

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 20—1909.

6th December

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Marriage Ordinance
No. 59.

[L.S.]

GEORGE R. LE HUNTE,

GOVERNOR.

9th December, 1909.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Marriage Ordinance 1909. Short title

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Marriage Ordinance No. 59, in any case in which one of the parties to an intended marriage is not resident in the Colony, it shall be lawful for the Governor, after notice under Section 10 of the said Ordinance has been given to the District Registrar of the district within which one of the parties to the intended marriage shall have dwelt for not less than seven clear days then next preceding, and subject to the restrictions hereinafter mentioned, at any time by license under his hand to authorize the District Registrar to issue a certificate under Section 12 of the said Ordinance.

License where one party to marriage not resident in the Colony.

Application for license.

3. Any person desiring to obtain such a license shall apply to the Colonial Secretary therefor at least two clear days before the license is required. The application shall state

- (a.) the Christian or other names and surnames of the parties, their respective rank, profession or occupation ;
- (b.) the licensed building in which the marriage is to be solemnized ;
- (c.) whether the parties or either of them have or has been previously married ;
- (d.) that no impediment of kindred or alliance or other lawful cause to prevent the proposed marriage is known to the applicant ;
- (e.) that one of the said parties has for the space of seven clear days immediately preceding the date of the application, had his or her usual place of abode within the Colony ;
- (f.) where either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, is under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the person or persons whose consent to such marriage is required under the Marriage Ordinance No. 59 has been obtained.

The application shall be signed by one of the parties to the intended marriage and shall be accompanied by a Statutory declaration to be made before the Registrar of Marriages in the form in the Schedule hereto.

Passed in Council this Sixth day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine.

HARRY L. KNAGGS,
Clerk of the Council.

SCHEDULE.
