occupied therewith, then, unless the Magistrate is satisfied that such person was an inmate, servant, or bona fide friend entertained at the expense of the licensed occupier, or a bona fide traveller, or that otherwise his presence was not in contravention of the provisions as aforesaid, the holder of the licence shall incur a penalty of twenty pounds, and the person so found shall incur a penalty of five pounds. The expression traveller in this Ordinance does not include any person who when so found is less than three miles distant by the nearest public thoroughfare from the place where he lodged the previous night."

Name and address of person found to be given to constable.

3. The following section shall be inserted as section 10B in the Principal Ordinance:—

"10B. Any constable may demand the name and address of any person found on any licensed premises during the period during which they are required to be closed, and, if he has reasonable ground to suppose that the name or address given is false, may require evidence of the correctness of such name and address, and may, if such person fail upon such demand to give his name or address, or evidence of the correctness of the name or address so given, apprehend him without warrant, and carry him as soon as practicable before a Magistrate. Any person required by a constable under this section to give his name and address, who fails to give the same, or gives a false name or address, or gives false evidence with respect to such name or address, shall incur a penalty of five pounds."

Penalty for false representation as traveller.

4. The following section shall be inserted as section 10c in the Principal Ordinance:—

"10c. Every person who by falsely representing himself to be a traveller, buys or obtains, or attempts to buy or obtain, at any licensed premises any intoxicating liquor during the period during which such premises are or should be closed, shall incur a penalty of five pounds."

5. The following section shall be inserted as section 10D in the Principal Ordinance :—

“ 10D. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinbefore contained, it shall be lawful for the Governor in his discretion on the joint recommendation of the Collector and the Inspector-General, to authorise by notice in the Royal Gazette, the extension by one hour of the time during which any licensed premises mentioned in such notice may be kept open for the sale of intoxicating liquor. Such extension shall be granted when the Governor is satisfied that the same will be for the general public convenience, and will not injuriously affect public order.”

The Governor
may extend opening hours
of liquor premises.

Passed in Council this eighth day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

J. O'CONNOR,
Clerk of the Council.
