a place of business in Trinidad and Tobago who, or a member of which, has either before or after the commencement of this Act changed his name, except in the case of a woman in consequence of marriage,

Firms and persons to be registered.

shall be registered in the manner directed by this Act.

(2) (a) Where the addition merely indicates that the business is carried on in succession to a former owner of the business, that addition shall not of itself render registration necessary.

(b) Where two or more individual partners have the same surname, the addition of an “s” at the end of that surname shall not of itself render registration necessary.

(c) Where the business is carried on by a trustee in bankruptcy or the Official Receiver or a receiver or manager appointed by the Court, registration shall not be necessary.

(d) A purchase or acquisition of property by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common is not of itself to be deemed carrying on a business whether or not the owners share any profits arising from the sale thereof.

Registrar may remove name of individual or firm from register or amend same.

(3) (a) An individual or firm shall not require to be registered under this Act by reason only of a change of his name, or of the name of a member of the firm, if the change has taken place before the person who has changed his name has attained the age of eighteen years or if not less than twenty years have elapsed since it took place.

(b) Where by virtue of paragraph (a) an individual or firm registered prior to 16th of February 1950 no longer requires to be so registered—

- (i) the Registrar, if so requested by the individual or firm, shall remove him or it from the register; and
- (ii) section 13 shall no longer require the individual or firm to keep exhibited the certificate of registration or a copy thereof, and where, in any other case, the particulars registered prior to the above-mentioned date in respect of any individual or firm include a former name or surname which by virtue of paragraph (a) no longer requires to be included among those particulars, the Registrar, if so requested by the individual or firm, shall amend the particulars by leaving out that name or surname.

Registration by nominee, etc.

4. Where a firm, individual, or corporation having a place of business within Trinidad and Tobago carries on the business wholly or mainly as nominee or trustee of or for another person, or other persons, or another corporation, or acts as general agent for any foreign firm, the first mentioned firm, individual, or corporation shall be registered in manner provided by this Act and, in addition to the other particulars required to be furnished and registered, there shall be furnished and registered the particulars mentioned in the Schedule but where the business is carried on by a trustee in bankruptcy or the Official Receiver or a receiver or manager appointed by the Court, registration under this section shall not be necessary.

Schedule.

5. (1) Every firm or person required under this Act to be registered shall furnish to the Registrar a statement in writing in the prescribed form containing the following particulars:

Manner and particulars of registration.

- (a) the business name;
- (b) the general nature of the business;
- (c) the principal place of the business;
- (d) where the registration to be effected is that of a firm, the present given name and surname, any former given name or surname, the nationality, the usual residence, and the other business occupation (if any) of each of the individuals who are partners, and the corporate name and registered or principal office of every corporation which is a partner;
- (e) where the registration to be effected is that of an individual, the present given name and surname, any former given name or surname, the nationality, the usual residence, and the other business occupation (if any) of such individual;
- (f) where the registration to be effected is that of a corporation, its corporate name and registered or principal office;
- (g) if the business is commenced after the commencement of this Act, the date of the commencement of the business.

(2) Where a business is carried on under two or more business names, each of those business names must be stated.

6. The statement required for the purpose of registration must in the case of an individual be signed by him, and in the case of a corporation by a director or secretary thereof, and in the case of a firm either by all the individuals who are partners, and by a director or the secretary of all corporations which are partners or by some individual who is a partner, or a director or the secretary of some corporation which is a partner, and in either of the last two cases must be verified by a statutory declaration made by the signatory.

Statement to be signed by persons registering.

No such statutory declaration stating that any person other than the declarant is a partner, or omitting to state that any person other than as aforesaid is a partner, shall be evidence for or against any such other person in respect of his liability or non-liability as a partner, and the Court may, on application of any person alleged or claiming to be a partner, direct the rectification of the register and decide any question arising under this section.

Time for registration.

7. (1) The particulars required to be furnished under this Act shall be furnished within fourteen days after the firm or person commences business, or the business in respect of which registration is required, as the case may be.

Change of name.

(2) This section shall apply, in the case where registration is required in consequence of a change of name, as if for references to the date of the commencement of the business there were substituted references to the date of the change.

Registration of changes in firm.

8. Whenever a change is made or occurs in any of the particulars registered in respect of any firm or person, the firm or person shall, within fourteen days after the change, or such longer period as the Registrar may, on application being made in any particular case, whether before or after the expiration of such fourteen days, allow, furnish to the Registrar a statement in writing in the prescribed form specifying the nature and date of the change signed, and where necessary verified, in like manner as the statement required on registration.

Penalty for default in registration.

9. If any firm or person by this Act required to furnish a statement of particulars or of any change in particulars shall without reasonable excuse make default in so doing in the manner and within the time specified by this Act, every partner in the firm or the person so in default is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars for every day during which the default continues, and the Magistrate shall order a statement of the required particulars or change in the particulars to be furnished to the Registrar within such time as may be specified in the order.

10. (1) Where any firm or person by this Act required to furnish a statement of particulars or of any change in particulars has made default in so doing, then the rights of that defaulter under or arising out of any contract made or entered into by or on behalf of the defaulter in relation to the business in respect to the carrying on of which particulars were required to be furnished at any time while he is in default shall not be enforceable by action or other legal proceeding either in the business name or otherwise.

Disability of persons in default.

(2) (a) The defaulter may apply to the Court for relief against the disability imposed by this section, and the Court, on being satisfied that the default was accidental, or due to inadvertence or some other sufficient cause, or that on other grounds it is just and equitable to grant relief, may grant such relief either generally or as respects any particular contracts, on condition of the costs of the application being paid by the defaulter, unless the Court otherwise orders, and on such other conditions (if any) as the Court may impose, but such relief shall not be granted except on such service and such publication of notice of the application as the Court may order, nor shall relief be given in respect of any contract if any party to the contract proves to the satisfaction of the Court that, if this Act had been complied with, he would not have entered into the contract.

(b) Nothing herein contained shall prejudice the rights of any other parties as against the defaulter in respect of such contract as aforesaid.

(c) If any action or proceeding is commenced by any other party against the defaulter to enforce the rights of such party in respect of such contract, nothing herein contained shall preclude the defaulter from enforcing in that action or proceeding, by way of counterclaim, set off, or otherwise, such rights as he may have against that party in respect of the contract.

(3) Without prejudice to the power of the Court to grant such relief as aforesaid, if any proceeding to enforce any contract is commenced by a defaulter in a Petty Civil Court, such last named Court may, as respects that contract, grant such relief as aforesaid.

Penalty for false statements.

11. Where any statement required to be furnished under this Act contains any matter which is false in any material particular to the knowledge of any person signing it, that person is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for three months.

Duty to furnish particulars to Registrar.

12. (1) The Registrar may require any person to furnish to him such particulars as he thinks necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the person or the firm of which he is partner should be registered under this Act, or an alteration made in the registered particulars, and may also, in the case of a corporation, require the secretary, or any other officer of a corporation performing the duties of secretary, to furnish such particulars, and any person who, when so required, fails to supply such particulars as it is in his power to give, or furnishes particulars which are false in any material particular, is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for three months.

(2) Where, from any information so furnished, it appears to the Registrar that any firm or person ought to be registered under this Act, or an alteration ought to be made in the registered particulars, the Registrar may require the firm or person to furnish to him the required particulars within such time as may be allowed by the Registrar, but, where any default under this Act has been discovered from the information acquired under this section, no proceedings under this Act shall be taken against any person in respect of the default prior to the expiration of the time within which the firm or person is required by the Registrar under this section to furnish particulars to him.

Registrar to file statement and issue certificate of registration.

13. On receiving any statement or statutory declaration made in pursuance of this Act, the Registrar shall cause the same to be filed, and he shall send by post or deliver a certificate of the registration thereof to the firm or person registering, and the certificate or a certified copy thereof shall be kept exhibited in a conspicuous position at the principal place of business of the firm or individual, and, if not kept so exhibited, every partner in the firm or the person, as the case may be, is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars.

14. The Registrar shall keep an index of all the firms and persons registered under this Act. Index to be kept.

15. (1) If any firm or individual registered under this Act ceases to carry on business, it shall be the duty of the persons who were partners in the firm at the time when it ceased to carry on business, or of the individual, or, if he is dead, his personal representative, within three months after the business has ceased to be carried on, to deliver to the Registrar notice in the prescribed form that the firm or individual has ceased to carry on business, and any person whose duty it is to give the notice and who fails to do so within such time as aforesaid, is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars. Removal of names from register.

(2) On receipt of the notice as aforesaid the Registrar may remove the firm or individual from the register.

(3) Where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that any firm or individual registered under this Act is not carrying on business, he may send to the firm or individual by registered post a notice that, unless an answer is received to the notice within one month from the date thereof, the firm or individual may be removed from the register.

(4) If the Registrar either receives an answer from the firm or individual to the effect that the firm or individual is not carrying on business, or does not, within one month after sending the notice, receive an answer, he may remove the firm or individual from the register.

16. (1) Where any business name under which the business of a firm or individual is carried on contains the word “Commonwealth” or any other word which, in the opinion of the Registrar, is calculated to lead to the belief that the business is under Commonwealth ownership or control, and the Registrar is satisfied that the nationality of the persons by whom the business is wholly or mainly owned or controlled is at any time such that the name is misleading, the Registrar shall refuse to register the business name, or, as the case may be, remove the business name. Misleading business names.

from the register, but any person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar under this provision may appeal to the Minister, whose decision shall be final.

(2) The registration of a business name under this Act shall not be construed as authorising the use of that name if, apart from the registration, the use thereof could be prohibited.

(3) The power conferred by this section on the Registrar to refuse registration of a business name shall extend to any name which is in his opinion undesirable.

(4) Where registration of a business name is refused under this section, any person carrying on business under that name is liable under section 9 to the same penalties as if he had without reasonable excuse made default in furnishing a statement of particulars with respect to that name.
