CHAPTER 6:02

JUDGES SALARIES AND PENSIONS ACT

4 of 1965. An Act to provide for the salaries, pensions and other conditions of service of Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature.

Commencement. *[31ST AUGUST 1962]

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Judges Salaries and Pensions Act.

Application. 2. This Act applies to the office of Judge.

Interpretation. 3. (1) In this Act—
 “the Commission” means the Judicial and Legal Service Commission established by the Constitution;
 “Court of Appeal” means the Court of Appeal established by the Constitution;
 “High Court” means the High Court established by the Constitution;
 “Judge” means a Judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal and includes the Chief Justice;
 “pensionable emoluments” means the salary paid to a Judge in respect of his substantive office;
 “pensionable service” means service which is pensionable under the Pensions Act;

Ch. 23:52.

(2) Where a Judge has pensionable service, his period of service as a Judge is, for the purposes of the Pensions Act, deemed to be other public service within the meaning of that Act.

*This Act is deemed to have come into operation on 31st August 1962 by section 1(2) as originally enacted.

PART II

SALARIES OF JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE

4. There shall be paid to the Chief Justice of Trinidad and Tobago, to every Judge of the Court of Appeal and to every Judge of the High Court the salaries specified in the Schedule.

Salaries of Judges.

Schedule.

PART III

PENSIONS

5. (1) There shall be paid to a person on his retirement from an office to which this Act applies a pension and gratuity in accordance with this Act.

Pensions.

(2) A person, who in accordance with the Constitution, is removed from an office to which this Act applies for inability, arising from infirmity of mind or body, to perform the functions of his office is deemed to have retired from that office.

(3) A person, who in accordance with the Constitution, is removed from an office to which this Act applies for any cause other than inability, arising from infirmity of mind or body, to perform the functions of his office may be granted such pension and gratuity not exceeding one-half of the pension and gratuity to which he would have been entitled had he retired from such office, as the Commission may decide.

6. (1) Subject to this section, the pension that shall be paid to a person who retires from an office to which this Act applies shall be an amount not less than forty-four and a half per cent and not more than eighty-five per cent of the annual pensionable emoluments drawn by him at the date of his retirement.

Minimum and maximum
pensions.
[43 of 1976].

(2) Where a Judge has pensionable service, the amount of pension granted under this Act shall not, when added to the amount of any pension or pensions drawn by him in respect of that pensionable service, exceed eighty-five per cent of the annual pensionable emoluments drawn by him at the date of his retirement.

(3) For the purposes of this section, where a person receives both a gratuity and a pension in respect of the same period of pensionable service or service as a Judge, the amount of such pension is deemed to be four-thirds of its actual amount.

Rate of pension payable to the Chief Justice. [43 of 1976].

7. A person who at any time retires from the office of Chief Justice shall be granted a pension at the rate of the full amount of his pensionable emoluments.

Rate of pension payable to Judges, other than the Chief Justice.

8. A person who at any time retires from an office to which this Act applies, other than the office of Chief Justice, shall be granted in respect of his service as a Judge a pension which is the aggregate of one-third of his pensionable emoluments and one-three hundred and sixtieth of his pensionable emoluments in respect of each completed month of service as such.

Computation of pensions.

9. For the purpose of computing the amount of pension of a Judge, other than the Chief Justice, the full period during which he held the office of Judge shall be taken into account.

Gratuity on death of Judge.

10. Where a Judge dies, there shall be granted to his legal personal representative a gratuity of an amount equal to the total of the gratuities which would have been payable to that Judge in respect of his pensionable service, if any, and in respect of his service as a Judge if he had retired at the date of his death.

Gratuity and reduced pension.

11. (1) A person to whom a pension is payable under this Act shall if he has exercised his option as herein provided, but not otherwise, be paid in lieu of such pension at the rate of three-fourths of such pension together with a gratuity equal to twelve and a half times the amount of the annual reduction so made in the pension.

(2) The option referred to in subsection (1) shall be exercisable, and if it has been exercised, may be revoked, not later than the day immediately preceding the date of such person's retirement; but the Commission may, if it appears equitable to do so, allow him to exercise the option or revoke an option previously exercised at any time between that date and the actual date of the first payment of any pension under this Act.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), if such person has exercised the option referred to in subsection (1), his decision shall be irrevocable so far as concerns any pension paid to him under this Act.

(4) If a person who has not exercised the option dies after he has retired but before a pension has been paid under this Act, there shall be granted to his legal personal representative a gratuity and a reduced pension as provided for in subsection (1) as if such person before his death had exercised the option therein referred to, so however, that such pension shall not be paid in respect of any period later than the date of the death of such person and shall not exceed in the aggregate the total amount due and payable to him on the said date.

(5) The date of the exercise of the option by such person shall be deemed to be the date of the receipt of his written notification addressed to the Chairman of the Commission.

12. (1) Where a person dies while he is entitled to receive a pension in respect of his service as Chief Justice and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid a pension at an annual rate equivalent to two-thirds of the pension payable to him at the date of his death or a monthly pension in the sum of three thousand dollars, whichever is the greater.

Widow of Chief Justice.
[43 of 1976
17 of 2007
30 of 2007
1 of 2009
13 of 2010].

(2) Where a person dies while holding the office of Chief Justice and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid—

- (a) a gratuity of an amount equivalent to twelve and a half times one-quarter of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death; and
- (b) a pension at an annual rate equivalent to one-half of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death or a monthly pension in the sum of three thousand dollars, whichever is the greater.

(3) A widow shall not be entitled to receive and shall not be paid a pension under this section in respect of any period after her remarriage.

(4) Where a person dies while holding the office of Chief Justice and he does not leave a widow, a gratuity equivalent to twelve and a half times one-quarter of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death shall be paid to the legal personal representatives on account of the deceased person's estate.

(5) In this section a reference to "widow" includes a reference to "widower".

Widow of Judge.
[43 of 1976
17 of 2007
30 of 2007
1 of 2009
13 of 2010].

13. (1) Where a person dies while he is entitled to a pension in respect of his service as a Judge and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid a pension at an annual rate equivalent to one-half of the pension payable to him at the date of his death or a monthly pension in the sum of three thousand dollars, whichever is the greater.

(2) Where a person dies while holding the office of a Judge and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid—

- (a) a gratuity of an amount equivalent to twelve and a half times one-sixth of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death; and
- (b) a pension at an annual rate equivalent to one-quarter of the pensionable emoluments payable to him at the date of his death or a monthly pension in the sum of three thousand dollars, whichever is the greater.

(3) A widow shall not be entitled to receive and shall not be paid a pension under this section in respect of any period after her remarriage.

(4) Where a person dies while holding the office of a Judge and he does not leave a widow, a gratuity of an amount equivalent to twelve and a half times one-sixth of the pensionable emoluments payable to him at the date of his death shall be paid to the legal personal representatives on account of the deceased person's estate.

Ch. 23:54.

(5) Nothing in this Act shall affect the rights of a widow of any Judge, including the Chief Justice under the Widows' and Orphans' Pensions Act or any other law.

(6) In this section—
"Judge" does not include the Chief Justice;
"widow" includes widower.

(7) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the 31st August 1962.

14. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 2 and 3 of the Widows' and Orphans' Pensions Act every Judge is eligible to be a contributor under that Act and the provisions of that Act in relation to the payment of pensions to widows and orphans of deceased public officers applies to the office of Judge.

Widows' and Orphans' Pensions. Ch. 23:54.

15. No pension, gratuity or other allowance granted under this Act shall be assignable or transferable, or liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon, for or in respect of any debt or claim whatsoever other than a debt due to the State.

Pension not assignable or attachable.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS

16. (1) The President may make Regulations generally for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make Regulations relating to the conditions of service of, and the allowances payable to, a Judge.

Regulations.

(2) Whenever the President is satisfied that it is equitable that any Regulation made under subsection (1) should have retrospective effect in order to confer a benefit upon or remove a disability attaching to any person, that regulation may be given retrospective effect for that purpose.

JUDGES (CONDITIONS OF SERVICE AND ALLOWANCES) REGULATIONS (NO. 2)*made under section 16PRELIMINARY

Citation.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Judges (Conditions of Service and Allowances) Regulations (No. 2).

Interpretation.
[190/1997].

2. In these Regulations—

“children” means the children of a Judge (including legally adopted children) who are below the age of twenty years; unmarried and dependent on him;

“Court vacation” means the whole of any period prescribed as a Court vacation by Rules of Court in relation to the High Court and the Court of Appeal respectively;

Sub. Leg.

“existing Judge” means a Judge appointed before the making of the Judges (Conditions of Service and Allowances) (Amendment) Regulations;

“new Judge” means a Judge appointed after the making of the Judges (Conditions of Service and Allowances) (Amendment) Regulations.

Option and application of these Regulations.

3. For the purpose of section 89(3) of the former Constitution, a Judge shall have the option of accepting the conditions of service and allowances provided for in these Regulations as a whole instead of those provided for in the Judges (Conditions of Service and Allowances) Regulations (No. 1); and these Regulations shall apply as a whole to such of the Judges only as have before the expiration of three months from the coming into force of these Regulations exercised the option in favour of these Regulations.

Sub. Leg.

*These Regulations have been amended by LNs 125/1981; 50/1985; 42/1986; 114/1990; 86/1992; 190/1997; 214/1997.

VACATION AND VACATION PASSAGE ALLOWANCES

4. Subject to such assignments for duty as may be made by the Chief Justice for the due execution of vacation business, Judges shall be on vacation during the two short vacation periods at Easter and Christmas.

Vacations.
[190/1997].

5. Subject to these Regulations, a Judge may go abroad during any Court vacation with the approval of the Chief Justice, but, save as herein provided, no Judge shall be absent from Trinidad and Tobago without the approval of the President.

Absence abroad.

6. (1) In addition to the Easter and Christmas vacations a Judge is entitled—entitlements.

Vacation
[190/1997].

(a) in the case of a Justice of Appeal, to six weeks vacation per annum; and

(b) in the case of a puisne Judge, to four weeks vacation per annum and six weeks vacation per annum respectively, in alternate years.

(2) The vacation provided for in subregulation (1) shall be taken at such time or times as may be approved by the Chief Justice and shall not be accumulated from one year to another.

7. (1) In every second year a Judge shall be entitled to be paid a passage allowance to enable him and his family to go abroad during his vacation, the amount of which allowance shall be equivalent to the full cost of first-class return air fares from Trinidad to London by the most direct route for the Judge and his spouse, if any, and his children, if any, but shall not exceed the cost of three such adult fares.

Passage
allowance.
[190/1997].

(2) A Judge other than an acting Judge or one appointed under section 104(2) of the Constitution for a period of less than two years, may opt to receive in lieu of the passage allowance described in subregulation (1), an annual travel grant of twenty thousand dollars in cash.

(3) In respect of existing Judges who receive a benefit under regulation 7A in 1997, this regulation shall come into effect from 1st January 1998, but in respect of all other Judges this regulation is deemed to have come into effect on 1st January 1997.

Additional passage
allowance.
[125/1981
190/1997].

7A. (1) Notwithstanding regulation 7, once every two years a Judge is entitled to a passage to any part of the Commonwealth served by the National Airline so that he may establish contact with judicial colleagues, attend conferences, seminars, lectures or similar gatherings.

(2) Where such judicial contact involves some official participation in—

- (a) a Commonwealth country not served by the National Airline; or
- (b) the United Nations and its law agencies and organs, the cost of supplementary travel shall be authorised.

(3) Passage allowance under this regulation shall cover first-class travel, hotel accommodation and subsistence and shall be in respect of the Judge, his spouse and not more than two of his children who have not yet attained the age of eighteen years, are unmarried and maintained by him.

(4) There shall be a block vote provided for passage allowances payable under this regulation and all arrangements under this regulation and such block vote shall be subject to the control of the Chief Justice.

(5) This regulation shall not apply to new Judges or to any existing Judge who has exercised the option conferred by regulation 7B of taking the allowance provided by that regulation in lieu of the benefit provided by this regulation.

Judicial Contact
allowance.
[190/1997].

7B. (1) Subject to this regulation there shall be paid to every Judge an allowance known as a Judicial Contact allowance of five thousand dollars per month.

(2) This regulation shall not apply to an existing Judge unless he exercises the option provided by subregulation (3).

(3) An existing Judge may, not later than 31st December 1997, opt to receive the allowance provided by this regulation in lieu of the benefit provided by regulation 7A.

(4) Where an existing Judge receives a benefit under regulation 7A in 1997, but exercises the option provided by subregulation (3), the allowance provided by this regulation shall be payable to him as from 1st January 1998 but in the case of all other Judges who are or become eligible to receive such allowance it shall be payable as from 1st January 1997.

7C. A Judge who is entitled to exercise the option of receiving—Option exercisable only once. [190/1997].

- (a) the cash grant in lieu of the passage allowance provided for in regulation 7; or
- (b) the Judicial Contact allowance in lieu of the benefit provided for in regulation 7A, shall do so once only in writing signed by him and shall thereafter forfeit any claim to the benefit which he has opted to forego save that the previous exercise of an option shall not be binding on, or enure to the benefit of a Judge who is appointed under section 104(2) of the Constitution.

HOUSING

8. There shall be provided rent-free for the Chief Justice a fully furnished residence of the super-grade category.

Housing for Chief Justice. [125/1981].

8A. (1) Subject to this regulation, fully furnished residences of the super-grade category shall be provided rent-free for all Judges (other than the Chief Justice) and the allocation of such residences shall be in the sole discretion of the Chief Justice.

Housing for other Judges. [125/1981 190/1997].

(2) With effect from 1st April 1997, where a Judge is not provided with a residence referred to in subregulation (1) or where he chooses not to occupy such a residence, he shall, subject to subregulation (3), be paid a monthly housing allowance of—

- (a) in the case of the Chief Justice, seven thousand five hundred dollars;
