- (a) defined by the expression of the characteristics resulting from a given genotype or combination of genotypes;
- (b) distinguished from any other plant grouping by the expression of at least one of the said characteristics; and
- (c) considered as a unit with regard to its suitability for being propagated unchanged.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the Office shall be responsible for all matters concerning the administration of this Act.

PART II

PLANT BREEDER’S RIGHTS

The breeder’s rights.
[18 of 2000].

3. Subject to this section and any other formal requirements of this Act, a right to be known as a plant breeder’s rights shall be granted in respect of plant varieties of those genera or species listed in the Schedule, where the variety is—

- (a) new;
- (b) distinct;
- (c) homogenous;
- (d) stable; and
- (e) given a variety denomination which is acceptable for registration in accordance with section 24.

4. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a variety shall be considered new, where the variety itself has not been offered for sale or marketed with the approval of the breeder or his successor in title—

Novelty.

- (a) in Trinidad and Tobago, for longer than one year before the date on which protection is applied for under this Act; and
- (b) abroad for longer than four years, before the effective national filing date.

(2) In the case of vines, forest trees, fruit trees and ornamental trees, including their root stocks, the fact that the variety itself may have been offered for sale or marketed abroad for up to six years before the effective national filing date, shall not be considered detrimental to its novelty.

(3) It shall not be considered detrimental to the novelty of a variety if that variety has been offered for sale or marketed in the country with the approval of its breeder or his successor in title, for up to four years prior to the inclusion of the genus or species to which the variety belongs in the List of Genera and Species published pursuant to section 8 and for a maximum of six months after such inclusion where the application is filed within that six-month period.

5. (1) The variety is distinct if it is clearly distinguishable from any other variety whose existence is a matter of common knowledge at the time of the filing of the application or where relevant, at the priority date identified under section 21.

Distinctness.

(2) Common knowledge may be established by reference to various factors such as the exploitation of the variety already in progress, grant of a breeder's right in the variety, entry of the variety in a catalogue of varieties admitted to trade or entry in the register of varieties kept by a recognised professional association, or inclusion of the variety in a reference collection.

(3) The filing, in any state, of an application for a breeder's right, or for entry in a catalogue of varieties admitted to trade, shall be deemed to render the variety being the subject of the application a matter of common knowledge from the date of the application, provided that the application leads to the grant of the plant breeder's right or the entry in the catalogue, as the case may be.

Homogeneity.

6. The variety shall be considered homogeneous if its plants show the same expression of the characteristics, subject to the variation which may be expected in view of the particular features of its sexual reproduction, or vegetative propagation.

Stability.

7. The variety is stable if its relevant characteristics remain unchanged after repeated propagation or, in the case of a particular cycle of propagation, at the end of each such cycle.

List of genera and species to which this Act applies.

8. (1) The Minister may by Order, subject to subsection (2), publish a list of those genera and species to which this Act applies and may also amend such list by adding new genera or species to it, modifying the names of the genera or species already published or by deleting such names, with effect from any prospective date specified in the Order.

(2) In compiling the list of genera or species, the Minister may exclude all varieties of that genus or species which are not characterised by a particular manner of reproduction or multiplication or by a certain end-use.

(3) Where a genus or species is deleted from the list of genera and species to which this Act applies with effect from a given date, the deletion shall not affect the rights of applicants who have filed applications for the protection of varieties of that genus or species before that date.

PART III

ENTITLEMENT TO PROTECTION

Right to apply protection.

9. (1) Subject to this Part, the breeder of the variety or his successor in title is entitled to apply for protection under this Act.

(2) The breeder or his successor in title may be a natural or a legal person.

(3) Where two or more persons have bred, or discovered and developed, a variety jointly, entitlement to protection shall vest in them jointly, and subject to any agreement to the contrary between the joint breeders, their shares in the property of the breeder's rights shall be equal.

(4) Where a variety has been bred, or discovered and developed, by several persons independently of each other, the entitlement to apply for the grant of the breeder's right belongs to the person who has first applied for protection or filed an application with an earlier priority date at the Office.

(5) Where a variety has been bred or discovered and developed, in execution of a commission or an employment contract, the entitlement to apply for protection shall belong in the absence of contractual provisions to the contrary, to the person who commissioned the work or to the employer.

10. The applicant shall be considered entitled to protection, in the absence of proof to the contrary, but where the application is made by a successor in title, it shall be accompanied by sufficient proof of succession.

Presumption of title.

11. (1) Where an application is filed by a person who is not entitled to protection, the person entitled, may bring an action before the Court for the assignment of the application to him or if the application is already granted, for the assignment of the plant breeder's right.

Application by person other than owner.

(2) The action shall be statute barred after five years from publication of the grant of the plant breeder's right, save that an action brought against a defendant who has acted in bad faith shall not be subject to any limitation period.

12. (1) An application for the grant of a plant breeder's right may be filed by the owner of the variety who is a—

Persons entitled to file applications.

- (a) national or resident of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) national or resident of a Contracting Party;
- (c) national or resident of any State which, without being a Contracting Party grants reciprocity of treatment to Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), "national" means where the Contracting Party is a State, the nationals of that

State and where the contracting Party is an intergovernmental organisation, the nationals of the States that are members of that organisation.

(3) Any person having neither residence nor registered office in Trinidad and Tobago may be party to an action instituted pursuant to this Act and assert rights deriving therefrom only if he has an agent resident or with an office in the country.

(4) The Agent shall be given the power to act on his principal's behalf before the office and in legal proceedings relating to the protection of new varieties of plant.

(5) For the purpose of instituting legal proceedings by or against any person represented in the manner defined in subsection (3), the place which the Office identifies as the address of the representative, or where there are several representatives, the address of the main representative, or representative first designated, is deemed to be the place where the right in the variety is located.

PART IV

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER OF THE APPLICATION OR OF THE PLANT BREEDER'S RIGHT

Assignment and transfer.

13. (1) An application for the grant of a plant and a plant breeder's right may be assigned or may otherwise be transferred.

(2) The assignment or transfer shall be in writing and shall be signed by the parties.

(3) An assignment or transfer shall be registered in the Register on request and on payment of the prescribed fee.

(4) No assignment or transfer to a successor in title shall have effect against a third party until after such registration.

Joint applicants
of rights.

14. (1) Where there are two or more applicants for the grant of a plant breeder's right or where there are two or more holders of such a right in any protected variety, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, each applicant or holder may separately transfer his shares, or exploit the variety as the case may be, or subject to this Act, exclude others from exploiting it.

(2) In the case of the grant of an exclusive licence however, the holders of the plant breeder's licence may only jointly grant an exclusive licence to a third party to exploit the variety.

PART V

SCOPE AND DURATION OF THE BREEDER'S RIGHT

15. (1) The effect of the plant breeder's right is that the prior authorisation of the holder of that right shall be required for— Scope of the breeder's right.

- (a) the production for purposes of commercial marketing;
- (b) the offering for sale; or
- (c) the marketing, of the reproductive or vegetative propagating material, as such, of the variety.

(2) In the case of an ornamental variety, prior authorisation of the holder of that right shall also be required where plants of the protected variety or parts thereof, normally marketed for purposes other than propagation, are used commercially as propagating material in the production of ornamental plants or cut flowers of that variety.

(3) Authorisation by the holder of the plant breeder's right shall not be required for the utilisation of the variety protected by that right, as an initial source of variation for the purpose of creating other varieties or for the marketing of such other varieties, but shall, however, be required when the repeated use of the variety protected by a plant breeder's right is necessary for the commercial production of another variety.

16. (1) The holder of a plant breeder's right shall be under an obligation to provide the Office with propagating material capable of producing plants which correspond to the characteristics defined for the variety when the right was granted, throughout the period for which the right is exercisable. Maintenance of propagating material.

(2) The holder of a plant breeder's right shall also provide the Office with all such information and assistance as the Office may request for the purpose of ensuring that the holder of the plant breeder's right is fulfilling his obligations under subsection (1), including facilities for the inspection by or on behalf of the Office of the measures taken for the maintenance of the variety.

protection.

17. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the plant breeder's right shall expire at the end of the eighteenth calendar year following the grant thereof, in respect of vines, forest trees, fruit trees and ornamental trees including in each case, their rootstocks.

(2) Protection for all other genera or species shall expire at the end of the fifteenth year following the grant thereof.

(3) Where in the cases under section 4(3), the variety has already been offered for sale or marketed in Trinidad and Tobago for a period of more than one year before the date of the filing of the application, the duration of the protection shall be reduced by the number of full years minus one year that have elapsed since the beginning of the offering for sale or the marketing, with the approval of the breeder or his successor in title, before the filing of the application.

Renewal fees.

18. The holder shall pay an annual fee for the whole period of protection which fee shall fall due at the beginning of the calendar year to which it relates and shall be payable by 31st January of each year.

PART VI

TERMINATION, ANNULMENT AND FORFEITURE

Termination of protection;
annulment and forfeiture of rights.
[18 of 2000].

19. (1) The plant breeder's right shall terminate before the term expires where the holder of that right renounces it by written declaration addressed to the Office. The date of termination shall be that specified in the declaration or, if none is specified, the date on which the declaration is received by the Office.

(2) The Controller shall declare a plant breeder's right null and void at the request of any person, where it is established that—

- (a) the variety is not new or distinct within the meaning of, and on applicable dates referred to in sections 4 and 5; or
- (b) the holder of the right is not the owner of the variety.

(3) The request for the annulment of the plant breeder's right shall be addressed to the Office save, however, that where the prescribed fee is not paid within three months after the request has been filed, that request shall be deemed never to have been filed.

(4) The Controller shall declare the plant breeder's right forfeit where the holder of the right—

- (a) is no longer in a position to provide the Office on request with the propagating material capable of producing plants which correspond to the characteristics defined for the variety when the right was granted;
- (b) does not fulfil his obligation under section 16; and
- (c) does not pay the renewal fee that is due, having been reminded to do so by the Office, and after three months have elapsed since the date of the reminder.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the Court against any decision of the Office under this section.

(6) A licence agreement made under this Act, becomes ineffective if the plant breeder's right under which it was granted is declared null and void or forfeit, save however, that no payment of any royalty which was due before the date of annulment or forfeiture can be demanded by the licensee in view of that annulment or forfeiture.

PART VII

PROCEDURES BEFORE THE OFFICE

20. (1) An applicant for the protection of a variety shall file Application. an application with the Office in the prescribed form and the application fee shall be paid at the same time.

(2) The application form shall be accompanied by the technical questionnaire in the prescribed form, for the relevant genus or species, which shall be completed by the applicant to the best of his knowledge.

(3) At the request of the Office, the applicant shall submit the amount of propagating material determined by it, on the date and at the place fixed by the Office.

(4) Every application received by the Office and completed in accordance with this section, shall be published in a periodical, including the date of filing, the name and address of the applicant and the original breeder, the variety denomination proposed under section 24 and the main characteristics of the variety as indicated in the application.

(5) The rejection or withdrawal of an application shall also be published in a periodical.

Priority.

21. (1) The applicant may avail himself of the priority of an earlier application (hereinafter referred to as the “right of priority”) that has been duly filed for the same variety, by himself or by his predecessor in title, with the Authority of a Contracting Party.

(2) Where the application filed with the Office is preceded by several applications, priority may be based only on the earliest application.

(3) The right of priority shall be expressly claimed in the application filed with the Office and may only be claimed within a period of twelve months from the date of filing of the earliest application, but the day of filing shall not be included in the said period.

Documents and material to be furnished for priority.

22. (1) In order to avail himself of the right of priority, the applicant shall submit to the Office, within three months from filing the application in Trinidad and Tobago, a copy of the documents that constitute the earlier application, certified to be a true copy by the Authority with which that application was filed.

(2) The Office may request that a translation of the earlier application, be produced within three months from the date of receipt of the request.

(3) The effect of the right of priority shall be that, with respect to the conditions of protection attached to the variety, the application shall be deemed to have been filed at the date of the filing of the earlier application.

(4) The applicant shall be entitled to declare that he will submit the material mentioned in section 20(3) or any additional documents required by the Office at a later date, but no later than four years after the end of the priority period, unless the earlier application mentioned in subsection (1), has been withdrawn in the country in which it was filed or has been rejected there.

(5) If any of the provisions of this section are not complied with, the application shall be dealt with as if no priority had been claimed.

23. Every application and all other supporting documents shall be submitted in the English language. Application to be in English.

PART VIII

VARIETY DENOMINATION

24. (1) The applicant for a plant breeder's right must, within three months after the filing of the application, propose in accordance with subsection (4), a variety denomination, which should be made on the form issued by the Office for that purpose. Application and procedure for variety denomination.

(2) A variety denomination may consist of one word, combination of words subject to a maximum of three, combination of words and figures, of words and letters or of letters and figures, but shall not consist wholly of figures save, however, that in a word/figure combination, the figures shall have a meaning in relation to the words.

(3) No person shall use as a variety denomination a designation which—

- (a) does not enable the variety to be identified;
- (b) is liable to mislead a person of average attentiveness or to cause confusion concerning the origin, derivation, characteristics, value or identity of the variety, or the identity of the breeder;
- (c) is identical or can be confused with a variety denomination which in the country or in another State party to the Convention designates an existing variety of the same or of a related botanical species, save however, that the denomination is admissible, if the other variety is not registered and has not been grown for some considerable time;

- (d) is identical or can be confused with a designation in which a third party enjoys a prior right which would prohibit the use of the designation as a variety denomination;
- (e) is contrary to public policy or morality;
- (f) refers solely to attributes which are also common in other varieties of the species concerned;
- (g) consists of a botanical or common name of a genus or species, or includes such a name, where this is likely to mislead or cause confusion;
- (h) suggests that the variety is derived from or related to another variety when this is not the case;
- (i) includes words such as “variety”, “cultivar”, “form”, “hybrid”, “cross” or translation of such words;
- (j) is, for reasons other than those mentioned above, not suitable as a generic designation of the variety.

(4) Where a variety is already protected by a contracting party or where an application for the protection of the same variety is filed in such State, only the variety denomination which has been proposed or registered in that other State, may be proposed and registered and the Controller shall not register any other designation as a denomination for the variety, save however, that where the variety denomination used in the other State is inappropriate for linguistic reasons, or for any of the reasons mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the applicant may be requested to propose another variety denomination.

Publication.

25. The Controller shall publish in a periodical the variety denominations which have been proposed to it or registered or cancelled by it.

26. (1) Any person who offers for sale or markets propagating material of a variety protected in Trinidad and Tobago shall, even after the expiration of the protection, use the registered variety denomination in so far as prior rights do not prevent such use.

Use of the
denomination.

(2) When a protected variety is offered for sale or marketed, a trade mark, trade name or other similar indication may be associated with the registered variety denomination provided that the denomination is easily recognisable.

(3) The holder of a plant breeder's right may not invoke any trade mark, trade name or other right in his possession against a variety denomination legitimately used in the offering for sale or marketing of the variety by another person, even after the expiration of the protection.

27. Prior rights of third parties in a designation are not affected by this Act.

Prior rights of third parties.

28. (1) The Controller shall cancel any registered variety denomination at the request of—

Cancellation of
variety
denomination.

- (a) any person or on his own initiative, if the denomination should not have been registered or if subsequently, facts become known which would have justified the rejection of the denomination;
- (b) the holder of the plant breeder's right or of a third person, if a final Court decision is delivered according to which the variety denomination must be cancelled or if it is established that a third-party right exists in the denomination and the holder of the plant breeder's right agrees to the cancellation;
- (c) a person who is obliged to use the variety denomination under section 26(1), if he is prohibited by a final Court decision from using that denomination, provided that the holder of the plant breeder's right had participated or had been given the possibility to participate in the Court proceedings.

(2) In the case of the cancellation of the variety denomination, the Office shall request the holder of a plant breeder's right to submit, within an appropriate period fixed by it, a proposal for a new variety denomination, which shall be registered if it is considered admissible for that Office but where the proposal is not acceptable, the request for submission shall be repeated.

(3) The Office shall establish, at the request of the holder or a third person, a provisional variety denomination where the holder or the third person demonstrates a legitimate interest.

(4) Where, after the period for submitting a proposal for a new variety denomination has expired, the holder of the plant breeder's right has not submitted the requested proposal, the Office may establish on its own initiative, a provisional variety or permanent variety denomination.

Filing date.

29. The filing date of the application is fixed by the Office as the day on which the application form and the technical questionnaire, duly completed, are received.

PART IX

EXAMINATION OF THE APPLICATION

Formal examination of application; consequences of defects.

30. (1) The Controller shall examine whether the application and its supporting documents contain all indications required under this Act and whether the required amount of propagating material has been submitted on the due date and at the proper place.

(2) Where any of the requirements under subsection (1) has not been complied with, the application for the grant of a plant breeder's right shall be rejected, unless the Controller grants to the applicant a further period to complete the application or to submit the propagating material, but no such further period may be granted which will expire later than three months after the application date or the date fixed for submission of the material as the case may be.

Examination of novelty, distinctness, homogeneity and stability.

31. (1) The Controller shall examine the variety to determine whether it fulfills the conditions of novelty and where that condition is not fulfilled, the Controller shall reject the application.

(2) The Controller shall invite the applicant, on a date fixed by him before the beginning of each year or testing period, to pay the prescribed fee for that year or testing period and failure to do so, shall cause the application to be rejected.

(3) The Controller shall, after having received the testing fee for the first year or for the first testing period, examine whether the variety fulfills the conditions of distinctness, homogeneity and stability.

(4) Where the Controller determines that it is expedient to do so, he may arrange to have the examination done by another national or foreign governmental authority and shall base his decision on the results of that examination.

(5) The Controller may treat examination results obtained from, and expert opinions given by foreign governmental institutions, as results obtained from and opinions given by the Controller himself.

(6) Subject to section 22(4), the Controller may where necessary for the examination, request the applicant to submit additional material or documents within the period fixed by the Controller and where the applicant fails to do so, without giving valid reasons for such failure, the application shall be rejected.

(7) Where the examination shows that the application satisfies the conditions of novelty, distinctness, homogeneity and stability and that the proposed denomination of the variety can be registered, the Controller shall grant a plant breeder's right.

(8) Where the examination shows that the variety is neither distinct, homogenous nor stable, the Controller shall reject the application.

(9) Where the examination shows that the proposed denomination of the variety cannot be registered, the Controller shall request the applicant to submit another denomination within a period fixed by him, failing which the application shall be rejected.

(10) Where the decision to grant a plant breeder's right or to reject an application is made, such decision shall be published in a periodical.

PART X

OPPOSITION

32. (1) Within three months after the date of publication in a periodical any person may file an opposition against the grant of the right on payment of the prescribed fee. Opposition.

(2) The opposition shall be based on the following grounds, namely that:

- (a) the applicant is not the owner of the variety;
- (b) the variety is not new or distinct at the pertinent dates in accordance with sections 4, 5 and 22(3);
- (c) it is neither homogenous nor stable;
- (d) the variety denomination that the office intends to register is inadmissible.

(3) Where the opposition is justified the decision that a plant breeder's right is to be granted shall, subject to subsection (5), be revoked and the application rejected.

(4) Where the opposition is not justified, it shall be rejected.

(5) Where the opposition based on the claim that the variety denomination is inadmissible is justified, the Controller shall revoke the decision that a plant breeder's right is to be granted and reopen the granting procedure by requesting the applicant to submit another denomination, failing which the application shall be rejected.

(6) Where no opposition is filed within a period mentioned in subsection (1) or if all oppositions filed within that period have been rejected, the Controller shall grant the plant breeder's right and register the variety denomination.

(7) The grant of a plant breeder's right shall be published in a periodical.

PART XI

PROCEDURE IN CASES OF REQUESTS FOR ANNULMENT AND FORFEITURE

Procedure in cases of requests for annulment.

33. (1) A request for annulment of a plant breeder's right may be filed by any person and shall not be deemed to have been filed unless the fee prescribed is paid.

(2) A request shall be filed in a written reasoned statement and it may be filed even after the plant breeder's right has expired.

(3) The request may not be filed during the period within which an appeal may still be made against the grant of the plant breeder's right or while proceedings on such appeal are still pending before the Court.

(4) The Controller shall declare the request inadmissible if it is not accompanied by a reasoned statement, or if it was filed during the period within which an appeal could still be made against the grant of the plant breeder's right, or while proceedings on such an appeal are still pending before the Court.

(5) If the request is admissible, the Controller shall hear the holder of the plant breeder's right and may obtain any other evidence and shall conduct the hearing on his own initiative; he shall continue the hearing if the request for the annulment is withdrawn.

(6) If the Controller finds that the request is not justified, he shall reject it.

(7) Where the Controller finds that the request is justified, he shall declare the plant breeder's right null and void.

(8) An appeal shall lie to the Court against any decision taken under this section.

34. (1) Proceedings for forfeiture of a plant breeder's right shall be initiated by the Controller on his own initiative if the condition under section 19(4)(a) is fulfilled or may be initiated by the Controller or a third person if any of the conditions under section 19(4)(b) and (c) is fulfilled.

Procedure for forfeiture of a plant breeder's right.

(2) A request shall not be necessary for the commencement of such proceedings but where any such request is filed, the Controller shall treat it as a suggestion to initiate official proceedings.
