Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Minister of Finance (Incorporation) Act.

Interpretation. 2. In this Act—
“Corporation” means the corporation sole established under section 3;
“Minister” means the Minister to whom responsibility for Finance is assigned.

(2) Upon and by virtue of the appointment of any person to be Minister, the benefit of all Deeds, contracts, bonds, securities or things in action vested in his predecessor at the time of his predecessor ceasing to hold office shall be transferred to and vested in and enured for the benefit of the person so appointed in the same manner as if he had been contracted with instead of his predecessor and as if his name had been inserted in all such Deeds, contracts, bonds or securities instead of the name of his predecessor.

Ch. 8:02. (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the State Liability and Proceedings Act, the Minister may sue or be sued in his corporate capacity but only with respect to any real or personal property for the time being vested in him.

Seal of Corporation. 4. (1) The Corporation shall have a seal which shall be kept in the custody of the Minister and shall be judicially noticed as such.

(2) The seal of the Corporation may be affixed to documents and instruments in the presence of the Minister and shall be attested by the signature of the Minister; and the signature shall be sufficient evidence that the seal was duly and properly affixed and is the lawful seal of the Corporation.

(3) All documents, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and all decisions of, the Corporation may be signified under the hand of the Minister.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act and the Real Property Act relating to the matters thereunder required to be performed and to the mode of their performance prior to the registration of a Deed, document or other instrument, the affixing of the seal of the Corporation and the signing by the Minister in the manner set out in subsection (2) shall be, and shall be taken as, sufficient evidence for the purposes of those Acts of the due execution by the Corporation of any Deed, document or other instrument.

5. (1) The office of the Corporation shall be situated at the office of the Minister in the Ministry of Finance in the City of Port-of-Spain.

 - (b) all the rights and privileges and advantages and all the liabilities and obligations that the Government was entitled or subject to, as the case may be, in relation to all the land and other property referred to in paragraph (a) shall be transferred to and conferred or imposed upon the Corporation for the purposes of this Act.

(2) For the purpose of the transfer of any shares vested in the Corporation under subsection (1), nothing in sections 65 to 68 of the former Companies Ordinance repealed and replaced by the Companies Act, 1995 shall apply, and, notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary, the companies referred to in Part II of the Schedule shall, within three months of the commencement of this Act, effect the transfer to the Corporation of all shares specified in Part II of the Schedule held by the State and by all persons on behalf of the State, in accordance with the directions of the Minister.

 - (ii) for any references (however worded whether expressed or implied) to the Government there was substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the commencement of this Act, a reference to the Corporation;
- (b) any judgment or award obtained by or against the Government not fully satisfied before the commencement of this Act is enforceable by or against the Corporation.
