offence, in his possession or under his control at the said place;

(b) the proceedings before the Magistrate for determining whether the same is or is not liable to forfeiture shall be commenced as soon as practicable after the seizure;

(c) the receptacles containing the same may be seized, detained, and removed in like manner as the contents thereof;

(d) the officer or constable seizing the same may use, for the purposes of the removal and detention thereof, any vessel or vehicle in which the same was seized, and any tug, tender, engine, tackle, beasts, and accoutrements belonging to or drawing, or provided for drawing, such vessel or vehicle, and shall pay to the owner a reasonable compensation for such use, to be determined in case of dispute, by a Magistrate, and to be recovered in like manner as any penalty under this Ordinance;

(e) the same shall, so far as practicable, be kept and conveyed in accordance with this Ordinance, and with all due precaution to prevent accidents, but the person seizing, removing, detaining, keeping, or conveying the same shall not be liable to any penalty, punishment, or forfeiture under this or any other Ordinance, or to any damages for keeping or conveying the same, so that he uses all such due precautions as aforesaid; and

(f) the officer or constable seizing or dealing with the same in pursuance of this section shall not be liable to damages or otherwise in respect of such seizure or dealing or any act incidental to or consequential thereon, unless it is proved that he made such seizure without reasonable cause or that he caused damage to the article seized by some wilful neglect or default.
