2A. The Venture Capital Incentive Programme is hereby established as a Body Corporate. Body Corporate. [38 of 1997].

3. (1) The President shall appoint a fit and proper person to be the Administrator of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme upon such terms and conditions to be fixed by the President. Appointment of Administrator. [38 of 1997].

(2) The Administrator may be removed from office by the President for misconduct or inability or failure to perform his duties properly or for failure to comply with subsection (8).

(3) The Administrator shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as may be fixed by the President.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act and any other written law, the Administrator, while holding office, shall not occupy any other office or employment, whether remunerated or not, but the Administrator may, with the approval of the President, become a director or member of the board of any organisation or other agency to which the Government subscribes, contributes or gives support.

(5) In the event of the absence or inability of the Administrator from whatever cause arising to perform his duties, the President may appoint a fit and proper person to act temporarily in place of the Administrator.

(6) The Administrator, with the approval of the Minister, shall appoint, upon such terms and conditions as he may think fit, such persons as may be considered necessary to assist the Administrator in the performance of his duties.

(7) A person appointed or employed under this section shall not borrow money from a venture capital company.

(8) Where a person appointed or employed under this section is or becomes a shareholder in a venture capital company before or after his appointment or employment, whether directly or indirectly, he shall notify the Minister in writing of such shareholding and the Minister shall require that person to dispose of such shareholding or interest within a specified time.

(9) The Administrator shall, before the thirty-first day of March in each year, furnish to the Minister for laying before Parliament, a report of his activities during the previous year.

Secondment of officers.
[38 of 1997].

3A. (1) An officer in the public service may with the approval of the Public Service Commission and the consent of the Minister agree to be appointed on secondment to the service of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme, upon such terms and conditions as may be acceptable to the administrator and the officer.

(2) Where secondment is effected, the Venture Capital Incentive Programme shall make such arrangements as may be necessary to preserve the rights of the officer seconded to any pension, gratuity, or other allowance for which he would have been eligible had he not been seconded.

(3) A period of secondment shall not exceed two years.

(4) The officer shall, upon secondment to the Venture Capital Incentive Programme, draw the full pay of the post to which he is seconded and shall be eligible for increments, if any, normally payable in such a post.

(5) During the period of secondment an officer shall be deemed to remain on the establishment of his Ministry or Department and shall be eligible for promotion in absentia.

(6) An officer who has been seconded to the Venture Capital Incentive Programme in pursuance of this section may, with the approval of the Public Service Commission, be transferred from the Venture Capital Incentive Programme to an office in the Public Service on the termination of his service with the Venture Capital Incentive Programme.

3B. (1) The funds and resources of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme shall be money allocated by Parliament for the use of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme and shall be applied in meeting any obligation or discharging any function of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme.

Duties of Administrator in regard to funds and resources of Programme.
[38 of 1997].

(2) The Administrator shall keep proper accounts and records of the transactions and affairs of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme and shall do all things necessary to ensure that all payments out of the moneys of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme are correctly made and properly authorised and that adequate control is maintained over the assets of or in the custody of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme and over the incurring of liability by the Venture Capital Incentive Programme.

(3) The Administrator shall submit to the Minister, no later than three months after the close of the financial year, a financial statement for every financial year in respect of the financial affairs of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme.

(4) The accounts of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme shall be audited by the Auditor General annually or by an Auditor authorised by him for such purposes.

(5) The Administrator shall forward to the Minister, a copy of the statement of accounts of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme together with any report made by the Auditor General and the Minister shall ensure that the audited statement of accounts and report are laid in Parliament within three months thereafter, or if Parliament is not in session, within one month after the commencement of the next sitting.

(6) The financial year of the Venture Capital Incentive Programme shall be the financial year as defined in section 3 of the Constitution.

Ch. 81:04.

(b) has no more than the issued and fully paid share capital as prescribed by the Minister;

(c) is not established for the purpose of carrying on any of the prohibited categories of business as may be prescribed;

(d) (Revoked by Act No. 13 of 2005).

15. Subject to the provisions of this Act, a venture capital company may make an investment in a qualifying investee company, which investment shall consist of the direct acquisition from the qualifying investee company of equity shares issued for the purpose of raising new equity capital.

Eligible investment in qualifying investee companies.

PART IV

PROHIBITIONS

16. (1) A venture capital company shall not make or hold an investment in a qualifying investee company where the proceeds of that investment are directly or indirectly used or intended to be used, in whole or in part, by the qualifying investee company—

Prohibited investments.

- (a) for lending;
- (b) for investment outside of Trinidad and Tobago, except where the investment is directly in support of the activities of the company;
- (c) for investment in land, except where the use of the land is directly in support of the activities of the company;
- (d) for purchasing goods or services from a director, shareholder or other officer of a venture capital company other than goods or services that are sold at fair market value to the company in the ordinary course of the business of the vendor;
- (e) for acquiring securities;
- (f) for the payment of all or part of a debt obligation, unless the Administrator considers that the payment is necessary for the financial viability of the company or the debt was incurred with the prior approval of the Administrator in anticipation of an investment in the company by the venture capital company;
- (g) as part of a transaction or series of transactions directly or indirectly involving—
 - (i) the purchase or redemption of previously issued shares of the company;

- (ii) the discharge of any part of the liability of a shareholder of the company;
 - (iii) the payment of dividends;
 - (iv) the funding of all or part of the purchase by the company of any of the assets of a proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, trust or company at a value that is greater than the open market value of the assets purchased;
 - (v) other prescribed events;
- (h) for such other disbursements as may be prescribed by the Minister.

(2) For the purposes of this section and sections 17, 18 and 19, a “qualifying investee company” includes an affiliate or associate of the qualifying investee company.

Control of qualifying investee companies prohibited.

17. (1) A venture capital company shall not make or hold an investment in a qualifying investee company where it and any other venture capital company, either alone or in conjunction with one or more of their—

- (a) associates or affiliates;
- (b) shareholders of their associates or affiliates;
- (c) directors or their associates;
- (d) officers or their associates, will own, directly or indirectly, shares carrying more than fifty per cent of the votes for the election of directors of the qualifying investee company or will, in any manner, control the qualifying investee company.

(2) Where the Administrator considers that a qualifying investee company in which a venture capital company makes an investment is in financial difficulty, he may permit the venture capital company to temporarily control the qualifying investee company on terms and conditions as he may determine.

Non-arm’s
length investment
prohibited.

18. (1) A venture capital company shall not make an investment in a qualifying investee company where any of the shares of the venture capital company are held by a person who is or was at any time during the two years preceding the investment—

- (a) a major shareholder of the qualifying investee company;
- (b) an associate of a major shareholder of the qualifying investee company;
- (c) a voting trust whereby the trustee votes shares of the qualifying investee company;
- (d) the qualifying investee company or an associate or affiliate of the qualifying investee company.

(2) A venture capital company shall not make or hold an investment in a qualifying investee company where the qualifying investee company or an associate, affiliate, director, officer or shareholder of the qualifying investee company provides or has provided a loan, guarantee or other financial assistance to—

- (a) an associate or affiliate of the venture capital company;
- (b) a director, officer or major shareholder of the venture capital company.

19. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a venture capital company shall hold each investment it makes in a qualifying investee company for a period of at least five years but not exceeding ten years.

Aggregate investment of venture capital company.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a venture capital company may hold an investment in a qualifying investee company for less than five years where the venture capital company—

- (a) is permitted under the Act to dispose of the investment at an earlier date;
- (b) disposes of the investment at an earlier date pursuant to an exit opportunity and immediately invests an amount equal to the original cost of the disposed investment in an investment in another qualifying investee company.

20. (1) Where the investment of a venture capital company is or becomes prohibited, the company shall, within six months of the date of the prohibited investment, dispose of the investment.

Action where investment is prohibited.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where, within six months of the date of the prohibited investment, the circumstances that caused the investment to be prohibited are changed to the extent that the investment is no longer prohibited.

(3) Where the Administrator is satisfied that the non-compliance by the venture capital company of provisions under this Part occurred in spite of its exercise of reasonable prudence, he may, with or without conditions, relieve the company from the consequences of non-compliance for a period he considers appropriate.

PART V

INVESTMENT PROTECTION ACCOUNT AND ELIGIBLE INVESTMENTS

Investment
Protection Account.
Ch. 79:09.

21. (1) Every venture capital company shall establish and maintain at a financial institution licensed under the Financial Institutions Act an account to be known as an Investment Protection Account into which shall be deposited—

- (a) such percentage as may be prescribed by the Minister in respect of the consideration paid to the venture capital company in respect of the issue of shares for which a tax credit is applied for under section 29;
- (b) such percentage as may be prescribed by the Minister in respect of the amount received by the venture capital company from the disposal of an investment in a qualifying investee company or such other percentage of the original cost of the disposed investment as may be prescribed by the Minister.

(2) No withdrawals may be made from an Investment Protection Account without the prior written authorisation of the Administrator as specified in this section.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to income earned on sums deposited into an Investment Protection Account and paid or credited to another account of the venture capital company.

(4) Where the Administrator is satisfied that a venture capital company makes or proposes to make an investment in a qualifying investee company in accordance with this Act, the Administrator may, upon such conditions as he may stipulate, in writing authorise a withdrawal from the Investment Protection Account for the benefit of the venture capital company of an amount equal to such percentage of the investment as may be prescribed by the Minister or the amount remaining in the account, whichever is the lesser.

(5) Where a venture capital company is required to make a payment to the Minister under section 27, the Minister may, on the written authorisation of the Administrator, deliver to the financial institution at which the Investment Protection Account is maintained, a demand for payment of the amount due.

(6) Where the financial institution receives a demand under subsection (5), the institution shall immediately withdraw from the Investment Protection Account of the venture capital company in question the amount demanded and pay the amount over to the Minister forthwith.

22. A venture capital company shall not make an investment other than an investment in—Eligible investments.

- (a) eligible investments; or
- (b) permitted investments.

23. (1) Where a qualifying investee company in which a venture capital company has made an eligible investment no longer complies with the requirements for qualification under section 14, the venture capital company shall, within six months of the date of the non-compliance, dispose of its investment in the qualifying investee company.

Changes in eligibility.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where, within six months of the date of non-compliance by the qualifying investee company, the circumstances that caused the company not to qualify are changed to the extent that the company qualifies.

PART VI

REPORTING, EXAMINATION AND PAYMENTS TO MINISTERRecords and returns.

- 24. (1) Every venture capital company shall—
- (a) keep adequate records and books of accounts at its place of business in Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (b) within six months of the end of its financial year, prepare and file with the Administrator a return, in such form and containing such information as may be required by the Administrator.

(2) A venture capital company required by this section to keep records and books of accounts shall retain every such record and book of account together with every account or voucher necessary to verify the information contained in such record or book of account for a period of at least six years from the year to which the records or books relate.

(3) A venture capital company which contravenes this section commits an offence.

Examination of records by Administrator.

- 25. (1) The Administrator or a person authorised in writing by the Administrator may, during the normal business hours of—
- (a) a venture capital company;
 - (b) a company that was previously a venture capital company; or
 - (c) a qualifying investee company in which the venture capital company has made an investment, examine the books, accounts or other documents of those respective companies in order to determine whether the venture capital company or the company that was previously a venture capital company has complied with the provisions of this Act.

(2) A person who is authorised by the Administrator pursuant to subsection (1) shall, where requested by the company he is examining, produce evidence of his written authority to the company.

(3) The Administrator or person authorised by him may make copies of any books, accounts, records or other documents which he is entitled to examine under this section.

26. (1) The Administrator may make an order—

Appointment and powers of an investigator.

- (a) appointing an investigator to carry out an investigation for the purposes of the Act; and
- (b) determining the scope of the investigation.

(2) The Court may, upon application made by the Administrator or by an investigator appointed under subsection (1) and, upon being satisfied by information on oath that it is necessary and in the public interest for any purpose relating to an investigation under subsection (1), make an order authorising the investigator—

- (a) to enter the premises or property of a person at any reasonable time for the purpose of carrying out the investigation;
- (b) to require the production of any records, securities or things for the purpose of the investigation;
- (c) on giving a receipt, to remove any records, securities or things inspected or examined for the purpose of further investigation;
- (d) to require a person, by not less than fourteen days' notice in writing, to appear before him to give evidence on oath or in any other manner as the investigator considers necessary to conduct the investigation;
- (e) to do such other things as the Court considers necessary or expedient for the purpose of the investigation.

(3) An application to the Court under subsection (2) may be made ex parte and heard in camera unless the Court otherwise directs.

(4) An investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be completed as soon as practicable and the records, securities or things removed shall be returned to the person producing them, within thirty days of the completion of the investigation.

- (5) No person shall withhold, destroy, conceal or refuse to—
- (a) give any information;
 - (b) produce any record, security or thing, reasonably required by an investigator for the purpose of conducting an investigation under this section.

(6) A person required to appear before an investigator pursuant to subsection (2) may appear in person or through his attorney or agent.

(7) A person who, without lawful excuse, fails or refuses to comply with the order of the Court under subsection (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty-five thousand dollars.

Payments to Minister.

27. (1) Where a venture capital company—

- (a) has its registration as a venture capital company cancelled;
- (b) is struck off the register of companies by the Registrar of Companies;
- (c) passes a voluntary winding up resolution;
- (d) has a winding up order made against it by the Court;
- (e) passes a resolution requesting cancellation of its registration as a venture capital company;
- (f) passes a resolution reducing its share capital, the company shall, except where it reduces its share capital, make a payment to the Minister equal to the amount deposited into its Investment Protection Account under section 21(1)(a) in respect of the issue of its shares.

(2) Where a venture capital company passes a resolution reducing its share capital, the company shall make a payment to the Minister equal to the amount deposited into its Investment Protection Account under section 21(1)(a) in respect of its reduced shares.

(3) The amount paid to the Minister shall not exceed the aggregate of the tax credits allowed in respect of the shares.

(4) The amount to be paid to the Minister is a debt due to the State.

28. (1) Where the Administrator is satisfied that a venture capital company has complied with the provisions of this Act, the Administrator may, with respect to amounts invested in an eligible investment, make a forgiveness order at any time after the expiration of five years from the date of making the eligible investment.

Forgiveness of liability of venture capital company.

(2) Where the Administrator makes a forgiveness order under subsection (1), the liability of the venture capital company to make a payment under section 27 is reduced by such amount as may be prescribed.

(3) In determining the amount of a forgiveness order, the Administrator shall take into account any matters he considers relevant, including without restriction any liability of the venture capital company under section 27 that will remain outstanding after making the order.

PART VII

TAXATION INCENTIVES

- 29. (1) Where a person purchases shares issued—
- (a) by a company prior to the date of its registration as a venture capital company, where the prescribed percentage of the amount received in respect of those shares was paid into the Investment Protection Account of the company and the shares were issued within six months before the date of registration of the company as a venture capital company;
 - (b) by a company after the date of its registration as a venture capital company,

Tax credit certificate. [7 of 1999].

the venture capital company shall, on behalf of the person, apply to the Administrator for a tax credit certificate which may be used by that person to claim a tax credit under section 48K of the Income Tax Act.

Ch. 75:01.
