CHAPTER 40:71

GIRL GUIDES ASSOCIATION ACT

1950 Ed.
Ch.41 No. 2
1 of 1929.

An Act to further and protect the activities and interests of the Girl Guides Association in Trinidad and Tobago.

Commencement.

[8TH MARCH 1929]

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Girl Guides Association Act.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act—

“the Association” means the Girl Guides Association incorporated under the Royal Charter granted on the 14th December 1922;

“Girl Guide” means a Girl Guide recognised as such under the constitution, bye-laws or rules of the Association, and includes also all officers of the Association.

Restriction on use of uniform, etc., of the Girl Guides Association.

3. It shall not be lawful for any person, not being under the bye-laws or rules of the Association duly authorised and entitled so to do, publicly to wear, carry or bear any uniform, badge, token or emblem which under the said bye-laws or rules is specifically adopted for use under the authority of the Association, in such style or manner as to convey an impression that such person is, under the said bye-laws or rules, entitled so to wear, carry or bear such uniform, badge, token or emblem.

Girl Guide not to exercise authority unlawfully.

4. No Girl Guide shall seek or attempt by virtue of her wearing any uniform, badge, token or emblem of the Association, or uniform, badge, token or emblem purporting or appearing to be such, to enforce or exercise authority otherwise than in accordance with and as authorised by the bye-laws or rules of the Association.

No person falsely to claim connection with Girl Guides Association.

5. It shall not be lawful for any person to form, organise or work in connection with, or be concerned in forming, organising, or in work in connection with, any corps or body which, without due authority granted under the Royal Charter of the Association, claims or purports to be Girl Guides or otherwise to be connected with the Association or which hold themselves out as, or pass themselves off as, Girl Guides or as otherwise connected with the Association.

6. Any person who contravenes this Act is liable on summary conviction to a fine of four hundred dollars. Penalties.
