38. The superannuation benefits which have accrued to a person who exercises the option under section 36(2)(b) shall be preserved at the date of his employment by Trinidad and Tobago Post, and such person shall continue to accrue superannuation benefits under the Pensions Act up to the date of the establishment of the pension fund plan on the basis of salary applicable to the office which he held immediately prior to his employment by Trinidad and Tobago Post under section 36.

Ch. 23:52.

39. (1) Where an employee of Trinidad and Tobago Post who exercises the option referred to in section 36(2)(b), dies or retires prior to the establishment of the pension fund plan, and at the date of death or retirement was in receipt of a salary higher than that referred to in section 38, the superannuation benefits payable to his estate or him shall be based on the higher salary.

Payment of superannuation benefits by Trinidad and Tobago Post prior to the establishment of the pension fund plan.

(2) The difference between the superannuation benefits payable on the basis of the higher salary and those payable under the Pensions Act on the basis of the salary referred to in section 38, shall be paid by Trinidad and Tobago Post.

Ch. 23:52.

40. (1) Where an employee of Trinidad and Tobago Post who exercises the option referred to in section 36(2)(b) retires or dies and is a member of the pension fund plan, he shall be paid superannuation benefits by the pension fund plan at the amount which when combined with the superannuation benefits payable under section 38 is the equivalent to the benefits based on his pensionable service in the Public Service combined with his service in Trinidad and Tobago Post and calculated at the pensionable salary applicable to him on the date of his retirement or death.

Payment of superannuation benefits by pension fund plan.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), “pensionable salary” has the meaning given to it by the pension fund plan.

PART VII

POSTAL MATTERS GENERALLY

41. For the purposes of this Part a postal article—

Interpretation.

- (a) is deemed to have been posted when, for the purpose of being conveyed or delivered by Trinidad and Tobago Post, it is put into a post office letter box belonging to Trinidad and Tobago Post, delivered at a post office or accepted for the purpose of being conveyed by post by an employee of Trinidad and Tobago Post in the course of that person’s duty or authority; and
- (b) shall be deemed to be delivered to the addressee when it is delivered by Trinidad and Tobago Post at the address as indicated on the postal article or at another address as the addressee may advise Trinidad and Tobago Post in writing.

Post office letter boxes.

42. (1) Subject to subsection (2), Trinidad and Tobago Post may erect and maintain post office letter boxes in any building, public thoroughfare or public place.

(2) A post office letter box shall be placed so as not to interfere with the flow of ordinary traffic.

Liability of sender.

43. The sender of a postal article is liable to Trinidad and Tobago Post for damage or injury incurred by an employee of Trinidad and Tobago Post as a result of the dangerous nature or inadequate packing of a postal article.

Liability of Trinidad and Tobago Post.

44. Subject to any Regulation made under section 63, Trinidad and Tobago Post is liable for any act or omission by the Board, its agents and employees resulting in loss, delay or destruction of a postal article.

Insufficient postage.

45. Where the sender of a postal article fails to pay the required rate of postage for the transmission of the postal article by Trinidad and Tobago Post, Trinidad and Tobago Post may return the postal article to the sender for the postage prescribed for non-prepayment or insufficient prepayment of the postal article where the required postage is not paid by the addressee.

Obligation to pass on postal article.

46. (1) Where a postal article has not been delivered to the addressee but comes into possession of a person other than the addressee, that person shall return it to Trinidad and Tobago Post for delivery.

(2) A person who knowingly fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

47. A person who without reasonable cause or excuse opens or causes to be opened any postal article which is not addressed to that person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of six months.

48. (1) Every employee or agent of Trinidad and Tobago Post who divulges to any person, except so far as is lawfully permitted, any information from or as to the contents of a postal article that comes to his knowledge in the course of duty, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of twelve months.

Wrongful
contents.

(2) A person, other than an employee or agent of Trinidad and Tobago Post acting in the course of his duty who, having examined the contents of a postal article not intended for him, divulges without good and sufficient cause to any other person information obtained as a consequence of an examination of contents of the postal article, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of six months.

49. A person who posts or causes to be posted any postal article containing any noxious substance or thing including a dead animal or filth, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of four years.

Posting of
thing.

50. A person who posts or causes to be posted any article containing any indecent material or representation of any kind, any material contrary to the Customs Act or any protected flora or fauna, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of six months.

Posting of indecent articles.
Ch. 78:01.

51. (1) A person who posts or causes to be posted, any postal article containing any dangerous enclosure commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of twelve months.

Posting of
enclosure.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) applies to poisons or other materials or substances when sent and packed in accordance with conditions acceptable to Trinidad and Tobago Post.

(3) The detention in Trinidad and Tobago Post of any postal article on the ground of its being in contravention of this section shall not exempt the sender thereof from any proceedings which might have been taken if the postal article had been delivered in due course.

Recording of incorrect time and place of posting.

52. (1) A person who falsely marks any postal article so as to lead any person to believe that it was posted at a time or place other than the time at which or place from which it was in fact posted, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of six months.

(2) For the purpose of this section, “falsely mark any postal article” means failure to comply with any Regulations made under section 63 with respect to the handling of post.

Tampering with mail.

53. (1) A person who is in charge of any vehicle or vessel, including an aircraft, who—

(a) opens a sealed mail bag with which he is entrusted for carriage; or

(b) takes out of a mail bag with which he is entrusted for carriage, any postal article or thing, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of two years.

(2) For the purposes of this section, “mail bag” includes a bag, box, parcel, container or any other envelope or covering in which postal articles in the course of transmission by post are conveyed, whether it does or does not contain those articles.

Using cancelled postage stamps.

54. Any person who uses or causes to be used in prepayment of postage, any postage, any postage stamp, postal card or stamped envelope or any stamp taken from any postal article which has already been used commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of three months.

Postal franking machine.

55. (1) Trinidad and Tobago Post may grant a licence to a person to use a postal franking machine on such terms and conditions as it sees fit.

(2) A person who uses a postal franking machine without a licence or breaches the Post Office Regulations or Regulations made under section 63 with respect to postal franking machines commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and imprisonment for a term of two years.

56. (1) No person shall engage in the sale, rental, lease or any other commercial transaction with respect to post office letter boxes, unless such person is licensed to do so by Trinidad and Tobago Post. Prohibition on use of post office letter boxes.

(2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of two years.

57. Without prejudice to the right of an aggrieved person to apply to the High Court for a determination of the matter, where a question arises as to whether or not a postal article is a letter for the purposes of this Act or that part of the Post Office Act in force by virtue of section 60(1), the decision of Trinidad and Tobago Post shall be final. Decision as to nature of postal article.
Ch. 47:01.

58. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other enactment, an information shall not be laid in respect of an offence under this Act after three years from the time when the matter of the information arose. Limitation period.

59. The postage or other charges imposed by Trinidad and Tobago Post under this Act may be sued for and recovered in civil proceedings in the Petty Civil Court notwithstanding that the amount to be recovered exceeds the normal monetary limit on the jurisdiction of the Magistrates' Court. Recovery of charges of underpaid postal article.
